Electoral Politics in Sri Lanka S. Keethaponcalan,2022-07-21 This volume examines and analyses electoral politics in Sri Lanka through the theoretical framework of manipulation The following questions guided the study how do political actors manipulate elections and what are the salient features of electoral politics in Sri Lanka Primary and secondary data formed the basis of the analysis examining eight presidential elections The research findings indicated that Sri Lankan governments political parties and political leaders have taken advantage of six types of electoral manipulation including constitutional tinkering field fixing time fixing vote suppression process manipulation and resource manipulation Through a close examination of eight presidential elections research carried out for the volume found that elections are often associated with violence presidential elections are mainly a majoritarian affair in which minority communities play only a marginal role there is a significant gender imbalance as women's participation in the electoral process is very limited despite the presence of a large number of candidates contesting the election it always remains a two way race and amid extensive manipulation and other problems voter participation tends to be high This volume will be a valuable resource for students academics and researchers who focus on democracy good governance electoral studies and South Asian politics and history and will enhance the conceptual foundation of democracy advocates and activists

Iran and Pakistan Alex Vatanka, 2015-07-28 The respective policies of the governments of Iran and Pakistan pose serious challenges to US interests in the Middle East Asia and beyond These two regional powers with a combined population of around 300 million have been historically intertwined in various cultural religious and political ways Iran was the first country to recognise the emerging independent state of Pakistan in 1947 and the Shah of Iran was the first head of state to visit the new nation While this relationship shifted following the 1979 Iranian Revolution and tensions do exist between Sunni Pakistan and Shi'i Iran there has nevertheless been a history of cooperation between the two countries in fields that are of great strategic interest to the US Afghanistan nuclear proliferation and terrorism Yet much of this history of cooperation conflict and ongoing interactions remains unexplored Alex Vatanka here presents the first comprehensive analysis of this long standing and complex relationship
