Political Islam Essays From Middle East Report Merip Reader:

The Islamic World and the West Christoph Marcinkowski, 2009 The Islamic World and the West perhaps no other topic is currently so often present in the headlines of the international media This timely volume which brings together contributions by 14 established Muslim and Western scholars intends to present a somewhat more positive outlook in the currently rather strained relations between the Islamic world and Europe by drawing on shared values and possibilities of cooperation in various fields such as reflected in worldview education economics multiculturalism religious dialogue politics as well as security issues and it shall also contain a historical revaluation of some of those contacts It is the first project within the framework of the recently signed Memorandum of Understanding between Switzerland's University of Fribourg and the Asia Europe Institute AEI in Kuala Lumpur's University of Malaya Malaysia's oldest university Dr Christoph Marcinkowski is an award winning scholar working interdisciplinary in Islamic and Middle Eastern as well as Southeast Asian and Security Studies He is currently Principal Research Fellow and Chairman of the Publications Committee at the International Institute of Advanced Islamic Studies IAIS a Malaysian think tank and concurrently Adjunct Professor at AEI

Hamas and Suicide Terrorism Rashmi Singh, 2013-01-11 This book analyses the root causes of suicide terrorism at both the elite and rank and file levels of the Hamas and also explains why this tactic has disappeared in the post 2006 period This volume adopts a multi causal multi level approach to analyse the use of suicide bombings by Hamas and its individual operatives in the Israeli Palestinian conflict It uses extensive fieldwork and on the ground interviews in order to delve beneath the surface and understand why and how suicide operations were adopted as a sustained mechanism of engagement within the Israeli Palestinian conflict Three core factors fuelled Hamas's suicide bombing campaigns First Palestinian suicide operations are a complex combination of instrumental and expressive violence adopted by both organisations and individuals to achieve political and or societal survival retaliation and competition In other words suicide bombings not only serve distinct political and strategic goals for both Hamas and its operatives but they also serve to convey a symbolic message to various audiences within Israel the Palestinian territories and around the world Second suicide operations perform a crucial role in the formation and consolidation of Palestinian national identity and are also the latest manifestation of the historically entrenched cultural norm of militant heroic martyrdom Finally Hamas's use of political Islam also facilitates the articulation justification and legitimisation of suicide operations as a modern day jihad against Israel through the means of modern interpretations and fatwas This approach not only facilitates a much needed multifaceted holistic understanding of suicide bombings in this particular region but also yields policy relevant lessons to address extreme political violence in other parts of the world This book will be of much interest to students of Hamas terrorism Middle East politics and security studies

MERIP Middle East Report , 1988 Middle East Report , 1992 The Lions' Den Susie Linfield, 2019-03-26 A lively intellectual history that explores how prominent midcentury public intellectuals approached Zionism and then the State of

Israel itself and its conflicts with the Arab world In this lively intellectual history of the political Left cultural critic Susie Linfield investigates how eight prominent twentieth century intellectuals struggled with the philosophy of Zionism and then with Israel and its conflicts with the Arab world Constructed as a series of interrelated portraits that combine the personal and the political the book includes philosophers historians journalists and activists such as Hannah Arendt Arthur Koestler I F Stone and Noam Chomsky In their engagement with Zionism these influential thinkers also wrestled with the twentieth century s most crucial political dilemmas socialism nationalism democracy colonialism terrorism and anti Semitism In other words in probing Zionism they confronted the very nature of modernity and the often catastrophic histories of our time By examining these leftist intellectuals Linfield also seeks to understand how the contemporary Left has become focused on anti Zionism and how Israel itself has moved rightward

Politics of the Modern Arab World Laleh Khalili, 2009 This four volume collection of cutting edge and canonical scholarship counters the oft cited opinion that studies of Middle Eastern politics are devoid of social scientific theory and method by providing an overview of the state of the scholarship in the field innovations therein and the debates that have advanced knowledge in the field The collection covers the Arab world from Morocco to the borders of Iran with the focus primarily on the twentieth century and especially the post Second World War era By choosing a wide array of authors many of whom are from the region or from the non Anglophone world the full breadth of worldwide scholarship on the modern Arab world is on display The collection defines politics broadly in line with the most innovative current works in the field of political studies to include not only politics at the state level but also the public social and popular domains that define and shape and are in turn defined and shaped by politics

Media and Utopia Arvind Rajagopal, Anupama Rao, 2017-07-05 Collective political projects have become ephemeral and are subject to radical forms of erasure through cooptation division redefinition or intimidation in present times Media and Utopia responds to the resulting crisis of the social by investigating the links between mediation and political imagination This volume addresses those utopian spaces historically constituted through media and analyses the conditions that made them possible Individual essays deal with non Western histories of technopolitics through distinctive perspectives on how to conceive the relationship between social form everyday life and utopian possibility and by examining a range of media formats and genres from print sound and film to new media With contributions from major scholars in the field this book will be of interest to researchers and scholars of media studies culture studies sociology modern South Asian history and politics

Political Islam Joel Beinin, Joe Stork, 2023-04-28 The essays and case studies collected here featuring some of the best material from Middle East Report over the past decade as well as much original material challenge the facile generalizations about what Western media and political establishments usually call Islamic fundamentalism. The authors demonstrate the complexity of these movements and offer complementary and contrasting interpretations of their origins and significance. The material included covers a broad range of themes including democracy and civil society, gender relations and popular culture as they have emerged in countries throughout the Middle East and North Africa. The essays and case studies collected here featuring some of the best material from Middle East Report over the past decade as well as much original material challenge the facile generalizations about what Western media and political establishments

CIRA Bulletin, 1997 Defining Islam Andrew Rippin, 2016-04-08

Ever since a group of people came into existence who called themselves Muslims and followed Islam, questions of what it means to be a member of this group, who is to be included/excluded and what the requirements for membership are, have proven to be both divisive and defining. For scholars and critics, the issue of what constitutes or defines Islam, whether examining the history of the religion, its specific traditions, sectarian politics or acts of terrorism, is central to any understanding of issues, cultures and ideas. Defining Islam brings together key classic and contemporary writings on the nature of Islam to provide student readers with the ideal collection of both primary and critical sources.

The Middle East Dale F. Eickelman, 1989

The Middle East: An Anthropological Approach presents a cogent analysis of the great impact economic and political change imposes on the Middle East. Socio-political complexities inherent to this highly volatile region are thoroughly emphasized: political and religious authority, communal, national and religious loyalties, family and personal ties shaping Middle Eastern societies and cultures.

Adopting the Beat of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Political Islam Essays From Middle East Report Merip Reader

In a world used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony produced by the published word frequently diminish in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Political Islam Essays From Middle East Report Merip Reader a charming literary value brimming with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological journey, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the emotional evaluation, we shall explore the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
