

Cambridge School Shakespeare
MACBETH

Edited by Lindsay Bradley and David James
Series editors: Richard Andrews and Vicki Wrenard
Founding editor: Rex Gibson

Cambridge School Shakespeare was developed from the work of Rex Gibson's Shakespeare and Schools Project and has gone on to become a bestselling series in schools around the world. Each play in the series has been carefully edited to enable students to enter Shakespeare's imaginative world in accessible and creative ways.

This new larger format edition of Cambridge School Shakespeare has been substantially revised, extended and presented in an attractive new design. It remains faithful to the series' active approach, which treats each play as a script to be acted, explored and enjoyed.

As well as the complete scripts, you will find a running synopsis of the action, an explanation of unfamiliar words and a variety of classroom-tested activities to help turn the script into drama. This edition includes:

- A stunning full-colour design, richly illustrated with exciting photographs of performances from around the world
- A wide variety of classroom activities, thematically organised in distinctive 'Stagecraft', 'Write about it', 'Language in the play', 'Characters' and 'Themes' feature boxes
- Extensive endnotes, including extensive essay-writing guidance
- Glossary aligned with the play text for ease of reference
