Policy Making In A New State Papua New Guinea 1972 77:

Policy Making and Implementation Ronald James May,2009-09-01 There is a vast literature on the principles of public administration and good governance and no shortage of theoreticians practitioners and donors eager to push for public sector reform especially in less developed countries Papua New Guinea has had its share of public sector reforms frequently under the influence of multinational agencies and aid donors Yet there seems to be a general consensus both within and outside Papua New Guinea that policy making and implementation have fallen short of expectations that there has been a failure to achieve good governance This volume which brings together a number of Papua New Guinean and Australian based scholars and practitioners with deep familiarity of policy making in Papua New Guinea examines the record of policy making and implementation in Papua New Guinea since independence It reviews the history of public sector reform in Papua New Guinea and provides case studies of policy making and implementation in a number of areas including the economy agriculture mineral development health education lands environment forestry decentralization law and order defence women and foreign affairs privatization and AIDS Policy is continuously evolving but this study documents the processes of policy making and implementation over a number of years with the hope that a better understanding of past successes and failures will contribute to improved governance in the future State and Society in Papua New Guinea Ronald James May,2004-05-01 This volume brings together a number of papers written by the author between 1971 and 2001 which address issues of political and economic development and social change in Papua New Guinea Papua New Guinea John Connell,2005-07-28 Papua New Guinea is the first book to explore the economic development of this socially complex rapidly changing nation Subjects discussed include rapid economic growth and political conflict civil war on the island of Bougainville population growth and urbanisation mining gold copper and environmental conflicts uneven development and social divisions Exchange and Markets in Early Economic Development John D. Conroy,2023-05-12 The idea of an informal economy emerged from and is a critique of the ideology of economic development It originated from Keith Hart s recognition of informal economic activity in 1960s Ghana In the context of four colonialisms German British Australian and Dutch this book recounts Hart s effort in 1972 to introduce the informal sector into development planning in Papua New Guinea This was problematic because the market was scarcely institutionalized and traditional modes of exchange persisted stubbornly Rather than conforming with post colonial economic ideology the subjected people pushed back against imposed bureaucracy to practice informal and hybrid modes of economic activity Post-independence Economic Development of Papua New Guinea P. A. S. Dahanayake,1982 Conference report on the economic development of Papua New Guinea since independence examines economic conditions development policy labour utilization wage policy regional disparity trade policy import substitution monetary policy fiscal policy hard currency strategy foreign exchange balance of payments exports infrastructure development rural development and regional development contains economic indicators Bibliography graphs and statistical tables Conference held in Waigani 1981   Financial Institutions and Markets in South-west Pacific Michael T. Skully,1985-06-18   A Melanesia Bibliography Terence A. Wesley-Smith,Michael P. Hamnett,1984   The Rush to Policy Peter William House,Roger Roger Don Shull, Rush to Policy explores the appropriate role of technical analysis in policy formulation The authors ask when and how the use of sophisticated analytic techniques in decision making benefits the nation They argues that these techniques are too often used in situations where they may not be needed or understood by the decision maker where they may not be to answer the questions raised but are nonetheless required by law House and Shull provide an excellent empirical base for describing the impact of politics on policies policy analysis and policy analysts They examine cost benefit analysis risk analysis and decision analysis and assess their ability to substitute for the current decision making process in the public sector They examine the political basis of public sector decision making how individuals and organizations make decisions and the ways decisions are made in the federal sector Also they discuss the mandate to use these methods in the policy formulation process The book is written by two practicing federal policy analysts who in a decade of service as policy researchers developed sophisticated quantitative analytic and decision making techniques They then spent several years trying to use them in the real world Success and failures are described in illuminating detail providing insight not commonly found in such critiques The authors delineate the interaction of politics and technical issues Their book describes policy analysis as it is not how it ought to be Peter W House is the director of policy research and analysis at the National Science Foundation He is the author of ten books on multidisciplinary science and technology policy research and analyses in government private and university sectors including The Art of Public Policy Analysis and with Roger D Shull Regulatory Reform Politics and the Environment and Regulations and Science Management of Research on Demand Roger D Shull is a senior analyst at the Division of Policy Research and Analysis National Science Foundation   Struggle, Reform, Boom and Bust Stephen Howes,Martin Davies,Rohan Fox,Maholopa Laveil,Manoj K. Pandey,Kelly Samof,Dek Joe Sum,2025-07-31 Since Papua New Guinea s independence in 1975 economic growth has been slow but volatile with major changes in economic structure and policies as well as in politics and governance This economic history written to commemorate the fiftieth year of independence and the first to be produced in some 15 years divides the half century since independence into four periods the relative stability but also early struggles of the seventies and eighties the crises and reforms of the nineties the boom of the 2000s and the quiet bust of the 2010s Two chapters cover each period s major economic policy institutional and political developments The final three chapters provide an overall assessment of economic performance and policies since independence and link them with its politics and institutions The book combines painstaking documentation with original analysis to reveal both the strengths and weaknesses of the PNG economy and theorises that the country s hyper politics and insecurity have combined to produce and are reinforced by a weak but stable state and low and increasingly resource dependent growth Data driven frank insightful and engaging Struggle Reform Boom and Bust is written by an expert team of economists from the University of Papua New Guinea and The Australian National University under the leadership of Professor Stephen Howes Director of the ANU Development Policy Centre It is an essential resource for anyone interested in the economy of Papua New Guinea as well as an important contribution to the literature on the challenges and institutional determinants of post colonial development   New Politics in the South Pacific Fay Alailima,University of the South Pacific. Institute of Pacific Studies,1994 Focusses on the newer forces on the political scene within the Pacific Islands examining the evolving impact of women in politics and relations with the wider world

Eclipse of Empire D. A. Low,1991 The middle decades of the twentieth century witnessed the great dramas of the ending of Western imperial rule in Africa and Asia A series of nationalist onslaughts was launched against the British Empire and these greatly reshaped the modern world Professor Anthony Low has studied the end of the British Empire and its aftermath for many years This volume brings together for the first time many of his major essays on the subject   Autonomy and Ethnicity Yash P. Ghai,2000-10-12 This book first published in 2000 deals with one of the most urgent problems of contemporary times the political organisation of multi ethnic states Most major conflicts of our time are internal to the state and revolve around the claims of access to or the redesign of the state Responses to ethnic conflicts have ranged from oppression and ethnic cleansing to accommodations of ethnic claims through affirmative policies special forms of representation power sharing and the integration of minorities One of the most sought after and resisted devices for conflict management is autonomy Within an overarching framework that examines different understandings of ethnic consciousness and the variety of territorial autonomies the authors examine the experiences of spatial distribution of power in Canada India China South Africa Ethiopia PNG Spain the former Yugoslavia Cyprus Sri Lanka and Australia   Food and Agriculture in Papua New Guinea R. Michael Bourke,Tracy Harwood,2009-08-01 Agriculture dominates the rural economy of Papua New Guinea PNG More than five million rural dwellers 80% of the population earn a living from subsistence agriculture and selling crops in domestic and international markets Many aspects of agriculture in PNG are described in this data rich book Topics include agricultural environments in which crops are grown production of food crops cash crops and animals land use soils demography migration the macro economic environment gender issues governance of agricultural institutions and transport The history of agriculture over the 50 000 years that PNG has been occupied by humans is summarised Much of the information presented is not readily available within PNG The book contains results of many new analyses including a food budget for the entire nation The text is supported by 165 tables and 215 maps and figures   Customary Land Tenure and Registration in Australia and Papua New Guinea James F. Weiner,Katie Glaskin,2007-06-01 The main theme of this volume is a discussion of the ways in which legal mechanisms such as the Land Groups Incorporation Act 1974 in PNG and the Native Title Act 1993 in Australia do not as they purport serve merely to identify and register already existing customary indigenous landowning groups in these countries Because the legislation is an integral part of the way in which indigenous people are defined and managed in relation to the State it serves to elicit particular responses in landowner organisation and self identification on the part of indigenous people These pieces of legislation actively contour the progressive evolution of landowner social territorial and political organisation at all levels in these nation states The contributors to this volume provide in depth anthropological case studies of social structural and cultural transformations engendered by the confrontation between states developers and indigenous communities over rights to customarily owned land Central-Local Relations in Asia-Pacific Mark Turner,2016-07-27 A source of perennial tension in states is the degree to which decision making power and authority should be concentrated in central institutions and individuals At present the conventional wisdom of central local relations has swung in favour of decentralisation This book investigates whether such convergence is taking place through detailed examination in Asia Pacific The results of the survey reveal a complex picture in which divergence is still evident in the region s patterns of central local relations The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young,1994-01-01 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished specialist and scholar of African affairs argues that the current crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy that is unique in modern history Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the different characteristics of earlier European empires including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from the era of construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power around the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that established a distance between rulers and subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by turning his sights to other regions of the once colonized world comparing the fates of former African colonies to their counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching traits and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of this troubled continent The Pacific Basin since 1945 Roger C. Thompson,2014-09-25 The nations of the Pacific Basin in East and Southeast Asia Australasia the Pacific islands and the Americas make up the world s largest economic zone and its most culturally diverse region In recent years its Asian Tiger Economies have suffered economic collapse and unfinished business from the Cold War has produced continuing conflict and instability The new edition of this pioneering book traces the postwar inter relationships of all the rim and island nations It gives a unique impression of the make up of the region and the tensions within it The book integrates a wide range of information from books and articles from published and unpublished sources including recently opened Russian and American archives and from the first hand experiences of participants including those of the author in Pacific Basin affairs

Vigorously written and strongly argued no other account brings together all the threads of the development of international relations in this complex and fascinating region   Securing Village Life Scott MacWilliam,2013-05-01 SECURING VILLAGE LIFE DEVELOPMENT IN LATE COLONIAL PAPUA NEW GUINEA examines the significance for post World War II Australian colonial policy of the modern idea of development Australian officials emphasised the importance of bringing development for both the colony of Papua and the United Nations Trust Territory of New Guinea The principal form that development took involved securing smallholders against the tendencies of other forms of capitalist development that might have separated households from land In order to make household occupation of their holdings more secure and at higher standards of living the colonial administration coordinated and supervised increases in production of crops and other agricultural produce Contrary to suggestions that colonial policy and practice ignored indigenous agriculture and concentrated on plantation crops grown by international firms and expatriate owner occupiers the study shows how the main focus was instead upon increasing smallholder output for immediate consumption as well as for local and international markets Simultaneously development stimulated increases in consumption including of goods produced through manufacturing processes and imported into the colony Only as Independence approached was the pre eminence of the earlier focus upon smallholders weakened In part the change occurred due to the political advance of the indigenous capitalist class and their allies seeking to extend their base in largeholding agriculture and related commercial activities This advance and the uncertainty over which form of development would prevail once indigenes held state power in post colonial Papua New Guinea stood in marked contrast to the definite direction pursued under the colonial administration of the 1950s and early 1960s   The Contraction of England Donald Anthony Low,1985-01-31 Anthony Low examines and contrasts the common factors of empires focusing on Britain   Bougainville before the conflict Anthony J Regan,Helga M Griffin,2015-08-03 One of the most beautiful island groups of the Pacific Bougainville has a remarkable history Tragically it is as the site of devastating civil conflict that Bougainville is perhaps best known In exploring the rich environmental cultural and social heritage of Bougainville before the conflict this collection provides an insight into the long term causes of the crisis In doing so it surveys such topics as Bougainville s prehistory and traditional cultures the impact of German and Australian colonialism the attempts by disparate local cultures to find a common identity the assertion of political autonomy in the face of coercion to integrate with Papua New Guinea and contemporary efforts to resolve conflict and plan a viable future A landmark collaboration between expert commentators on Bougainville and Bougainvilleans themselves this volume provides a comprehensive picture for those seeking to understand Bougainville s history and future directions Bougainville before the conflict was published in association with the State Society and Governance in Melanesia Project which is supported by The Australian National University and the Commonwealth of Australia
