France in Crisis Timothy B. Smith, 2004-11-11 Timothy Smith argues that the French economy and society is in crisis and that globalization is not to blame

Domestic Politics and Norm Diffusion in International Relations Thomas Risse, 2016-10-14 This book collects Thomas Risse's most important articles together in a single volume. Covering a wide range of issues: the end of the Cold War, transatlantic relations, the democratic peace, human rights, governance in areas of limited statehood, Europeanization, European identity and public spheres, most recently comparative regionalism, it is a testament to the breadth and excellence of this highly respected International Relations scholar's work. The collection is organized thematically: domestic politics and international relations; international sources of domestic change and the diffusion of ideas and institutions; and a brand new introductory essay provides additional coherence. This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of International Relations, European Politics, and Comparative Politics. France Frances Chambers, 1990

Policy and Politics in France Douglas Elliott Ashford, 1982 Under the new socialist regime of Francois Mitterand how much will French policymaking change? How has it functioned under previous regimes? How does the French process compare with policymaking in other industrial states? These are some of the questions Douglas E. Ashford considers in analyzing six major areas of domestic policymaking in France: administrative reform, local and regional reform, economic policy, industrial relations, social security, and immigration. Each case is accompanied by selected readings translated from official government documents and the writings of critics of official policy, including readings from the Mitterand period. The book offers an unusually strong point of view, one that differs from the standard interpretations of French Politics.

Policy and Politics in Industrial States edited by Douglas E. Ashford, Peter J. Katzenstein, and T. J. Pempel. Each volume consists of a balance of provocative analysis and documents for six issues. Four topics: economic policy, labor relations, social welfare, and the internal organization of the state are common to all volumes; the remaining two are reserved for policy problems peculiar to the individual country.

Author note: Douglas E. Ashford is Andrew W. Mellon Professor of Comparative Politics at the University of Pittsburgh. He was formerly Director of the Western Societies Program at Cornell University. He is author of Policy and Politics in Britain. The Limits of Consensus also in this series.

International Affairs, 1983

Welfare States and Immigrant Rights Diane Sainsbury, 2012-08-30 Welfare States and Immigrant Rights deals with the policies and politics of immigrants' inclusion and exclusion in six countries representing different types of welfare states: the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Sweden, and Denmark.

The State and Industry in South Korea Jong-Chan Rhee, 2002-01-31 The economic success of East Asia is often attributed to the relationship between state and business. In The State and Industry in South Korea Jong-Chan Rhee presents a more balanced view of Korea's industrial miracle. The book examines the limits of a strong authoritarian state as a vehicle for intervening in the market or for sponsoring liberal reform In so doing the author focuses on how state controlled industrial adjustment in Korea has succeeded and failed Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Ringling the Changes in Europe Adrienne Héritier,Christoph Knill,Susanne Mingers,2011-07-22 No detailed description available for Ringling the Changes in Europe Political Science Abstracts ,2013-03-07 The 1996 Supplement of Political Science Abstracts contains 10 000 carefully prepared abstracts of materials from public affairs magazines major newspapers professional journals and books devoted to politics and political analysis The organization of the proceeding volumes has been retained intact as has the recently added list of subdisciplinary descriptors Users of earlier volumes will be on familiar ground while those new to Political Science Abstracts will find the instructions on page ix easy to master CONTENTS Volume 1 This Volume How to Use This Supplement ix Political Science Subdisciplinary Descriptors xi Index of Terms xiii Abstracts of Documents in This Supplement Volume 2 Bibliographic Index to the Abstracts ABILITY MINNESOTA 821 Volume 3 Bibliographic Index to the Abstracts MINORITY ZULU 1565 Author Index 2119 List of Periodicals Abstracted in This Supplement 2121 HOW TO USE THIS SUPPLEMENT Three simple steps are all that are needed to introduce the user to this easily accessible indexing system STEP 1 Turn to the Index of Terms and locate as many terms as possible that deal with your subject If you are interested in coverage of a more generic nature you may instead turn to the next page where key descriptors are listed that are associated with the major subject areas in political science and with their subdivisions Note that the index includes methodological as well as topical terms Numerical listings e g 24TH PAR C are located at the end of the alphabetical listing American Book Publishing Record ,1997 Nuclear Politics James M.
