More Political Babble David Olive, 2008-05-02 I was dramatically shaped by my grandmother and my aunts because they convinced me there was always a cookie available Deep down inside I'm four years old and I wake up and think out there there's a cookie Every morning I'm going you know either it can be baked or it's already been bought but it's in a jar somewhere Newt Gingrich in 1994 from his Renewing American Civilization Lecture Series Picking up where its hilarious predecessor left off this wickedly witty new treasure trove of outbursts bon mots and miscalculations draws from every corner of the political arena foreign affairs the White House the scandals the media the campaign trail and more The laughs come from politicians past and present including Republican presidential hopefuls Bob I don't think I'm mean I don't throw things at my wife or staff Dole and Phil I'm carrying so much pork I'm beginning to get trichinosis Gramm David Olive proves beyond a doubt that oral ineptitude knows no political affiliation and that even history's most revered politicians could at times put foot firmly in mouth The great Sir Thomas More once said Anyone who deliberately tries to get himself elected to public office is permanently disqualified from holding one After reading this priceless compendium we're sure you'll agree Or perhaps President Clinton's campaign adviser Paul Begala put it best Politics is show business for ugly people Well I don't have much job security Bill Clinton on why he still plays the saxophone If I want to knock a story off the front page I just change my hairstyle Hillary Clinton I understand my critics are fixated and pathologically disoriented but they are my opponents Why should I try to correct them Newt Gingrich We've never had a president named Bob And I think it's time Bob Dole I've got a lot to learn about Washington Why yesterday I accidentally spent some of my own money Senator Fred Thompson Let me win the election and after that you come ask me questions about how I run a government Canadian Prime Minister Jean Chretien Last year I was Bambi this year Stalin From Disneyland to dictatorship in twelve short months British Labor Party Leader Tony Blair

Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman, 2015-06-22 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels

Transnational Feminist Rhetorics and Gendered Leadership in Global Politics Rebecca S. Richards, 2014-10-28 Transnational Feminist Rhetorics and Gendered Leadership in Global Politics examines the rhetoric surrounding women who hold or have held the highest office of a nation state Heads of state such as Golda Meir Margaret Thatcher Benazir Bhutto Ellen Johnson Sirleaf and Michelle Bachelet have navigated their ascent to executive government in vastly different ways while contending with gendered expectations of leadership especially since most of them are the first woman to occupy their country's highest governmental position This book analyzes how these women rhetorically perform their positions of power discursively visually and physically in a traditionally male leadership role Specifically this project examines how certain rhetorical acts open up and close down the potential to confront the gendered expectations surrounding political leadership When people analyze campaign for or critique a female prime minister or a woman president they are not just talking about one woman but also referencing a collective neoliberal logic that interrupts and reaffirms the belief that the nation state is an eternal inevitable structure Diverse political figures such as Angela Merkel Julia Gillard and Indira Gandhi are continually put in conversation with one another through popular media representations academic scholarship and political analyses This book examines the effect of such comparisons and connections ultimately arguing that many of these gestures reduce or over simplify women's contributions to world politics In order to show this effect this book manifests the transnational connections found in autobiographies organizations political commentaries biographical films and other sources that focus on women who have been heads of state

Statesmen and Mischief Makers: Scott Crass,2015-08-31 Historically when sweeping policy changes or legislation of indelible consequence are signed into law Presidents receive the credit There is a good reason for that Without the Chief

Executive putting his pen to paper these advancements would have nary a chance of becoming reality In most cases though a President s signature is simply the culmination of a long fight to make an idea or actual proposal a reality In fact quite often it is members of Congress who nurture proposals from inception to the President s desk Like a train leaving its first station the legislative process often starts with a handful of people on board until slowly a few more passengers hop on at each stop and before long there is a full car with people standing in the aisles Often times a bill becoming a law is no different
