Making the Scene Stuart Robert Henderson,2011-01-01 Making the Scene is a history of 1960s Yorkville Toronto's countercultural mecca It narrates the hip Village's development from its early coffee house days when folksingers such as Neil Young and Joni Mitchell flocked to the scene to its tumultuous drug fuelled final months A flashpoint for hip youth politicians parents and journalists alike Yorkville was also a battleground over identity territory and power Stuart Henderson explores how this neighbourhood came to be regarded as an alternative space both as a geographic area and as a symbol of hip Toronto in the cultural imagination Through recently unearthed documents and underground press coverage Henderson pays special attention to voices that typically aren't heard in the story of Yorkville including those of women working class youth business owners and municipal authorities Through a local history Making the Scene offers new exciting ways to think about the phenomenon of counterculture and urban manifestations of a hip identity as they have emerged in cities across North America and beyond In Other Los
