Novels Of Everyday Life The Series In English Fiction 1850 193:

Novels of Everyday Life Laurie Langbauer, 2019-05-15 Laurie Langbauer argues that our worldview is shaped not just by great public events but also by the most overlooked and familiar aspects of common life the everyday This sphere of the everyday has always been a crucial component of the novel but has been ignored by many writers and critics and long associated with the writing of women Focusing on the linked series of novels characteristic of later Victorian and early modern fiction such as Margaret Oliphant's Carlingford Chronicles or the Sherlock Holmes stories she investigates how authors make use of the everyday as a foundation to support their versions of realism What happens when in the series novel or in contemporary theory the everyday becomes a site of contestation and debate Langbauer pursues this question through the novels of Margaret Oliphant Charlotte Yonge Anthony Trollope and Arthur Conan Doyle and in the writings of Dorothy Richardson Virginia Woolf and John Galsworthy as they reflect on their Victorian predecessors She also explores accounts of the everyday in the works of such theorists as Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau and Sigmund Freud as well as materialist critics including George Lukacs Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno Her work shows how these writers link the series and the everyday in ways that reveal different approaches to comprehending the obscurity that makes up daily life Gender and the Modern Sherlock Holmes Nadine Farghaly, 2015-12-23 From his 1887 literary debut to his many film and television adaptations Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes has lost none of his appeal Besides Holmes himself no character in Conan Doyle's stories proves as interesting as the astute detective's constant companion Dr Watson who somehow seems both superfluous and essential While Conan Doyle does not depict Holmes and Watson as equals he avoids presenting Watson as incompetent as he was made to appear on screen for decades A variety of reimagined Holmeses and Watsons in recent years have depicted their relationship as more nuanced and complementary Focusing on the Guy Ritchie films the BBC's Sherlock and CBS's Elementary this collection of new essays explores the ideas and implications behind these adaptations The Critical Reception of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2023 Examines both academic and popular assessments of Conan Doyle's work giving pride of place to the Holmes stories and their adaptations and also attending to the wide range of his published work Twenty first century readers television viewers and moviegoers know Arthur Conan Doyle as the creator of Sherlock Holmes the world's most recognizable fictional detective Holmes's enduring popularity has kept Conan Doyle in the public eye However Holmes has taken on a life of his own generating a steady stream of critical commentary while Conan Doyle's other works are slighted or ignored Yet the Holmes stories make up only a small portion of Conan Doyle's published work which includes mainstream and historical fiction history drama medical spiritualist and political tracts and even essays on photography When Doyle published whatever the subject his contemporaries took note Yet outside of the fiction featuring Sherlock Holmes until recently relatively little has been done to analyze the reception Conan Doyle's work received during his lifetime and since his death This book examines both academic and popular assessments of Conan Doyle's work giving pride of place to the Holmes stories and their many adaptations for print visual and online media but attending to his other contributions to turn of the twentieth century culture as well The availability of periodicals and newspapers online makes it possible to develop an assessment of Conan Doyle's and Sherlock Holmes's reputation among a wider readership and viewership thus allowing for development of a broader and more accurate portrait of Doyle's place in literary and cultural history The Best Books for Academic Libraries ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers The North Carolina

Historical Review ,2000 Mobility and Modernity in Women's Novels, 1850s-1930s W. Parkins,2008-11-27 Analyzing novels by women writers from the 1850s to the 1930s this book argues that representations of mobility offer a fruitful way to explore the location of women within modernity and specifically the opportunities for or limitations on women's agency in this period considering the mobility of the female subject in the city and beyond Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000

The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch,2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature Persuasion - Jane Austen Jesse Zuba,Jane Austen,2009 Presents a series of critical essays discussing the structure themes and subject matter of Jane Austen's novel of a young woman who is persuaded not to marry by her godmother Mansfield Park and Persuasion Judy Simons,1997-07-15 Mansfield Park and Persuasion are both notoriously problematic works that have stimulated diverse and often polarised critical readings These essays interpret and outline the debate in the light of cultural historicist and feminist theory
