My Mom Is Dying A Childs Diary:

My Mom is Dying Jill Westberg McNamara, David LaRochelle, 1994 When Kristine learns her mother is dying she begins writing to God to help her understand her feelings and fears Includes a discussion section to help parents and children to talk about death grieving and God s love The Grieving Child Helen Fitzgerald, 2013-09-17 Making a Child s World Whole

Again Explaining death to a child is one of the most difficult tasks a parent or other relative can face The Grieving Child offers practical compassionate advice for helping a child cope with the death of a parent or other loved one Parents of children from preschool age to the teen years will find much needed guidance covering Helping a child visit the seriously ill or dying Using language appropriate to a child s age level Selecting useful books about death Handling especially difficult situations including murder and suicide Deciding whether a child should attend a funeral With a new chapter devoted to the special issues of the bereaved toddler The Grieving Child provides invaluable suggestions for dealing with a child s emotional responses including anger guilt and depression and helping a child adjust to a new life Handbook of Pediatric HIV

Care Steven L. Zeichner, Jennifer S. Read, 2006-05-04 This portable and practical handbook first published in 2006 provides a concise guide to the essentials of pediatric HIV care in a form suitable for doctors in the busy hospital setting During recent years many agents for the treatment and prophylaxis of HIV infection and the opportunistic infections that accompany HIV infection have been developed and many new ways of monitoring HIV infection in children have been produced These therapies and approaches to management are complicated but the long term health of HIV infected children depends on their correct application This handbook presents the core information and guidelines necessary for effective management of infected children Two other important themes are ways to minimise mother to infant transmission and the challenges of looking after these children in resource poor countries Life & Loss Linda Goldman, 2000 With this resource the reader learns to recognize and understand different types of childhood losses while avoiding the stifling cliches that block feeling

The reader will also become aware of the myths that hinder the grief process and learn the four psychological tasks for grief The author explains the technique of grief work providing tools ideas and inventories for educators to help kids commemorate loss Hospice Care for Children Ann Armstrong-Dailey, Sarah F. Zarbock, 2001 Children with life threatening and terminal illnesses and their families require a unique kind of care to meet a wide variety of needs This book the first edition of which won the 1993 Pediatric Nursing Book of the Year Award provides an authoritative source for the many people involved in caring for dying children It draws together contributions from leading authorities in a comprehensive fully up to date resource with an emphasis on practical topics that can be put to immediate use The book covers the entire range of issues related to the hospice environment and is intended for all those who participate in the hospice care process physicians nurses social workers teachers clergy family therapists parents and community service volunteers Living with Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2000 Features articles by leading educators and clinicians in the field or grief and bereavement The Chapters entitled Voices are the writings of Children and Adolescents Textbook of Pediatric HIV Care Steven L. Zeichner, Jennifer S. Read, 2005-04-28 This comprehensive textbook provides the definitive account of effective care for pediatric HIV patients Drawing on the massive and burgeoning published literature from a wide range of sources this volume summarises a wealth of information concerning the aetiology of the disease and the best clinical care for this vulnerable group It distils the very latest knowledge of virology immunology and pathogenesis and uses this to illuminate and explain management recommendations Recently many new agents for the treatment and prophylaxis of HIV infection and the opportunistic infections that accompany HIV infection have been developed accompanied by many new ways of monitoring HIV infection in children These new therapies and approaches to management are complicated but the long term health of HIV infected children depends on their meticulously correct application This textbook explains helps and guides the clinician through all these complexities to facilitate the best possible care for children with HIV infection Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2008 Hooyman and Kramer s starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities living with chronic illness or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in a person s response to loss from publisher information What Can I Do? Barbara A. Glanz, 2006-12-01 Offers poems stories and practical suggestions about how to help people who have suffered a loss including anticipating their needs remembering affected children and sharing good memories Death, Mourning and Caring Robert L. Marrone, 1997 This text while strongly academic comprehensive practical and contemporary offers an exceptionally warm and personalized writing style appropriate to the subject matter It offers both a multidisciplinary approach and a cross cultural perspective Unique Caring Insight feature supplies practical helpful tips for the reader Chapter 12 Resources is a comprehensive guide to organizations periodicals books and Web sites Lutheran Educator, 1994 The Chesapeake Diaries Series 7-Book Bundle Mariah Stewart, 2014-05-20 In the tradition of Robyn Carr Susan Mallery and Barbara Freethy the stories in the Chesapeake Diaries series combine captivating contemporary romance with the heartwarming power of healing and redemption Once you settle into the charming small town rhythms of St Dennis Maryland you ll never want to leave And now you won t have to with the first seven novels in this beloved series from New York Times bestselling author Mariah Stewart collected in one eBook bundle COMING HOME HOME AGAIN ALMOST HOME HOMETOWN GIRL HOME FOR THE SUMMER THE LONG WAY HOME AT THE RIVER S EDGE Also includes a preview of the next Chesapeake Diaries novel On Sunset Beach Along the way you ll meet Steffie Wyler the proud owner of the One Scoop or Two ice cream parlor who is still searching for her happily ever after Brooke Madison Bowers the local pageant star who falls to pieces when her husband is killed while serving in Iraq Dallas MacGregor the award winning
