Politics Of Identity Ethnic Nationalism And The State In Pakistan:

Politics of Identity Adeel Khan, 2005-01 Politics of Identity explores the relationship between ethnicity nationalism the modern state It includes four ethnic movements as case studies Pakhtun Baloch Sindhi Mohajir Politics of Identity Adeel Khan, 2005-01-06 Excellent and compelling Partha Chatterjee University of Columbia A provocative passionate and stimulating new interpretation of ethnic nationalism Dipesh Chakrabarty University of Chicago A significant study that informs us of the politics and group interests in one of the most volatile regions of the world Stephen Castles Oxford University Very interesting intellectual and political ideas refreshing Gyan Pandey Johns Hopkins University An informed and lucid work that demystifies the politics of nationalism Howard Brasted University of New England A major challenge Pakistan has been confronted with since it came into existence is the self assertion of various ethnic groups which have actively contested the legitimacy of the state structure However despite the seriousness of this ethnic challenge there exists no detailed study of these movements Politics of Identity fills this vacuum Ethnic nationalism the author argues is a political issue and is essentially a struggle for power between dominant and non dominant groups Highlighting the role the state plays in the lives of individuals the book studies both the pre colonial and colonial state system in India and the changes it effected until India s independence and the creation of Pakistan assesses the state in Pakistan and explains its role in giving rise to ethnic discontent studies four ethnic movements Pukhtun Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir demonstrating how their proximity to or distance from state power have influenced their politics The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government s treatment of non dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements Ethnic Issues in the Press of Karachi Imtiaz Ahmad, 2023-11-17 This unique book sheds light on the press coverage of Karachi s ethnic affairs through a detailed textual analysis of newspapers The author examines the coverage of communal issues in both English and Urdu newspapers highlighting the improvements in English newspapers coverage and the tendencies of Urdu dailies to report on state nationalism driven news items during ethnic hostilities With a regional focus on Karachi this book is an essential read for historians researchers and journalists interested in understanding the ethnic dynamics of Pakistan and the role of the press in covering multi ethnic societies The book is a valuable contribution to the study of Pakistan s ethnic affairs providing insight into the ideas movements and theories that have shaped Karachi s ethnic landscape

How Asia Can Shape the World J. Ørstrøm Møller, 2011 Asia will redraw the map of economic progress over the next twenty five years Growth is necessary to solve economic and social problems but harder to achieve as the age of plenty gives way to the age of scarcities The challenge opens the doors for an Asian economic model based on shifting of productivity for the individual to groups ecological productivity instead of economic productivity and a reversal to traditional Asian values less materialistic than Western values A new paradigm for economic thinking emerges to replace the one launched in the West 200 years ago

The Struggle for Hegemony in Pakistan Aasim Sajjad Akhtar, 2022-04-20 The collapse of neoliberal hegemony in the western world following the financial crash of 2007 8 and subsequent rise of right wing authoritarian personalities has been described as a crisis of the political in western societies But the crisis must be seen as global rather than focusing on the west alone Pakistan is experiencing rapid financialisation and rapacious capture of natural resources overseen by the country s military establishment and state bureaucracy Under their watch trading and manufacturing interests property developers and a plethora of mafias have monopolised the provision of basic needs like housing water and food whilst also feeding conspicuous consumption by a captive middle class Aasim Sajjad Akhtar explores neoliberal Pakistan looking at digital technology in enhancing mass surveillance commodification and atomisation as well as resistance to the state and capital Presenting a new interpretation of our global political economic moment he argues for an emancipatory political horizon embodied by the classless subject

Production of Postcolonial India and Pakistan Ted Svensson, 2013-07-31 This work seeks to examine the event and concurrent transition that the inauguration of India and Pakistan as postcolonial states in August 1947 constituted and effectuated Analysing India and Pakistan together in a parallel and mutually dependant reading and utilizing primary data and archival materials Svensson offers new insights into the current literature seeking to conceptualise independence through partition and decolonisation in terms of novelty and as a restarting of time Through his analysis Svensson demonstrates the constitutive and inexorable entwinement of contingency and restoration of openness and closure in the establishment of the postcolonial state It is maintained that those involved in instituting the new state in a moment devoid of fixity and foundation anchor it in preceding beginnings The work concludes with the proposition that the novelty should not only be regarded as contained in the moment of transition It should also be seen as contained in the pledge in the promise and the gesturing towards a future community Distinct from most other studies on the partition and independence the book assumes the constitutive moment as the focal point offering a new approach to the study of partition in British India decolonisation and the institutional of the postcolonial state This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations South Asian studies and political and postcolonial theory

Pakistan Christophe Jaffrelot, 2002-04 This account of Pakistan's complicated political mosaic focuses on ethnic tensions within the country the Mohajir movement Pashtun and Baloch nationalisms and the Punjabization of the country Contributors also look at the country's complex position within the South Asian region including its foreign policy and the dialectic between domestic and foreign policy and the role of the army The book raises many thought provoking questions including the definition of Palestinian identity the control of the state and the deeply flawed institution of democracy

Populist Discourse in Pakistani Politics Fizza Batool, 2025-09-28 This book presents a new theoretical model for mapping how populist leaders construct the people using simultaneous processes of inclusion and exclusion Applying this model to Pakistan's distinctive political landscape the work analyzes the populist discourse of Zulfikar Ali Bhutto and Imran Khan highlighting the key similarities and differences in their construct The comparative analysis underlines how Pakistan's political history including the role of religion the military and dynastic politics shapes populist politics in the country By centering a non Western case this book challenges dominant frameworks and offers an accessible comparative lens on populist discourse It will be of interest to scholars and students of populism Pakistani politics and discourse analysis as well as to those interested in the broader dynamics of democratization in hybrid political systems

Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan's former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region's socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia

Ethno-political Conflict in Pakistan Rizwan Zeb,2019-12-12 This book critically examines the causes of the increase in insurgent violence in Balochistan and explores the relations between the national government of Pakistan and the province of Balochistan Based on historical analysis the book argues that the national government of Pakistan and the leaders of Balochistan both use a standard narrative when dealing with each other According to the Baloch narrative Islamabad exploits Balochistan's natural resources without giving Balochistan its due share and has never accepted and granted Balochistan equal rights The centre's narrative emphasizes the tribal character of the Baloch society and suggests that the Baloch elite hinder Balochistan's integration with the federation This book demonstrates that both narratives are inherently flawed and presents a precipitous picture of the problem of insurgent violence It also shows that the Baloch leadership is divided along tribal lines and lacks a unified voice and proposes that the Baloch elite use the narrative of enduring injustice only as a source of politicization of Baloch ethnicity when an actual or perceived injustice is taking place An important addition to the literature on ethno political conflicts this unique analysis of the importance of narrative in the imagination of political movements will be of interest to scholars in the fields of South Asian studies ethnic conflicts separatist and political movements and Asian politics

Explaining Pakistan's Foreign Policy Aparna Pande,2011-03-16 Pakistan has over the decades become a hotbed for the terrorist ideology often referred to as Jihadism This book investigates the underlying principles of Pakistan's foreign policy from 1947 until the present day and explains the rise of Jihadism as an offshoot of Pakistan's security concerns The book goes on to discuss that from its inception as a separate state Pakistan's foreign policy focused on seeking parity with India and escaping from an Indian South Asian identity The desire to achieve parity with its much larger neighbour led Pakistan to seek the assistance and support of allies The author analyses the relationship Pakistan has with Afghanistan United States China and the Muslim world and looks at how these relationships are based on the desire that military economic and diplomatic aid from these countries would bolster Pakistan's meagre resources in countering Indian economic and military strength The book presents an interesting contribution to South Asian Studies as well as studies on International Relations and Foreign Policy

Routledge Handbook of South Asian Politics Paul R. Brass,2010-04-30 The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Politics examines key issues in politics of the five independent states of the South Asian region India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka and Nepal Written by experts in their respective areas this Handbook introduces the reader to the politics of South Asia by presenting the prevailing agreements and disagreements in the literature In the first two sections the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the modern political history of the states of the region and an overview of the independence movements in the former colonial states The other sections focus on the political changes that have occurred in the postcolonial states since independence as well as the successive political changes in Nepal during the same period and the structure and functioning of the main governmental and non governmental institutions including the structure of the state itself unitary or federal political parties the judiciary and the military Further the contributors explore several aspects of the political process and political and economic change especially issues of pluralism and national integration political economy corruption and criminalization of politics radical and violent political movements and the international politics of the region as a whole This unique reference work provides a comprehensive survey of the state of the field and is an invaluable resource for students and academics interested in South Asian Studies South Asian Politics Comparative Politics and International Relations

Religion, Extremism and Violence in South Asia Imran Ahmed,Zahid Shahab

Ahmed,Howard Brasted,Shahram Akbarzadeh,2022-02-04 This book sheds light on religiously motivated extremism and violence in South Asia a phenomenon which ostensibly poses critical and unique challenges to the peace security and governance not only of the region but also of the world at large The book is distinctive in so far as it reexamines conventional wisdom held about religious extremism in South Asia and departs from the literature which centres its analyses on Islamic militancy based on the questions and assumptions of the West s war on terror This volume also offers a comprehensive analysis of new extremist movements and how their emergence and success places existing theoretical frameworks in the study of religious extremism into question It further examines topical issues including the study of social media and its impact on the evolution and operation of violent extremism The book also analyses grassroots and innovative non state initiatives aimed to counter extremist ideologies Through case studies focusing on Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka this collection examines extremist materials methods of political mobilisation and recruitment processes and maps the interconnected nature of sociological change with the ideological transformations of extremist movements

Populist Identification in Public Discourse Ihsan Yilmaz,Fizza Batool,2025-01-17 Based on semi structured interviews with ordinary citizens in Pakistan this book analyses the complex relationship between populism political identity and historical experiences in Pakistan highlighting how populist discourse influences and is influenced by varied interpretations of Pakistani identity at the identification with Pakistan It introduces a novel theoretical framework for analysing populism in the public sphere using Laclau s view of populism as a discursive logic and Panizza s definition as a mode of identification This connection allows for a deeper understanding of how populist constructs form a collective identity amidst diverse demands particularly through the concept of the people as an empty signifier The book also examines the multiple meanings associated with Pakistani identity and their ties to the rise of populism addressing gaps in existing literature regarding the demand side of populism and its impact on both politicians and the public
