Educational Planning and Administration Education Studies Essential Issues is a book similar in style to the editor's first volume Introduction to Education Studies both books introducing a variety of broad educational issues while analyzing certain areas in greater depth Whereas the first book dealt with wider perspectives on education i.e. research politics and policy psychological theory this book deals with more specific issues with chapters viewing education through early years and compulsory schooling to post compulsory and higher education through to lifelong learning Ultimately this book is quite unique due to the collection of chapters and is a worthy addition to any university bookshelf or as a key text for mandatory education modules Scott Buckler University of Worcester for Escalate This book is essential reading for all those concerned about education especially for those working within the education system International Journal of Educational Management Education Studies is an informed and informative introduction Teachers as well as student teachers will find it stimulating and valuable Topics it covers well include teacher management and teacher professionalism Michael Duffy Times Educational Supplement This key text provides an overview of current theoretical issues areas of study and major themes that are covered in education studies programmes Chapters include globalization differentiation early childhood special needs citizenship and education lifelong learning post compulsory education higher education management and professionalism in teaching education and economic development Prominent contributors in each field provide students with a solid grounding in the areas they will be studying and point the way to further successful study Also by same author Introduction to Education Studies Steve Bartlett Diana Burton Nick Peim C 0 7619 7015 0 60 00 2001 P 0 7619 7016 9 17 99 2001

Resources in Education, 1998 The Crisis for Young People Andy Green, 2017-06-28 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book provides an original and challenging analysis of one of the most pressing social issues of our times intergenerational inequality Based on recent mixed method research it explores the extent and scope of generational divides through an up to date analysis of the changing opportunities for young people in Britain across different life domains A central question addressed is whether current changes are best understood as growing inequalities within and across age groups or whether we face a genuine intergenerational decline over the life course of this and future generations of youth Andy Green's controversial manifesto for intergenerational equity includes replacing higher education fees with a tax on graduates of all ages the introduction of capital gains tax on sales of first homes voting at 16 and a new charter of rights for private tenants Social Inclusion and Higher Education Tehmina N Basit, Sally Tomlinson, 2014-04-09 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence This book is about the experiences of students in institutions of higher education from non traditional backgrounds The expansion of Higher Education world wide shows no signs of slowing down and there is already a large literature on who has access to higher education and to qualifications that offer higher life time incomes and status However to date there has been minimal focus on what happens to the students once they are in the institutions and the inequalities that they face This book aims to fill this gap in the literature The chapters demonstrate that the students and their families are finding ways of acquiring forms of capital that encourage and sustain their participation in higher education Contributions from the UK the USA and Australia reveal that the issues surrounding the inclusion of non traditional students are broadly similar in different countries It should be read by all those leading managing or teaching in institutions of higher education and all students or intending students whatever their background Geography, Education and the Future Graham Butt,2011-03-17 Bringing Knowledge Back In Michael Young,2007-10-19 This book tackles some of the most important educational questions of the day It is rare to find a book on education which is theoretically sophisticated and practically relevant this book is From the Foreword by Hugh Lauder What is it in the twenty first century that we want young people and adults returning to study to know What is it about the kind of knowledge that people can acquire at school college or university that distinguishes it from the knowledge that people acquire in their everyday lives everyday lives at work and in their families Bringing Knowledge Back In draws on recent developments in the sociology of knowledge to propose answers to these key but often overlooked educational questions Michael Young traces the changes in his own thinking about the question of knowledge in education since his earlier books Knowledge and Control and The Curriculum of the Future He argues for the continuing relevance of the writings of Durkheim and Vygotsky and the unique importance of Basil Bernstein s often under appreciated work He illustrates the importance of questions about knowledge by investigating the dilemmas faced by researchers and policy makers in a range of fields He also considers the broader issue of the role of sociologists in relation to educational policy in the context of increasingly interventionist governments In so doing the book provides conceptual tools for people to think and debate about knowledge and education in new ways provides clear expositions of difficult ideas at the interface of epistemology and the sociology of knowledge makes explicit links between theoretical issues and practical policy questions offers a clear focus for the future development of the sociology of education as a key field within educational studies This compelling and provocative book will be essential reading for anyone involved in research and debates about the curriculum as well as those with a specific interest in the sociology of education The Architecture of Innovative Apprenticeship Ludger Deitmer,Ursel Hauschildt,Felix Rauner,Helmut Zelloth,2012-12-14 Benefiting from the support and involvement of two major international research networks this collection features the latest research findings in TVET Members of INAP the International Network on Innovative Apprenticeship and VETNET the Vocational Education and Training Network have contributed key research findings to this detailed survey of the field Featuring the inclusion of the internationally recognized memorandum released in April 2012 by the INAP Architecture Apprenticeship Commission the volume covers a wealth of issues relating to technical and vocational education and training including exemplar architectures such as successful school to work transitions competence assessment and development models and governance including the role of stakeholders The book provides many opportunities to explore in depth the scholarly debate on TVET as well as to learn from positive international experiences It aims to inform the practice of TVET professionals as much as the decision making of administrators

Social Realism, Knowledge and the Sociology of Education Karl Maton, Rob Moore, 2011-11-03 This volume covers issues in the sociology of knowledge the educational system and policy professional autonomy vocational education educational research and teaching as well as the nature of such disciplines as cultural studies English science and the arts The chapters also directly address the nature of sociology of education itself The realist position developed in the book challenges two major currents of thought that have for a long time been prominent and influential in sociology and education postmodernism and progressivism constructivism This well edited collection of papers is provocative and original in that it represents a sustained collective critique that offers a genuine alternative to these current orthodoxies
