Political And Social Writings 1955 1960 From The Workers Struggle Against:

Recommencing the Revolution Cornelius Castoriadis, 1992-12-01 Political and Social Writings Cornelius Castoriadis, 1988-07 Cornelius Castoriadis, Political and Social Writings: 1955-1960, from the workers' struggle against bureaucracy to revolution in the age of modern capitalism Cornelius Castoriadis, 1988 Political and Social Writings Cornelius Castoriadis, 1992-12-01

Political and Social Writings Volume 3 1961 1979 was first published in 1992 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This work offers an extraordinary wealth and variety of writings from the crucial years that followed the publication of Castoriadis's landmark text Modern Capitalism and Revolution The new orientation he proposed for the Socialisme ou Barbarie group centered on the emerging roles of women youth and minorities in the growing challenge to established society in the early sixties Resistance within the group to this new orientation led Castoriadis to criticize the neopaleo Marxism of Jean Fran ois Lyotard and others who ultimately left Socialisme ou Barbarie A heightened concern for ethnological issues culminated in what might be called to the embarrassment of today's poststructuralists Castoriadis's premature antistructuralism Additional texts examine the dissolution of the group itself and analyze the May 1968 rebellion of workers and students who according to their own testimony were inspired by ideas developed in the group's journal Also included were many of Castoriadis's still relevant political writings from the seventies which were developed in tandem with the more explicitly philosophical work now found in The Imaginary Institution of Society and Crossroads in the Labyrinth Political and Social Writings Volume 3 provides key elements for a radical renewal of emancipatory thought and action while offering an irreplaceable and hitherto missing perspective on postwar French thought

The Persistence of Critical Theory Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-07-05 The latest volume of Culture and Civilization gathers contemporary exponents of critical theory specifically those based in the Frankfurt School of social thinking Collectively this volume demonstrates the continuing intellectual viability of critical theory which challenges the limits of positivism and materialism We may question how the theoretical framework of Marxism fails to coordinate with the conditions that defined labor forces as did Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno or deliberate on the conditions that justify the claims we make through public discourse as did Jurgen Habermas Or like Axel Honneth we may reflect on recognition theory as a means of addressing social problems Whatever our objective the focus of critical theory continues to be the consciousness of established positive interests that without debate may sustain injustices or conditions which the public may not have chosen to impose Throughout the hardship of punitive dismissal and exile in the 1930s and 40s and the shock of the New Left in the 1960s and 70s and finally the later linguistic and pragmatic turn the Frankfurt School has sustained the idea that people escape disaffection and alienation when their knowledge of the social and political world is dialectically mediated through creative interaction This new volume in the Culture and Civilization series continues the tradition of critical thought Political and Social Writings Cornelius Castoriadis, 1988 Political and Social Writings Volume 1 1946 1955 was first published in 1988 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions A series of writings by the man who inspired the students of the Workers Rebellion in May of 1968 Given the rapid pace of change in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe and the radical nature of these transformations the work of Cornelius Castoriadis a consistent and radical critic of Soviet Marxism gains renewed significance these volumes are instructive because they enable us to trace his rigorous engagement with the project of socialist construction from his break with Trotskyism to his final breach with Marxism and would be read with profit by all those seeking to comprehend the historical originality of events in the USSR and Eastern Europe Contemporary Sociology Castoriadis, Foucault, and Autonomy Marcela

Tovar-Restrepo, 2012-03-29 Presents the work of Cornelius Castoriadis as an alternative to the arguably foreclosed and deterministic theoretical framework of Foucauldian poststructuralism Cornelius Castoriadis Suzi Adams, 2014-05-08 Cornelius Castoriadis 1922 1997 was a Greek French thinker best known for his work on autonomy and human creation He was a political activist psychoanalyst philosopher political and social thinker and economist Recognised as a significant and original thinker of the twentieth century his work is receiving increased scholarly attention Notwithstanding the richness of his work Castoriadis s terminology can prove challenging to understand Cornelius Castoriadis Key Concepts is the first book of its kind providing readers with a road map to the fundamentals of his thought International specialists in Castoriadis s works introduce and clarify the complexity of his thought through the elucidation of nineteen key concepts that are fundamental to understanding and grappling with his ideas Comprehensive and accessible the entries have been carefully selected to cover the most central aspects psychoanalysis sociology philosophy politics and periods of his thought

Castoriadis and Critical Theory Christos Memos, 2014-11-18 By exploring the concepts of crisis and critique this study offers a thought provoking re examination of the political and social thought of Cornelius Castoriadis in light of the current world crisis and with regard to his radical critique of both the traditional Left and contemporary capitalist societies

Castoriadis Jeff Klooger, 2009 This book is a critical exploration of the philosophical underpinnings and implications of Cornelius Castoriadis reflections on Being society and the self The book introduces the reader to the main concepts of Castoriadis work but goes further to uncover the fundamental philosophical issues addressed by Castoriadis and to critically examine the issues his work opens up assessing and where necessary offering suggested amendments to the answers Castoriadis himself puts forward Key conceptual problems addressed include the distinction between autonomy and heteronomy the nature of the self and self creation and the nature of determination in a fundamentally indeterminate universe Democracy, Dialectics, and Difference Brian C. Lovato, 2015-12-07 It has been nearly two centuries since Marx famously turned Hegel on his head in order to repurpose dialectics as a revolutionary way of thinking about the internal contradictions of our social relations Despite critiques from post structuralists post colonialists and others there has been a resurgence of dialectical thought among political theorists as of late This resurgence has coincided with a rise in the mention of words like class warfare socialism and communism among the general public on the streets of Seattle in 1999 in Cairo s Tahrir Square in the actions of the Greek anarchists and the Spanish indignados and in the rallying cry of we are the 99% of the Occupy Movement and in academia This book explores how it is that dialectical thought might respond to the critiques brought forth by those on the left who are critical of Marxism s universalizing and authoritarian legacy Brian C Lovato singles out Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe as the key interlocutors in this ongoing conversation between Marxism and post structuralism Laclau and Mouffe argue that Marxist theory is inherently authoritarian cannot escape a class reductionist theory of revolutionary subjectivity and is bound by a closed Hegelian ontology Lovato argues the opposite by turning to two heterodox Marxist thinkers Raya Dunayevskaya and C L R James in order to construct a radically democratic dynamic and open conceptualization of dialectical thought In doing so he advances a vision of Marxist theory that might serve as a resource to scholars and activists committed not only to combatting capitalism but also to fighting against colonialism patriarchy white supremacy and heteronormativity The writings of Dunayevskaya and James allow for Marxism to become relevant again in these tumultuous early years of the 21st century Biosocial Becomings Tim Ingold, Gisli

Palsson, 2013-06-13 Going beyond the division of nature and society this unique book explores human life as a process of biosocial becoming Cybernetic Capitalism Jan Overwijk, 2025-01-07 This book offers a conceptual interrogation of how capital navigates its cybernetic environment Taking an immanent perspective the book develops a unique synthesis between Niklas Luhmann s systems theory and the critical theory tradition Overwijk shows how neoliberal capitalism s version of rationalization depends on the organization and management of society on the basis of cybernetic principles Overwijk seeks to update earlier critiques of cybernetic capitalism that stressed the system s colonization of its environment its making the entirety of social life communicable Under today s cybernetic rationalization things are radically different Neoliberal political economy aims to incite the incalculability of the market platform capitalists venture to capitalize on the unpredictable efforts of their users and post Fordist management seeks to encourage the creativity of service workers As this book uniquely shows capital no longer aims at total communicability but instead seeks to provoke and exploit the incommunicability of its environment In this sense it offers an ecological theory of capitalism laying conceptual the groundwork for understanding the extractivist logic of the Anthropocene Cybernetic Capitalism shows how the cultural obsession with incommunicability that animates cybernetic rationalization has taken an irrationalist turn resurfacing in the mysticism of conspiracy theory and radical right politics The book offers a novel and compelling materialist interpretation of today s paradoxical connections between neoliberal rationalism and radical right irrationalism Reading the Everyday Joe Moran, 2005-11-16 Studying the work of important continental theorists Joe Moran explores the concrete sites and routines of everyday life and how they are represented through political discourse news media material culture photography reality TV and more In the Garden of the Gods Eva Anagnostou-Laoutides, 2016-07-07 Examining the evolution of kingship in the Ancient Near East from the time of the Sumerians to the rise of the Seleucids in Babylon this book argues that the Sumerian emphasis on the divine favour that the fertility goddess and the Sun god bestowed upon the king should be understood metaphorically from the start and that these metaphors survived in later historical periods through popular literature including the Epic of Gilgame and the Enuma Eli The author's research shows that from the earliest times Near Eastern kings and their scribes adapted these metaphors to promote royal legitimacy in accordance with legendary exempla that highlighted the role of the king as the establisher of order and civilization As another Gilgame and later as a pious servant of Marduk the king renewed divine favour for his subjects enabling them to share the Garden of the Gods Seleucus and Antiochus found these cultural ideas as they had evolved in the first millennium BCE extremely useful in their efforts to establish their dynasty at Babylon Far from playing down cultural differences the book considers the ideological agendas of ancient Near Eastern empires as having been shaped mainly by class rather than race minded elites

Illusion and Fetishism in Critical Theory Vasilis

Grollios,2023-12-01 Through the negative dialectics of Theodore Adorno Illusion and Fetishism in Critical Theory offers an examination of Nietzsche Benjamin Castoriadis and the Situationists who put the concept of illusion at the forefront of their philosophical thought Vasilis Grollios argues that these political philosophers except Castoriadis have up to now been wrongly considered by many scholars to be far from the line of thinking of negative dialectics Critical Theory and the early Frankfurt School Open Marxist tradition He illustrates how these thinkers focused on the illusions of capitalism and attempted to show how capitalism by its innate rationale creates social forms that are presented as unavoidable and universal yet are historically specific and of dubious sustainability Providing a unique overview of concepts including illusion totality fetishization contradiction identity thinking and dialectics Grollios expertly reveals how their understanding of critique can help us open cracks in capitalism and radicalize democratic social practice today Illusion and Fetishism in Critical Theory is a must read for scholars of political theory and political philosophy critical theory the Frankfurt School sociology and democratic theory

Claude Lefort's Political Philosophy Mattia Di Pierro,2023-08-21 This book proposes a new interpretation of Claude Lefort's thought focusing on his phenomenological method Although all scholars recognize the influence of Merleau Ponty so far no one has demonstrated the fundamental coherence between Merleau Ponty's theory and the main concepts proposed by Lefort in particular between the concept of institution and the definitions of social and democracy If Merleau Ponty uses the idea of institution to think beyond the division between subject and object to think together continuity and difference permanence and change this same concept allows Lefort to understand society as both conflict and unity From this starting point this study will attempt to clarify Lefort's concept of the political and his interpretations of modernity humanism and the work of Niccol Machiavelli These very concepts will show the difference from structuralism Michel Foucault's contemporary theory and theories of immanence At the same time this study highlights an internal tension in Lefort's own thinking between autonomy and experience institution and insurgence

The NGOization of Social Movements in Neoliberal Times Alexandra Ana,2024-06-20 Drawing on theories in politics sociology gender and feminist studies and social movement studies this book compares and contrasts NGOized feminist organizations and informal street feminist groups in Belgium and Romania in order to understand the transformation of modern and contemporary feminist movements Chapters trace the development of this NGOization process and its entanglements with neoliberal modes of governance and techniques and proposes an historically and empirically grounded analytical model to studying the NGOization of feminist movements as a multidimensional process By analyzing the NGOization process through a cross national comparison based on very different cases the book disentangles the links between institutionalization professionalization bureaucratization and precarization and brings clarifications concerning the outcomes associated with them such as demobilization depoliticization co optation and burn out This book places the NGOization offeminist movement organizations within the specific context of relations between the state and the market in neoliberalism This book will be of
