Shaw, Julius Emeka Okolo, 1994-01-01 Together these offer timely redefinitions and reconceptualisations of central notions like civil society diplomacy foreign policy peacekeeping security and self reliance for political economies and cultures throughout the South African Foreign Policies Stephen Wright, 2018-02-22 This volume of thirteen original essays provides a timely analysis of African foreign policies in a post Cold War environment where African marginalization from the global economy appears to be increasing Three thematic essays give an overview of critical changes occurring in African foreign policies and ten country by country case studies provide specific analyses of decisionmaking intraregional relations and the struggles over policy with external agencies including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund African Foreign Policies offers explanations for how African states are adapting to the international challenges of the late twentieth century Regional Economic Organizations and

Conventional Security Challenges M. Leann Brown, 2017-11-22 Within the context of regional integration comparative regionalism organizational change and regional security literatures this book investigates three cases wherein regional economic organizations were confronted with conventional security threats the 1978 91 Association of Southeast Asian Nations Vietnam Standoff the 1990 Economic Community of West Africa Liberian Civil War Challenge and the 1990 91 European Communities Balkans Crisis While the literature suggests multiple possible explanations for regional economic organizations response to these security challenges including systemic and power related factors organizational factors and functional needs and cognitive and social factors the author argues that the decision to transform a regional economic organization into a conventional security actor is most influenced by decision makers perceptions of threat and functional necessity The Institutional Transformation of the Economic Community of West African States Kofi Oteng

Kufuor, 2017-03-02 This book examines regional economic integration in West Africa within the context of the institutional evolution of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS It uses the tools of the New Institutional Economics

School NIE to explore the origins and development of the most recent ECOWAS Treaty Particular attention is given to the interface between domestic legal arrangements and the success of open markets at the regional and international levels

The Palgrave Handbook of African Political Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent's economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa

The Political Economy of International Shipping in Developing Countries Okechukwu Chris Iheduru, 1996 Shipping has played a pivotal role as the vector or artery through which this trade is conducted and in which this pattern of inequality has only recently been challenged by the South

African Foreign Policies Gilbert M. Khadiagala, Terrence Lyons, 2001 This treatment of the relationship between domestic and international politics analyzes efforts by African states to manage their external relations amid shifts in the internal regional and global environments The study traverses the continent identifying patterns of change examining constraints and giving attention to the processes that influence policy outcomes Contributors include scholars of political science international relations African studies and conflict analysis c Book News Inc

West African Worlds Reginald Cline-Cole, Elsbeth Robson, 2016-02-17 West African Worlds provides a critical assessment of social economic and political change in Africa's most populous and arguably most externally focused region With an emphasis on globalisation and modernisation case studies and commentary are integrated throughout to highlight the concerns and issues of the region Enriched by an impressive mix of West African voices this text combines theory and application with policy and practice to address socio economic change the pursuit of livelihoods and development within West Africa

Hettne, 2016-04-30 This book is dedicated to the implications of the new regionalism for global security and development The fourth in the five volume New Regionalism Series it features contributions from the UNU WIDER project on new regionalism

Dreams of Power K. van Walraven, 2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU's ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU's role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU's internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU's role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

The Use of Force in International Law Tom Ruys, Olivier Corten, Alexandra Hofer, 2018-04-26 The international law on the use of force is one of the oldest branches of international law It is an area twinned with the emergence of international law as a concept in itself and which sees law and politics collide The number of armed conflicts is equal only to the number of methodological approaches used to describe them Many violent encounters are well known The Kosovo Crisis in 1999 and the US led invasion of Iraq in 2003 spring easily to the minds of most scholars and academics and gain extensive coverage in this text Other conflicts including the Belgian operation in Stanleyville and the Ethiopian Intervention in Somalia are often overlooked to our peril Ruys and Corten s expert written text compares over sixty different instances of the use of cross border force since the adoption of the UN Charter in 1945 from all out warfare to hostile encounters between individual units targeted killings and hostage rescue operations to ask a complex question How much authority does the power of precedent really have in the law of the use of force

Africa's Development in the Twenty-first Century Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang, Martin Kwamina Panford, 2006 Having been under colonial rule for the first half of the century by 1965 all but a handful of African countries had regained their independence and were poised to take off into an era of development However Africa now suffers from the most acute form of underdevelopment anywhere in the world Bringing together a broad selection of case studies covering a wide range of key issues this volume provides a multidisciplinary exploration of Africa s development opportunities and challenges into the twenty first century

African Foreign Policies Paul-Henri Bischoff, 2020-03-26 This book explores at a time when several powers have become serious players on the continent aspects of African agency past and present by African writers on foreign policy representative of geography language and state size In the past African foreign policy has largely been considered within the context of reactions to the international or global external factor This groundbreaking book however looks at how foreign policy has been crafted and used in response not just to external but also mainly domestic imperatives or theoretical signifiers As such it narrates individual and changing foreign policy orientations over time and as far back as independence with mainly African based scholars who present their own constructs of what is a useful theoretical narrative regarding foreign policy on the continent how theory is adapted to local circumstance or substituted for continentally based ontologies The book therefore contends that the African experience carries valuable import for expanding general understandings of foreign policy in general This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of Foreign Policy Analysis Foreign Policy Studies African International Relations Politics Studies Diplomacy and more broadly to International Relations

Humanitarian Intervention and Conflict Resolution in West Africa John M. Kabia, 2016-05-13 The end of the Cold War has been characterized by a wave of violent civil wars that have produced unprecedented humanitarian catastrophe and suffering Although mostly intra state these conflicts have spread across borders and threatened international peace and security One of the worst affected regions is West Africa which has been home to some of Africa's most brutal and intractable conflicts for more than a decade This volume locates the peacekeeping operations of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS within an expanded post Cold War conceptualization of humanitarian intervention It examines the organization's capacity to protect civilians at risk in civil conflicts and to facilitate the processes of peacemaking and post war peace building Taking the empirical case of ECOWAS the book looks at the challenges posed by complex political emergencies CPEs to humanitarian intervention and traces the evolution of ECOWAS from an economic integration project to a security organization examining the challenges inherent in such a transition Liberia's Civil War Adekeye

Adebajo,2002 This text aims to unravel the tangled web of the conflict by addressing questions including why did Nigeria intervene in Liberia and remain committed throughout the seven year civil war and to what extent was ECOMOG's intervention shaped by Nigeria's hegemonic aspirations Comparative Regional Integration Finn Laursen,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 After briefly reviewing the basic theoretical stances animating the rest of the proceedings

Laursen international politics U of Southern Denmark presents 11 contributions that comparatively review processes of regional integration around the world Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East Terry M. Mays,2015-06-18 The Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East focuses on international organizations in Africa And the Middle East This makes sense for political cultural and geographical reasons North African countries and many located in the Sahel region are members of not only African but also Middle Eastern international organizations due to their cultural and religious heritage as well as geographic location between Sub Saharan Africa and the Middle East A limited number of global organizations are also included in this book when they have major programs focusing on Africa and or the Middle East This volume emphasizes intergovernmental organizations but many non governmental organizations are also included This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities thematic topics and major international issues affecting the region This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject Zones of Peace in the Third World Arie M. Kacowicz,1998-09-17

Provides a critique and an extension of the democratic peace theory by focusing on the regional level and by offering alternative explanations for the maintenance of democratic and non democratic zones of peace Political Economy of

Statebuilding Mats Berdal,2017-07-05 This volume examines and evaluates the impact of international statebuilding interventions on the political economy of post conflict countries over the past 20 years While statebuilding today is typically discussed in the context of peacebuilding and stabilisation operations the current phase of interest in external interventions to re build and strengthen governmental institutions can be traced back to the good governance policies of the International Financial Institutions IFIs in the early 1990s These sought political changes and improvements in the quality of governance in countries that were subject to or were seeking support under IFI designed structural adjustment programmes The focus of this book is specifically on state building efforts in conflict affected countries countries that are emerging or have recently emerged from periods of war and violent conflict The interventions covered in the present volume fall into three broad and overlapping categories International administrations and transformative occupations East Timor Iraq and Kosovo Complex peace operations Afghanistan Burundi Haiti and Sudan Governance and state building programmes conducted in the context of economic assistance Georgia and Macedonia This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding humanitarian intervention post conflict reconstruction political economy international organisations and IR Security Studies in general
