International Settlement and Japanese consular police within Shanghai Chiang Kai shek wanted to prove that the Chinese could rule Shanghai and the country by themselves rather than be exploited and dominated by foreign powers His efforts to reclaim the crime ridden city failed partly because of the outbreak of war with Japan in 1937 but also because the Nationalist police force was itself corrupted by the city Wakeman s exhaustively researched study is a major contribution to the study of the Nationalist regime and to modern Chinese urban history It also shows that twentieth century China has not been characterized by discontinuity because autocratic government whether Nationalist or Communist has prevailed
