emotions in the modern world Across thirty six chapters this work enters the field of emotion from a range of angles Named emotions love anger fear highlight how particular categories have been deployed to make sense of feeling and their evolution over time Geographical perspectives provide access to the historiographies of regions that are less well covered by English language sources opening up global perspectives and new literatures Key thematic sections are designed to intersect with critical historiographies demonstrating the value of an emotions perspective to a range of areas Topical sections direct attention to the role of emotions in relations of power to intimate lives and histories of place as products of exchanges across groups and as deployed by new technologies and medias The concepts of globalisation and modernity run through the volume acting as foils for comparison and analytical tools The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World is the perfect resource for all students and scholars interested in the history of emotions across the world from 1700

Painting, Poetry, and the Invention of Tenderness in the Early Roman Empire Hérica Valladares, 2020-12-17 Tenderness is not a notion commonly associated with the Romans whose mythical origin was attributed to brutal rape Yet as H rica Valladares argues in this ground breaking study in the second half of the first century BCE Roman poets artists and their audience became increasingly interested in describing depicting and visualizing the more sentimental aspects of amatory experience During this period we see two important and simultaneous developments Latin love elegy crystallizes as a poetic genre while a new style in Roman wall painting emerges Valladares book is the first to correlate these two phenomena properly showing that they are deeply intertwined Rather than postulating a direct correspondence between images and texts she offers a series of mutually reinforcing readings of painting and poetry that ultimately locate the invention of a new romantic ideal within early imperial debates about domesticity and the role of citizens in Roman society Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review
