Christian Theology, Volume Two Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 This is one of the first systematic theologies written from a believer's church chiefly an Anabaptist Mennonite perspective Dr Finger develops his themes throughout the volume in careful dialogue with Reformed Lutheran Roman Catholic and other historic approaches The eschatological approach taken by Finger does not represent a fixation on future events Rather it represents a method of inquiry based on the early Christian conviction that the last things had already occurred through Jesus even though their effects were not yet fully realized Chief among these were the resurrection of the dead the outpouring of the Spirit the coming of God's kingdom and the defeat of the powers of evil After outlining this vantage point Volume I considered eschatology revelation and the work of Christ in its light Volume II begins with anthropology Jesus human work provides the norm for authentic human being Justification comes next and is considered as the eschatological revelation and actualization of God's righteousness through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ After treating the dynamics of personal sanctification Dr Finger explores the context within which it is pursued the church His ecclesiology begins with mission including its approach to non-Christian religions and the sociopolitical realm Volume II ends where most systematic theologies begin with God including the humanity and deity of Jesus Christ Thomas N Finger has undertaken an important task that is rarely attempted the production of a constructive systematic theology informed by judicious dialogue with current biblical scholarship Finger's methodological decision to adopt an eschatological approach enables him to work formally as well as materially from within a perspective shaped by the NT writers his innovative organization of the loci of Christian doctrine with its emphasis on the church as a community of believers living out the tensions between Christ's resurrection and Parousia is a direct result of taking the NT seriously Particularly noteworthy is his exposition of the doctrine of justification in the light of recent paradigm shifts in Pauline studies Finger's book is a productive and edifying work for all who care about the ongoing conversation between Scripture and systematics Richard Hays Duke Divinity School Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger's theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him Jurgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of Tübingen This volume is not only a contribution to the contemporary discussions in systematic theology It is also an important ecumenical breakthrough The Anabaptist tradition stands as an important dialogue partner in the quest for a common ground in the Christian faith Finger approaches the biblical faith from an eschatological viewpoint that is faithful to the Anabaptist tradition but in dialogue with Roman Catholic classical Protestant and contemporary scholars in both of these traditions He has begun a substantive conversation that will be important into the twenty first century Jeffrey Gros Former Director of the Commission on Faith Order National Council of Christian Churches USA Spirit, Word, Community Amos Yong, 2006-01-31 The main thesis of Spirit Word Community is that Christian theological reflection in a postmodern world starts with the experience of the Holy Spirit but is at the same time post foundationalist in terms of being formed by the word and being adjudicated by various communities of interpretation Yet the book s hermeneutical and methodological proposals are not merely prolegomena to theology but already involve and assume theologically substantive claims derived from a pneumatological point of view Hence this is a pneumatological theology which illuminates the hermeneutical process precisely by showing how the Holy Spirit engages the human imagination to empower liberative practices in a world that remains graced by her presence and activity Spirit Word Community is meant in each of these senses to be a contribution to the formulation of a comprehensive theology of the Third Article for the twenty first century Pastoral Counseling Across Cultures David W. Augsburger, 1986-01-01 In this book David Augsburger discusses the dynamics of pastoral care and counseling across cultural lines Augsburger combines theology with global perspective and cultural sensitivity to posit an inclusive understanding of pastoral care This book will be of great interest to pastoral counselors in both academic and practical contexts Facing the Distracters of the Soul ,

The Calling from God Dr. Lowell Hardy, 2018-05-11 The Calling from God shares an in depth analysis of various callings to individuals to preach from a biblical standpoint It comes in unique ways for each individual So the exact nature of the calling from God is difficult at best to describe for it does not lend itself to any private interpretation especially to someone not privy to the calling Within the text the reader will learn about the struggles of various people with God and within themselves All experiences are coercing demanding and cajoling for sure However the one called has to determine within oneself what Gods will is for him herself The Calling from God will serve as a guide to those seeking answers about their possible destiny The book takes the approach that many are called but only a few answer because of uncertainty The book will help one decide what to do based on their life changing experiences with the power of the Lord Jesus Christ The ones called must make sure of their calling for there is much to do since the harvest is great This book shows in detail some of the preparation needed as one grows in service to the calling from God All Christians are called by God the Father to be witnesses of his resurrection power by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ For sure a call in any form lays a heavenly claim upon the one called This book helps one understand the calling from God and will help one reach a sound decision based on their life and experiences in comparison to selected biblical callings The Calling from God will serve a reference manual and a valuable source of information for anyone thinking about answering or has answered the call from God The decision to serve is very personal as you will learn from the book The Calling from God and many biblical examples If you are struggling with the decision to serve or not to serve this book is for you You will know after reading The Calling from God if you are one of the few chosen to serve and trust Gods wisdom in leading you to point others to the uplifted Christ Will you answer the call from God The alternative is to wrestle with the Spirit as conviction works slowly and agonizingly in the soul This book is a must read
