through the north and also strongly connects north with south east with west it s a place of borderlands and limestone of rivers and scars of fells and forces The Pennines called to Anita with a magnetic force although a racist had told her to leave she felt drawn to further explore the area she regards as her home to immerse herself deeply in place Anita s journey through the natural landscapes of the North is one of reclamation a way of saying that this is her land too and she belongs in the UK as a brown woman as much as a white man does Her journey transforms what began as an ugly experience of hate into one offering hope and finding beauty after brutality Anita transforms her personal experience into one of universal resonance offering a call to action to keep walking onwards Every footstep taken is an act of persistence Every word written against the rising tide of hate speech such as this book is an act of resistance
