Poliziano, 2004-07-30 Angelo Poliziano 1454-1494 was one of the great scholar poets of the Renaissance and a leading figure in the circle of Lorenzo de' Medici il Magnifico in Florence. His Silvae are poetical introductions to his courses in literature at the University of Florence written in Latin hexameters. They not only contain some of the finest Latin poetry of the Renaissance but also afford unique insight into the poetical credo of a brilliant scholar as he considers the works of his Greek and Latin predecessors as well as of his contemporaries writing in Italian. Short epics Maffeo Vegio, 2009-06-30 Maffeo Vegio 1407-1458 was the outstanding Latin poet of the first half of the fifteenth century. This volume includes Book XIII of Vergil's Aeneid, Vegio's famous continuation of the Roman epic which was extremely popular in the later Renaissance, printed many times and translated into every major European language and even into Scottish Gaelic. It also contains three other epic works: Astyanax based on an episode in the Iliad, The Golden Fleece, Vellum Aureum, and Antonias, a short epic based on the life of Saint Anthony of Egypt. Antonias is the first Christian epic of the Renaissance, a precursor of Milton's Paradise Lost. This volume contains the first modern editions of the Latin text of Antonias and Astyanax. Table of Contents, Introduction, Book XIII of the Aeneid, Astyanax, The Golden Fleece, Antonias, Appendix, Note on the Text, Notes to the Text, Notes to the Translation, Bibliography, Index.

Biographical Writings Giannozzo Manetti, 2003 Manetti 1396-1459 was a leading humanist biographer of the Renaissance. This volume brings together his biographies of Dante, Petrarch, and Boccaccio which helped establish the canon of Italian literature and his parallel lives of Socrates and Seneca, the standard biographical sources for those philosophers throughout the early modern period.

History of the Florentine people Leonardo Bruni, 2004 The Virginia Quarterly Review, 2004

The Annotated Luther, Volume 3 Paul W. Robinson, 2016-08-01 Volume 3 of The Annotated Luther series presents five key writings that focus on Martin Luther's understanding of the gospel as it relates to church sacraments and worship. Included in the volume are The Babylonian Captivity of the Church (1520), The German Mass and Order of the Liturgy (1526), That These Words of Christ: This is my Body etc. Still Stand Firm Against the Fanatics (1527), Concerning Rebaptism (1528), and On the Councils and the Church (1539). Luther refused to tolerate a church built on human works, whether it was the pope's authority or the faith or decision of individual believers. This is the thread that runs through all the texts in this volume: the church and sacraments belong to Christ, who founded and instituted them. Each volume in The Annotated Luther series contains new introductions as well as annotations, illustrations, and notes to help shed light on Luther's context and interpret his writings for today. The translations of Luther's writings include updates of Luther's Works, American Edition, or entirely new translations of Luther's German or Latin writings.

Commentators, 200-600 AD: Psychology (with ethics and religion) Richard Sorabji, 2005 This is the first work to draw on the four hundred years of transition from ancient Greek philosophy to the medieval philosophy of Islam and the West During this period philosophy was often written in the form of commentaries on the works of Plato and Aristotle Many ideas wrongly credited to the Middle Ages derive from these centuries such as that of impetus in dynamics and intentional objects in philosophy of mind The later Neoplatonist commentators fought a losing battle with Christianity but inadvertently made Aristotle acceptable to Christians by ascribing to him belief in a Creator God and human immortality The commentators provide a panorama of up to a thousand years of Greek philosophy much of which would otherwise be lost They also serve as the missing link essential for understanding the subsequent history of Western philosophy Volume 1 deals with psychology which for the Neoplatonist commentators was the gateway to metaphysics and theology It was the subject on which Plato and Aristotle disagreed most and on which the commentators went furthest beyond them in their search for synthesis Ethics and religious practice fall naturally under psychology and are included in this volume All sources appear in English translation and are carefully linked and cross referenced by editorial comment and explanation Bibliographies are provided throughout
