Philosophy of Neo-Noir Mark T. Conard,2007-01-05 A collection of essays exploring the philosophical elements present in Neo Noir films Film noir is a classic genre characterized by visual elements such as tilted camera angles skewed scene compositions and an interplay between darkness and light Common motifs include crime and punishment the upheaval of traditional moral values and a pessimistic stance on the meaning of life and on the place of humankind in the universe Spanning the 1940s and 1950s the classic film noir era saw the release of many of Hollywood s best loved studies of shady characters and shadowy underworlds including Double Indemnity The Big Sleep Touch of Evil and The Maltese Falcon Neo noir is a somewhat loosely defined genre of films produced after the classic noir era that display the visual or thematic hallmarks of the noir sensibility The essays collected in The Philosophy of Neo Noir explore the philosophical implications of neo noir touchstones such as Blade Runner Chinatown Reservoir Dogs Memento and the films of the Coen brothers Through the lens of philosophy Mark T Conard and the contributors examine previously obscure layers of meaning in these challenging films The contributors also consider these neo noir films as a means of addressing philosophical questions about guilt redemption the essence of human nature and problems of knowledge memory and identity In the neo noir universe the lines between right and wrong and good and evil are blurred and the detective and the criminal frequently mirror each other s most debilitating personality traits The neo noir detective more antihero than hero is frequently a morally compromised and spiritually shaken individual whose pursuit of a criminal masks the search for lost or unattainable aspects of the self Conard argues that the films discussed in The Philosophy of Neo Noir convey ambiguity disillusionment and disorientation more effectively than even the most iconic films of the classic noir era. Able to self consciously draw upon noir conventions and simultaneously subvert them neo noir directors push beyond the earlier genre's limitations and open new paths of cinematic and philosophical exploration. Praise for The Philosophy of Neo Noir Conrad can feel confident that these terrific essays will be of interest to film enthusiasts particularly fans of Neo Noir. Additionally for those who come to this volume with some background in philosophy not only will they be pleased to find fellow philosophers offering accessible introductions to philosophical thinkers and ideas but they are sure to increase their understanding of noir. Neo Noir and many familiar film titles as well as more deeply appreciate the ways in which popular film and television offer wide and varied avenues to doing good philosophy. Kimberly A. Blessing co editor of Movies and the Meaning of Life Taking up such latter day classics as Chinatown, Blade Runner and Memento this volume explores how contemporary filmmakers have taken up the challenge of classic film noir and broadened the genre. In this analysis even the pastel shades of South Beach take on a dark coloring in Miami Vice. These probing essays locate what is neo in Neo Noir and thus define it as a postmodern genre. Paul Cantor author of Gilligan Unbound Pop Culture in the Age of Globalization This collection will serve as a terrific interdisciplinary guide through the chaotic intriguing world of postmodernist thought as it relates to film and philosophy. A History of Ancient Philosophy I Giovanni Reale, 1987-08-01 Beginning with the origins of Western philosophy the profound creation of the Hellenic genius Reale presents an appreciation of the Naturalists the Sophists Socrates and the Minor Socratics. Special attention is paid to the Eleatics because their problems decisively mark Platonic and Aristotelian philosophy. Interpretation of the Sophists benefits from the recent reevaluation of their thought. Socrates himself would be inconceivable without the Sophists since he is one of them. Socrates is given major prominence. Plato Aristotle and all of Hellenistic philosophy are deeply impregnated with his words and spirit. The teachings of the Minor Socratics are interpreted as one sided reductions of the pluralistic values of Socratic thought and as anticipations of some issues that explode later in the Hellenistic Age. There are two appendices. The first concerns Orphism and contains a series of documents indispensable for the comprehension of some aspects of pre Socratic and Platonic thought. The second explains the key to understanding the message of the Greeks the message of the theorem.
