Point No Point Sujata Bhatt,1997 In a very short time the author has gained recognition as one of the distinct and reckonable new voices She has things to say about her native India and her native tongue Gujarati about America and Britain and about Germany where she now lives This bok includes her poems Point No Point Jane Munro,2006-03-07 Point No Point s title comes from a landform an actual point on the west coast of Vancouver Island which seems when approached from the other side to be no point at all and it alerts us to the fact that Jane Munro s poems are situated in a deep sense They live in situ in the way they inhabit their native place intimate with its mists its mosses and lichens with the salmonberry and false lily of the valley of their ecosystem They are also situated temporally evoking sharply etched memories visions and dreams a real time visit to her father s boatyard a dream visit with her mother from a time before the poet was conceived a flashback to the sixties rendered in extreme close up By their musical attunement and the acuity of the focus they demonstrate how such deep situation may come about how we might bring language to the task of living in a way which is fully present In the long culminating poem Moving to a Colder Climate Munro brings all these elements into play summoning her father s bold obstreperous ghost to be present as a new house is built situated in this language Her gifts as a poet acuity candour musicality make Point No Point a work of unforgettable witness The Lady in Kicking Horse Reservoir:
