Political Economy Of Regionalism The Case Of Southern Africa:

The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society

Political Economy Of The Brics Countries, The (In 3 Volumes) , 2020-03-03 Over the past 20 years social scientists government officials and investors have expressed mounting interest in the BRICS countries which include Brazil Russia India China and South Africa These countries are widely viewed as both key actors in the global economy and important regional powers The Political Economy of the BRICS Countries is a three volume set that aims to address various crucial issues regarding these countries Volume 1 analyzes whether economic growth in the BRICS countries has been broad based and promoted equitable economic and social outcomes The authors examine specific dimensions of growth in these five economies that constrain their ability to act effectively and cohesively in international affairs Volume 2 considers how the BRICS have affected global economic governance and the international political economy Volume 3 provides various approaches to economic informality in the BRICS Moreover the chapters deal with several connections between informality and important political economic and institutional phenomena such as economic globalization and international aid economic development political regimes social capital political networks and political participation labor market rules and social policy preferences The BRICS countries have attracted rising attention over the past two decades The volumes provide an in depth analysis of various key issues regarding these countries and chart a course for future research The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa Global Political Economy John Ravenhill, 2017 Global Political Economy offers a comprehensive introduction to the field by combining theory history and contemporary issues and debates The authors who are all leading international experts introduce readers to the diversity of perspectives in GPE through chapters that combine careful analysis with detailed empirical material New to this edition A rewritten chapter on the Global Trade Regime by Professor Ann Capling and Dr Silke Trommer Increased coverage of the rise of new actors especially the BRICs and the role of developing economies in global governance from back cover Contemporary Regional Development in Africa Kobena T. Hanson, 2016-03-09 Contemporary Regional Development in Africa interrogates well known concerns in the areas of regionalism and economic integration in contemporary Africa while offering an added uniqueness by highlighting the capacity imperatives of the issues and proposing critical policy guideposts The volume juxtaposes a set of dynamic entanglements new and micro regionalism informal cross border trade intra African and African FDI plus cross border investments infrastructure development science and technology regional value chains conflict management and regional security with fluid interpretations of regional development The chapters provide snapshots of the several emerging and complex regionalisms and highlight a set of relevant and often overlapping analyses drawing on authors nuanced and granular understanding of the African landscape The varied yet interlinked nature of issues covered in this study make the book valuable and attractive to academics researchers policymakers and development practitioners

Accelerating Africa's Integration Through Micro-Regionalism: The Case of Zambia-Malawi-Mozambique Growth Triangle and Its Impact Kojo B. Asiedu, Olubanke King-Akerele, 2015-06-10 This book is about accelerating Africa's integration through the application of the growth triangle concept Filled with rich experiences backed by research this book is also a powerful account of how African countries border areas many of which largely marginalized and clash points of conflicts can be transformed into vibrant socio economic security zones through local regional development efforts This book equally creates a necessary kind of working environment where micro regionalism is given a significant role to play in addressing some of the protracted challenges associated with our continent's larger groupings A valuable piece of work and absolutely required reading for all of us politicians academics private sector development practitioners NGOS Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union

Authoritarian Regionalism in the World of International Organizations Anastassia V. Obydenkova, Alexander Libman, 2019 This volume examines the subject of authoritarian regionalism and is the first to systematically investigate the functioning and the impact of authoritarian regionalism as a new phenomenon as well as its implications for democratization world wide

Region-Making and Cross-Border Cooperation Elisabetta Nadalutti, Otto Kallscheuer, 2017-12-15 This book explores the nature of regions and how they function particularly at the local and micro level Whilst recent years have seen a resurgence in debates around the roles which regions can play in development the focus has tended to be on macro regional institutions such as the EU ASEAN ECOWAS or MERCOSUR In contrast this book offers a nuanced analysis of the important field of sub regionalism and sub national cross border cooperation Region Making and Cross Border Cooperation takes a fresh look at both theoretical and empirical approaches to region making through cooperation activities at the micro level across national borders in Europe Southeast Asia Latin America Africa and the Middle East The book aims to explore the role that institutional dynamics play at the micro level in shaping local and global ties investigate what the formal and informal integration factors are that bolster regionalism and regionalization processes and to clarify to what extent and under what conditions cooperation at the micro level can be instrumental to solving common problems Scholars and students within politics sociology geography and economics would find this book an important guide to regionalism at a micro local level perspective

Interregionalism across the Atlantic Space Frank Mattheis, Andréas Litsegård, 2017-09-26 This book focuses on interregional relations across the Atlantic and the possible evolution of a new distinctive Atlantic space for international relations It provides a comprehensive insight into the overlapping linkages of interregionalism in the wider Atlantic space Additionally it raises the question of relevance currently the main question in this field of research Is interregionalism important because it brings about something new that really matters or is it simply a perhaps unavoidable

by product of regionalism The book conducts an analysis of six interregional relations criss crossing the Atlantic space accounting for the multitude of interregional connections within a potential Atlantic macro region and analysing the differences conflicts and convergences between regional organizations It engages with the issue of agency in interregional relations and argues that interregional processes and agendas are always driven and constructed by certain actors for certain purposes Regionalism and Uneven Development in Southern Africa Fredrik Söderbaum,Ian Taylor,2018-05-08

This title was first published in 2003 This volume advances our understanding of how Southern Africa is currently being reconfigured critically examining what has been marketed as the flagship of the Spatial Development Initiative programme in Southern Africa the Maputo Development Corridor MDC By examining a variety of cross cutting levels of governance and development and by focusing on the nexus between the formal and informal processes that stake out the MDC this volume contributes to a detailed understanding of what is perhaps the most important current experiment in regionalism in Africa By engaging regional processes on the micro level and on the ground there is a special emphasis on how local communities regard and respond to the Corridor initiative All chapters in the volume are the result of extensive fieldwork in both Mozambique and South Africa and the contributions are drawn from the region and beyond including Botswana Mozambique Zimbabwe South Africa Sweden and the United States Interorganizational Diffusion in International Relations

Tobias Lenz,2021 This book examines how the European Union shapes the creation and change of regional institutions in other parts of the world Transnational Activities of Women-Focused Civil Society Actors in Southern Africa

Cecilia Lwiindi Nedziwe,Oluwaseun Tella,2023-06-30 This book focuses on southern Africa by engaging with norms from various perspectives and how they have proliferated within a neo liberalising context since the 1990s It particularly examines gender norms in relation to agency influence and their impact Despite growing transnational activities regional studies analyses have so far maintained a primarily linear logic not incorporative of the increasing interface between state and non state regionalism in a transnational context since the advent of liberalisation and democratisation Increasing non state activities and their connection to state processes involved in norm creation adaptation diffusion and implementation around broad questions of security including gender security amount to regional thickening The book s analytical approach is informed by alternatives to mainstream approaches emphasising processes rather than linearity inherent in regional international relations studies The research reveals that transnational activities and regionalisation of gender and women focused civil society actors are critical for advocacy and diverse representation within intergovernmental policymaking structures at the regional scale Handbook of the International Political Economy of Trade David Deese,2014-08-29 This accessible comprehensive and pertinent Handbook will be of interest to academics researchers and students working in the fields of international politics in particular political economy and foreign policy and the economics of trade Practitio

Regionalism in Africa Daniel C Bach,2015-12-22 Africa which was not long ago discarded as a hopeless and irrelevant region has become a new frontier for global trade investment and the conduct of international relations This book surveys the socio economic intellectual and security related dimensions of African regionalisms since the turn of the 20th century It argues that the continent deserves to be considered as a crucible for conceptualizing and contextualizing the ongoing influence of colonial policies the emergence of specific integration and security cultures the spread of cross border regionalisation processes at the expense of region building the interplay between territory space and trans state networks and the intrinsic ambivalence of global frontier narratives This is emphasized through the identification of distinctive threads of regionalism which by focusing on genealogies trajectories and ideals transcend the binary divide between old and new regionalisms In doing so the book opens new perspectives not only on Africa in international relations but also Africa s own international relations This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of African politics African history regionalism comparative regionalism and more broadly to international political economy international relations and global and regional governance

The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics Todd Landman, Neil Robinson, 2009-06-30 Editors Landman and Robinson have compiled an excellent tour d horizon of comparative politics Distinguished contributors explore theoretical and methodological issues as well as examine the critical substantive domains that animate today s comparativists Graduate students and academics will want to keep this volume on their book shelf Professor Mark Irving Lichbach University of Maryland The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics is a major new resource for scholars of comparative politics and of political science more generally The Handbook covers the field with admirable thoroughness but does not sacrifice depth for breadth The chapters are written by notable scholars who provide rich discussions of their topics and help to move the sub discipline forward B Guy Peters Professor University of Pittsburgh The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics presents in one volume an authoritative overview of the theoretical methodological and substantive elements of comparative political science The 28 specially commissioned chapters written by renowned comparative scholars guide the reader through the central issues and debates presenting a state of the art guide to the past present and possible futures of the field The Handbook is divided into three parts The first considers comparative methodologies and reviews the interactions between various sub fields of comparative politics political economy political sociology area studies international relations and institutional analysis The second section examines nine classic issues of concern to comparativists including government formation political behaviour and democratization In the final section nine new and emerging areas of comparative research are considered such as terrorism electoral corruption human rights and regional integration The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics is an essential resource for researchers in political science political sociology political economy international relations area studies and all other fields with a comparative political dimension

Rethinking Regionalism Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-10-25 Since the late 1980s there has been a global upsurge of various forms of regionalist projects The widening and deepening of the European Union EU is the most prominent example but there has also been a revitalization or expansion of many other regionalist projects as well such as the African Union AU the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA and the Southern Common Market Mercosur More or less every government in the world is engaged in regionalism which also involves a rich variety of business and civil society actors resulting in a multitude of regional processes in most fields of contemporary politics In this new text Fredrik S derbaum draws on decades of scholarship to provide a major reassessment of regionalism and to address questions about its origins logic and consequences By examining regionalism from historical spatial comparative and global perspectives Rethinking Regionalism transcends the deep intellectual and disciplinary rivalries that have limited our knowledge about the subject This broad ranging approach enables new and challenging answers to emerge as to why and how regionalism evolves and consolidates how it can be compared and what its ongoing significance is for a host of issues within global politics from security and trade to development and the environment Retaining a balanced and authoritative style throughout this text will be welcomed for its uniquely comprehensive examination of regionalism in the contemporary global age

Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris Saunders, Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa, Dawn Nagar, 2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world

Rethinking Civil Society Regionalism in Africa Dele Kogbe, 2022-10-14 This book interrogates the extent to which regional civil society organisations have evolved as actors in West Africa Examining civil society democratic participation in regional integration and involvement in regionalism of peacebuilding it rethinks how we study civil society in the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS region Beyond the functional typology of civil society actors as partner legitimiser resistance counter hegemonic and manipulator the book develops a new analytical framework to understand how organisations such as the West African Civil Society Forum WACSOF and West African Network for Peacebuilding WANEP have evolved Offering analytical perspectives of the actorship of specific regional civil society actors the book draws attention to the tendencies in the previous studies of mistaking an action or misdeed that is empirically specific to particular civil society organisations within a region to the generality of the civic space of the region Providing an alternative perspective aimed at invoking a new intellectual conversation about civil society regionalism this book advances a new analytical framework of action based regional identity of civil society regional presence of activities regional capacities and societal impact It will be of interest to academics and scholars of international relations global governance African politics and comparative regionalism
