repression and censorship The outcome of 1956 led to Poland embarking on its own distinctive version of communist rule Meanwhile 1956 in Hungary saw the first society wide attempt to overthrow a ruling communist regime only to be put down by Soviet military intervention In both countries the events of 1956 had lasting repercussions for society and its relationship with the communist regime In retrospect they can be seen as paving the way for the eventual fall of the communist regimes in East Central Europe in 1989
