Points In Time An Autobiography:

The Autobiographical Self in Time and Culture Qi Wang, 2013-07-26 In this volume Qi Wang traces the developmental social cultural and historical origins of the autobiographical self the self that is made of memories of the personal past and of the family and the community Wang combines rigorous research sensitive survey of real memories and memory conversations and fascinating personal anecdotes into a state of the art book As a marginal woman who grew up in the East and works and lives in the West Wang's analysis is unique insightful and approachable Her accounts of her own family stories extraordinarily careful and thorough documentation of research findings and compelling theoretical insights together convey an unequivocal message The autobiographical self is conditioned by one s time and culture Beginning with a perceptive examination of the form content and function of parent child conversations of personal and family stories Wang undertakes to show how the autobiographical self is formed in and shaped by the process of family storytelling situated in specific cultural contexts By contrasting the development of autobiographical writings in Western and Chinese literatures Wang seeks to demonstrate the cultural stance of the autobiographical self in historical time She examines the autobiographical self in personal time thoughtfully analyzing the form structure and content of everyday memories to reveal the role of culture in modulating information processing and determining how the autobiographical self is remembered Focusing on memories of early childhood Wang seeks to answer the guestion of when the autobiographical self begins from a cross cultural perspective She sets out further to explore some of the most controversial issues in current psychological research of autobiographical memory focusing particularly on issues of memory representations versus memory narratives and silence versus voice in the construction of the autobiographical self appropriate to one s cultural assumptions She concludes with historical analyses of the influences of the larger social political and economic forces on the autobiographical self and takes a forward look at the autobiographical self as a product of modern technology The Well-Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer, 2015-11-05 The enduring and engaging guide to educating yourself in the classical tradition Have you lost the art of reading for pleasure Are there books you know you should read but haven t because they seem too daunting In The Well Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer provides a welcome and encouraging antidote to the distractions of our age electronic and otherwise Newly expanded and updated to include standout works from the twenty first century as well as essential readings in science from the earliest works of Hippocrates to the discovery of the asteroid that killed the dinosaurs The Well Educated Mind offers brief entertaining histories of six literary genres fiction autobiography history drama poetry and science accompanied by detailed instructions on how to read each type The annotated lists at the end of each chapter ranging from Cervantes to Cormac McCarthy Herodotus to Laurel Thatcher Ulrich Aristotle to Stephen Hawking preview recommended reading and encourage readers to make vital connections between ancient traditions and contemporary writing The Well Educated Mind reassures those readers who worry that they read too slowly or with below average comprehension If you can understand a daily newspaper there s no reason you can t read and enjoy Shakespeare s sonnets or Jane Eyre But no one should attempt to read the Great Books without a guide and a plan Bauer will show you how to allocate time to reading on a regular basis how to master difficult arguments how to make personal and literary judgments about what you read how to appreciate the resonant links among texts within a genre what does Anna Karenina owe to Madame Bovary and also between genres In her best selling work on home education The Well Trained Mind the author provided a road map of classical education for parents wishing to home school their children that book is now the premier resource for home schoolers In The Well Educated Mind Bauer takes the same elements and techniques and adapts them to the use of adult readers who want both enjoyment and self improvement from the time they spend reading Followed carefully her advice will restore and expand the pleasure of the written word The Sexual Politics of Time Susannah Radstone, 2007-12-03 Looking at a diverse range of texts including Marilyn French s The Women s Room Philip Roth s Patrimony the writings of Walter Benjamin and Fredric Jameson and films such as Cinema Paradiso Susannah Radstone argues that though time has been foregrounded in theories of postmodernism those theories have ignored the question of time and sexual difference The Sexual Politics of Time proposes that the contemporary western world has witnessed a shift from the age of confession to the era of memory In a series of chapters on confession nostalgia the memories of boyhood film and the memoir Susannah Radstone sets out to complicate this claim Developing her argument through psychoanalytic theory she proposes that an attention to time and sexual difference raises questions not only about the analysis and characterization of texts but also about how cultural epochs are mapped through time The Sexual Politics of Time will be of interest to students and researchers of time memory difference and cultural change in subjects such as Media and Cultural Studies Sociology Film Studies A Time to Tell Eric S. Christianson, 1998-01-01 Using a variety of approaches from art criticism to structuralist analysis this book draws out largely neglected narrative elements of Qoheleth's text including the strategies of framing autobiography and the use of Solomon In locating the self as the central concern of this narrative Christianson shows that although Qoheleth passionately observes the world's transience he desires that his own image be fixed and remembered His story is thereby concerned with identity and the formation of character In the guise of Solomon that concern is almost satirical and somewhat playful Through the strategy of the frame narrative the complex relations of all such elements are brought into question particularly the reader's relation to the framed material as well as the relation of the framer to the one framed The Biographical Process Frank E. Augustine and Time John Doody, Sean Hannan, Kim Paffenroth, 2021-05-25 This collection examines the topic of time in the life and works of Augustine of Hippo Adopting a global perspective on time as a philosophical and theological problem the volume includes reflections on the meaning of history the mortality of human bodies and the relationship between temporal experience and linguistic expression As Augustine himself once observed time is both familiar and surprisingly strange Everyone's days are structured by temporal rhythms and routines from watching the clock to whiling away the hours at work Few of us however take the time to sit down and figure out whether time is real or not or how it is we are able to hold our past present and future thoughts together in a straight line so that we can recite a prayer or sing a song Divided into five sections the essays collected here highlight the ongoing relevance of Augustine's work even in settings quite distinct from his own era and context The first three sections organized around the themes of interpretation language and gendered embodiment engage directly with Augustine's own writings from the Confessions to the City of God and beyond The final two sections meanwhile explore the afterlife of the Augustinian approach in conversation with medieval Islamic and Christian thinkers like Avicenna and Aquinas as well as a broad range of Buddhist figures like Dharmakirti and Vasubandhu What binds all of these diverse chapters together is the underlying sense that regardless of the century or the tradition in which we find ourselves there is something about the puzzle of temporality that refuses to go away Time as Augustine knew demands our attention This was true for him in late ancient North Africa It was also true for Buddhist thinkers in South and East Asia And it remains just as true for humankind in the twenty first century as people around the globe continue to grapple with the reality of time and the challenges of living in a world that always seems to be to be speeding up rather than slowing down

"Biography, Identity and the Modern Interior" Penny Sparke,2017-07-05 Through a series of case studies from the mid eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first this collection of essays considers the historical insights that ethno auto biographical investigations into the lives of individuals groups and interiors can offer design and architectural historians Established scholars and emerging researchers shed light on the methodological issues that arise from the use of these sources to explore the history of the interior as a site in which everyday life is experienced and performed and the ways in which contemporary architects and interior designers draw on personal and collective histories in their practice Historians and theorists working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions are turning to biography as means of exploring and accounting for social cultural and material change and this volume reflects that turn representing the fields of architectural and design history social history literary history creative writing and design practice Topics include masters and servants in eighteenth century English kitchens the lost interiors of Oscar Wilde s House Beautiful Elsa

Schiaparelli s Surrealist spaces Jean Genet outlaws and the interiors of marginality and architect Lina Bo Bardi s Glass Space and Time Vincenzo Fano, Francesco Orilia, Giovanni Macchia, 2014-05-21 This collection House S Paulo Brazil focuses on the ontology of space and time It is centred on the idea that the issues typically encountered in this area must be tackled from a multifarious perspective paying attention to both a priori and a posteriori considerations Several experts in this area contribute to this volume G Landini discusses how Russell's conception of time features in his general philosophical perspective D Dieks proposes a middle course between substantivalist and relationist accounts of space time P Graziani argues that it is necessary to provide an account of the synthetic procedures implicit in the recourse to diagrams in Euclid's Elements while E Mares comes to the conclusion that in Euclid's Elements we should treat the parallel postulate as empirical and the postulate that space is continuous as a priori M Arsenijevi M Ad i present an important formal result concerning two theories of the infinite two dimensional continua which sheds new light on the current dispute between gunkologists and pointilists F Orilia discusses two problems for presentism one regarding the duration of the present and the other related to Zeno s paradoxes A Iacona delves deep into logical matters by focusing on the so called T W modal frames in order to deal with the deteterminism indeterminism controversy D Mancuso outlines a non standard temporal model compatible with time travel and V Fano G Macchia discuss time travels in the light of an important foundational principle of modern cosmology James Herriot Michael Rossi, 1997-01-28 This study examines James Herriot's five major books as Weyl s Principle carefully crafted volumes of autobiography based on the building block of the short story In each of these works Herriot explores the fundamental choice of values underlying a happy and successful life In his vision the bonds of affection and mutual dependence between all creatures human and animal form an enduring theme that lies at the heart of the choices he makes in his personal and professional life This study will help the reader to understand the relationship between Herriot s stories and each book as a whole and to appreciate Herriot's work in the context of twentieth century anxieties about identity and meaning Following a biographical chapter that describes the relationship between Herriot's life and literary work Rossi discusses the genre of autobiography the relationship between truth and fiction in modern autobiography and Herriot s use of the genre A separate chapter is then devoted to each of Herriot's works in turn All Creatures Great and Small All Things Bright and Beautiful All Things Wise and Wonderful The Lord God Made Them All and Every Living Thing The discussion of each work includes sections on plot development and narrative structure character development thematic issues and alternative critical approaches that may be fruitfully applied to the book Helpful appendices contain identifications of minor characters in the works A complete bibliography of all of James Herriot's works critical sources and a listing of reviews of all of his works completes the volume Because of the popularity of Herriot's work among adults and young adults this companion will be a key purchase for school and public libraries Autobiographical Poetry in England and Spain, 1950-1980 Menotti Lerro, 2017-03-07 The volume traces the founding critical theories of the autobiographical genre from the

Enlightenment period to the most recent developments which since the Sixties and the essays of Roy Pascal and Jean Starobinski have had a greater and greater influence It offers in contrast to the essential and by now classic definition of Philippe Lejeune an increased effectiveness of the poem to express the narrative purposes of autobiography recognizing poetic writing that has the extraordinary ability to say what the mortal language does not say to quote Leopardi The works of Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Carlos Barral and Jaime Gil de Biedma are analyzed here and show an unveiling of the self through memories places and objects that often characterize them and that allow to whomever recalls one s own experience through writing the recovery and restoration of essential meanings to the reconstruction not only of subjective identity but also of one s own community Empty Space and Points of Light Marie Herholdt Jørgensen, The book presents a study of key issues in Winerson's oeurve The selected works include Oranges are not the Only Fruit art Lies The PowerBook and Written on the Body works that are all concerned with the self in relation to the concepts of time love gender and the body Drawing on Jungian ideas of quest and individual and Queer theory Marie Herholdt Jorgensen shows how these concepts in the works of winterson are grounded in the prospect of numerous potential realities in which several narrations of the self are made possible Winterson disrupts the notion of one objective reality and instead centers on the individual as the narrator of various versions of reality and the self The book contains summaries of all of Winterson's novels making the book accessible for readers previously unfamiliar with jeanette winterson Jazz in the Time of the Novel Bruce Barnhart, 2013-10-18 Jazz in the Time of the Novel argues that a culture s understanding of the concept of time plays a central role in its economic social and aesthetic affairs and that a culture arrives at its conception of time through its artistic practices Bruce Barnhart in Jazz in the Time of the Novel shows that American culture of the first three decades of the twentieth century was shaped by the kindred rhythms and movements of two particular art forms jazz and fiction At the beginning of the twentieth century widespread changes in America's social demographic and economic norms threatened longstanding faith in a unified and inevitable movement towards a better future As Barnhart shows both jazz and novels of the period address these temporal uncertainties inserting themselves into arguments about the proper unfolding of an affirmative American future Barnhart proposes that these two aesthetic forms can be viewed as co participants in an ongoing discussion about the way in which the future should be imagined and experienced a discussion symptomatic of the broader exchanges taking place within the many trajectories comprising early twentieth century American culture This book includes in depth approaches to numerous examples of jazz and the novel including performances by James P Johnson Louis Armstrong Bessie Smith Duke Ellington and Ethel Waters and novels by James Weldon Johnson F Scott Fitzgerald Ernest Hemingway Gertrude Stein and Nella Larsen among others In addition to the details of specific musical and literary works Jazz in the Time of the Novel offers careful consideration as to how these works impact their social context

writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Do a Leonor L pez de Cord ba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana In s de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie Truths about Women Sonia Martina Wichmann, 2005
