Police Organisation And Legitimacy Case Studies In England Wales And Turkey:

Police Organisation and Legitimacy Ahmet H. Aydin, 1997 This work compares policing systems in England Wales and Turkey in terms of centralized and decentralized systems and their basis in legitimacy

World Criminal Justice Systems Richard J. Terrill, 2023-10-24 The revised tenth edition of this core textbook provides an understanding of major world criminal justice systems by discussing and comparing the systems of six of the world's countries each representative of a different type of legal system England France Japan South Africa Russia and China are all covered in detail and an additional chapter on Islamic law uses three example nations to illustrate the range of practice within Sharia Political historical organizational procedural and critical issues confronting the justice systems are explained and analyzed Neatly organized with a parallel structure throughout the text each chapter contains material on government police judiciary law corrections juvenile justice and other critical issues A new feature of this text focuses on the nature of the political world order and the significant clash between some democratic and authoritarian governments Of particular concern are those authoritarian governments that have seen the rise of what has been popularly referred to as the strongman leader The countries covered in this text have seen the emergence of four such strongmen While the rise of each occurred in different contexts they were each facilitated in significant ways by the manner in which they asserted their control over the country's criminal justice system This book is suitable for undergraduate and graduate students in criminal justice prelaw and similar programs A comprehensive test bank is available online

Institutional Change in Turkey L. Piran, 2013-09-12 How do state institutions reform themselves in the face of outside pressures This study undertakes an in depth analysis of the institutional and human rights reform process within the Turkish National Police which faces pressure from the EU as part of Turkey's EU membership process and examines the challenges and consequences of the process

The Politics of Crime in Turkey Zeynep Gönen, 2016-11-03 This book focuses on urban crime and policing in Turkey since the steady economic decline of the 1990s Concentrating on the attempts to modernize the policing of Izmir Zeynep Gonen highlights how the police force expanded their territorial control over the urban space specifically targeting the poor and racialized segments of the city Through in depth interviews and ethnographic observations of these targeted populations as well as rare ethnographic data from the Turkish police surveys of the media and politicians rhetoric Gonen shows how Kurdish migrants have been criminalized as dangerous enemies of the order In studying the ideological and material processes of criminalization The Politics of Crime in Turkey makes the case for the neoliberal politics of crime that uses the notion of security to legitimize violence and authoritarianism The book will be of interest to criminologists as well as those investigating the modern Turkish state and its relationship to the Kurds in the wider region The multilayered methodology and conceptual approach sheds light on parallel developments in penal and security systems across the globe

Encyclopedia of Law Enforcement Larry E Sullivan, 2005 Vols 1 and 2 cover U S law enforcement Vol 3 contains articles on individual foreign nations together with topical articles on international law enforcement Policing European Metropolises Elke Devroe, Adam Edwards, Paul Ponsaers, 2017-02-03 Understanding the politics of security in city regions is increasingly important for the study of contemporary policing This book argues that national and international governing arrangements are being outflanked by various transnational threats including the cross border terrorism of the attacks on Paris in 2015 and Brussels in 2016 trafficking in people narcotics and armaments cybercrime the deregulation of global financial services and environmental crime Metropolises are the focal points of the transnational networks through which policing problems are exported and imported across national borders as they provide much of the demand for illicit markets and are the principal engines generating other policing challenges including political protest and civil unrest This edited collection examines whether and how governing arrangements rooted in older systems of national sovereignty are adapting to these transnational challenges and considers problems of and for policing in city regions in the European Union and its single market Bringing together experts from across the continent Policing European Metropolises develops a sociology of urban policing in Europe and a unique methodology for comparing the experiences of different metropolises in the same country This book will be of value to police researchers in Europe and abroad as well as postgraduate students with an interest in policing and urban policy

Comparative Policing M. R. Haberfeld, Ibrahim Cerrah, 2007-12-17 A wonderful resource user friendly and very well written Timothy J Horohol John Jay College A unique approach to studying police forces around the globe How do police forces around the world move toward democratization of their operations and responses Analyzing police forces from 12 different countries Comparative Policing The Struggle for Democratization assesses the stages of each country based on the author's development of a Continuum of Democracy scale Key Features Using five basic themes this book uses the following criteria to rank and evaluate where each country falls on the continuum clarifying how policing practices differ History of a democratic form of government Level of corruption within governmental organizations and the oversight mechanisms in place Scope of and response to civil disobedience Organization structures of police departments Operational responses to terrorism and organized crime Intended Audience This unique analysis of policing is an ideal text for undergraduate and graduate courses in Comparative Criminal Justice Police Studies Policing and Society and Terrorism in departments of criminal justice criminology sociology and government Bibliographic Index, 1997 1997 Massimo

Mastrogregori, 2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Ordre et désordres dans l'Istanbul ottomane, 1879-1909 Noém?

Lévy, 2013 Capitale de l'Empire ottoman ville port caractérisée par une grande diversité ethnique et confessionnelle Istanbul est la fin du XIXe siècle une métropole de près d'un million d'habitants où les enjeux liés à l'ordre public sont particulièrement sensibles. Avec les transformations de l'État ottoman et les changements économiques et sociaux du long XIXe siècle, la définition de l'insécurité, le dispositif de maintien de l'ordre et les formes de contestation de l'ordre établi connaissent d'importantes transformations. C'est cette nouvelle configuration qui est ici étudiée de la fin des années 1870-1909 jusqu'à la prise de pouvoir par le régime autoritaire d'Abdülhamid II et la révolution jeune turque de 1908. Confronté aux défis posés par les migrations, les contestations politiques et les nouvelles formes de sociabilité, le pouvoir fait de la préservation de l'ordre politique, social, moral et religieux une priorité absolue. L'institutionnalisation de la police et son déploiement dans la capitale ont pour corollaire une redéfinition des priorités de l'action des forces de l'ordre et de leurs modes d'intégration dans la ville. Le processus qui s'inscrit dans un mouvement européen de réforme du maintien de l'ordre. L'ouvrage se concentre sur les nouvelles formes d'interactions de coopérations ou de rivalités entre les différents acteurs de l'espace urbain. L'institution policière principale responsable du maintien de l'ordre dans la capitale, les agents intermédiaires tels que les beğ ou les kabadayi, les cağs et la population locale. Des déviances quotidiennes, la stigmatisation des classes populaires, les armées des rondes policières, la pression sociale dans les quartiers. Cet ouvrage offre un éclairage nouveau sur les multiples facettes des relations entre l'État et la société à la fin de l'Empire ottoman. Il apporte aussi une contribution originale à l'historiographie de l'ordre public et du maintien de l'ordre en Europe.

Security Sector Reform Alan Bryden, 2003 American Book Publishing Record, 1997-09 International Criminal Justice Review, 1998 Good Governance and Civil-Security Relations Ahmed Abd Rabou, 2020-09-24 Developing the traditional civil-military relations approach to include security actors, the book compares the style of civil security relations in both Egypt and Turkey. The volume comprehends the competition between civilian actors and military and security actors to impose control over the political regimes in transition and how this is related to the issue of good governance and democratization. The Egyptian and Turkish cases are viably comparable in terms of the status of civil security relations and level of civilian control, specifically considering the different outcomes of the latest military putsches in both countries: 2013 in Egypt and 2016 in Turkey, and the extended experiences of both countries with a strong military influence and presence in politics. The different responses of the Egyptian and Turkish publics to the coup attempts invite an interesting comparison, especially given that in both cases the public was the decisive factor in the success or failure of the coup. Focusing on civil security relations within the broader context of good governance and democracy in Egypt and Turkey, this book will be a key resource for students and scholars interested in political science, specifically comparative government studies and Middle East studies.

Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards, 2009 Turkish Public Administration Annual, 1995 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 Crowds and Public Order Policing Ibrahim Cerrah, 2018-12-17 Published in 1998. This research is based on observations made of 33 crowd events between February 1992 February 1995 These took place in Turkey England and Wales and all of which involved a large police deployment In addition informal interviews were conducted in both countries involving key figures in areas of police public order training and practice Further visits were made to training sites and public order units to familiarise the researcher with public order policing in both countries Finally the researcher has attended three major public order courses organised for the senior members of British police forces This research analyzes the underlying assumptions contained within the existing theories in the field and attempts to adjudicate on the validity of both classical and modern contributions to the understanding of the field The research concludes that any public order policing regardless of the political system it serves will tend to be relatively paramilitary and oppressive Civilian public order policing practices need to take account of an approach which appreciates a wide combination of levels of understanding as represented by Combined Factors Approach Finally it is argued that the more public order policy reflects the potential level of understanding promoted by the CFA the less emphasis on paramilitary techniques will be deployed as tactics of last resort PAIS Subject Headings Public Affairs Information Service,1990 Arrest and Detention Powers in English and Turkish Law and Practice in the Light of the European Convention on Human Rights M.
