Architecture Without Shadow Gloria Moure, 2000

Architecture has always been a natural subject matter for photographers but for most of the twentieth century the practice of architectural photography has been a professional endeavor anonymous photographs taken for clients for specific commercial reasons This book concerns itself with another aspect of the phenomenon the photography of architecture as an art practice It considers the work of seven contemporary photographers who use buildings in their work in a new way In these photographs they respond to the work of prominent architects with their own singular interpretations Here are Andreas Gursky's photos of the Stockholm Library by Gunnar Asplund Thomas Ruff's photos of several works by Herzog de Meuron Hiroshi Sugimoto's photos of Le Corbusier's Villa Savoye as well as works by Candida Hofer Jeff Wall Gunther Forg and Balthasar Burkhard Architecture Without Shadow is a beautiful and valuable book on one of the prominent movements in contemporary photography

Transavanguardia Ida Gianelli, Castello di Rivoli (Museum : Rivoli, Italy), 2002 First exhibited in the late 1970s the Transavanguardia seemed to oppose radical experimental media in a return to expressive practices in painting and sculpture The Transavanguardia first achieved notice with an exhibition held at the Kunsthalle Basel and participated in the 1982 Documenta 7 These five artists Sandro Chia Francesco Clemente Enzo Cucchi Nicola De Maria and Mimmo Paladino were quickly recognized as a distinct movement and have exhibited both individually and as Transavanguardia including at the Guggenheim New York This catalog of the Fall 2002 exhibition at Castello di Rivoli examines the spontaneous emergence of this group in 80 works with English Italian essays by Jean Christophe Ammann Achille Bonito Oliva Carolyn Christov Bakargiev and John Yau

Alexander Tolnay, 1989

Leon Golub Jon Bird, 2000 Now in his late 70s Leon Golub is a leading exponent of history painting painting as a narrative symbolic expression of global social and political relations and of the realities of power In this book published to accompany a major retrospective exhibition traveling to Ireland England and the United States Jon Bird examines the artist's work from the classically influenced early paintings through depictions of conflict and masculine aggression to compelling images of the last two decades Despite the widespread critical attention his work has received the range and extent of his practice and its complex interweaving of the iconographic traditions of both high and popular art have not been properly examined As a history painter Golub is acutely aware of the antecedents to his own imagery and symbolism part of Jon Bird s critical project is to track and define the artist s relationship to modernism Making a case for Golub s practice of critical realism that also takes account of the unconscious Bird focuses on two themes that dominate Golub s work how his art figures the body as a sign for social and psychic identity and what might be termed the symbolic expression of social space Current Affairs Museum of Modern Art (Oxford, England),1987 The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones,2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways Going back to the earliest world s fairs in the nineteenth century this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists As world s fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures products and processes artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies From Gustave Courbet s rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World s Fair to curator Beryl Madra s choice of London based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm changing art and art history along the way Ultimately Caroline A Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition Anselm Kiefer/Paul Celan Andréa Lauterwein,2007 The art of Anselm Kiefer is rich with references to writers philosophers and poets and his relationship with Paul Celan has been the most complex and intense of these dialogues with the past Celan s poetry inextricably linked with the memory of the Holocaust has haunted Kiefer s work for more than twenty five years and has influenced him on every level from the naming of works and exhibitions to the incorporation of symbolic materials from Celan s imagery sand straw hair and ashes into his paintings Like other German artists of his generation Kiefer began by questioning his own artistic heritage focusing on the iconographic and mythological elements of German culture that had been taken over by Nazi propaganda and subsequently repressed and buried deep in the collective unconscious It was his encounter with Celan s work in the early 1980s that first enabled him to escape from the vicious circle of fascination and disgust at the cultural ties that bound him to the Third Reich leading him to confront the subject of the Holocaust and Jewish memory as a whole and to embrace this body of traditions within his art Magnificently illustrated throughout with reproductions of Kiefer s best known works this book explores the intricate web of associations between the poet and the painter a network that is extended to embrace other artistic and literary figures such as Ingeborg Bachmann and Joseph Beuys Hot Art, Cold War - Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945-1990 Claudia Hopkins,Iain Boyd Whyte,2020-12-21 Hot Art Cold War

Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 is one of two text anthologies that trace the reception of American art in Europe during the Cold War era through primary sources Translated into English for the first time from sixteen languages and introduced by scholarly essays the texts in this volume offer a representative selection of the diverse responses to American art in Portugal Italy Spain Greece Yugoslavia Romania Bulgaria Soviet Union including the Baltic States Czechoslovakia Poland Hungary and East Germany GDR There was no single European discourse as attitudes to American art were determined by a wide range of ideological political social cultural and artistic positions that varied considerably across the European nations This volume and its companion Hot Art Cold War Northern and Western European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 offer the reader a unique opportunity to compare how European art writers introduced and explained contemporary American art to their many and varied audiences Whilst many are fluent in one or two foreign languages few are able to read all twenty five languages represented in the two volumes These ground breaking publications significantly enrich the fields of American art studies and European art criticism
