Hauhart,Jeff Birkenstein,2018-10-26 European Writers in Exile collects a series of original essays that address the writers universal existential dilemma when viewed through the lens of exile who am I where am I from and what do I write and to whom While we often understand the term exile to refer to writers who have either been forced to leave their home country or region or chosen self exile this term need not be defined so narrowly and the contributors to this volume explore a range of interesting and evolving definitions Various countries in Europe have long been both a refuge for people and writers from many countries and a strife torn region which has forced many to flee within the continent or beyond it The phrase in exile involves writers moving across borders in multiple directions and for multiple reasons including for reasons of duress or personal quest and these themes are addressed and critiqued in these essays This volume naturally examines the cataclysmic and near universal exilic experiences relating to the world wars including essays on Thomas Mann Vladimir Nabokov Hannah Arendt and Leo Strauss Additionally essays address the unique early twentieth century experiences of Emile Zola Franz Kafka Joseph Conrad and James Joyce More contemporary essay subjects include Milan Kundera Norman Manea Eva Hoffman Caryl Phillips and W G Sebald This collection of transnational globalized European literature studies envisions understanding the intersection of our contemporary world and various writers in exile in new cultural historical spatial and epistemological frameworks How does literary production in an increasingly globalized world when seen from exile affect a view back towards a country or region left behind Or conversely how does exile push a writer to look outward to new trans nationalized space s These and other questions are important to investigate Taken in sum European Writers in Exile offers an academically rigorous important and cohesive volume      Literature Connections to World History 712 Lynda G.
