Introduction to Policing in Canada Jayne Seagrave,1997

Policing in Canada William Kelly,Nora Hickson Kelly,1976

Police Powers in Canada University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies,1994-01-01 The television spectacles of Oka and the Rodney King affair served to focus public disaffection with the police a disaffection that has been growing for several years In Canada confidence in the police is at an all time low At the same time crime rates continue to rise Canada now has the dubious distinction of having the second highest crime rate in the Western world How did this state of affairs come about What do we want from our police How do we achieve policing that is consistent with the Charter of Rights and Freedoms The essays in this volume set out to explore these questions In their introduction the editors point out that constitutional order is tied to the exercise of power by law enforcement agencies and that if relations between the police and civil society continue to erode the exercise of force will rise a dangerous prospect for democratic societies Crisis in Canada's Policing John Sewell,Christopher J.

Williams,2021-09-07 In the summer of 2020 as the COVID 19 pandemic surged millions gathered across Canada and the United States to protest violence and racism in policing sparked by the murder of George Floyd at the hands of Minneapolis police officers In the days and weeks following the deaths of Regis Korchinski Paquet in Toronto and Chantel Moore in New Brunswick showed that police violence is also a Canadian reality Although BIPOC communities and activists had been calling for action for years these events sparked unprecedented public outrage and drew crowds in the thousands across Canada calling for the defunding of Canada s police Many authoritative reports have identified big problems in Canada s law enforcement system and have concluded that police are more likely to create or escalate violent situations than promote safety and security Why How has an institution tasked with keeping citizens safe become so dangerous to so many Canadians John Sewell has been studying the problems facing Canadian policing since the 1980s In Crisis in Canada's Policing he shines light on the origins of police culture synthesizes dozens of reports that reveal the failures of the police system in Canada and offers solutions that put power back into the hands of community leaders while reining in and reforming police organizations

The Wicked Problems of Police Reform in Canada Laura Huey,Lorna Ferguson,Jennifer L. Schulenberg,2022-08-12 This book looks at police reform in Canada arguing that no significant and sustainable reform can occur until steps are taken to answer the question of What exactly do we want police to do Adding challenge to this is that setting boundaries on what we expect the police to do requires grappling with the complex social problems we ask them to resolve In public policy language these are wicked problems social or cultural issues frequently seen as intractable Authors Huey Ferguson and Schulenberg all policing scholars draw on a unique collection of data to explore these issues over 20 years of research 2000 2021 ranging from in depth interviews surveys and field observations to document analysis and systematic social observation Pooling this data generates a national level picture of changes in the policing operational environment over these decades This book focuses on four particular wicked problems mental health substance misuse homelessness missing persons with causes and potential preventative treatments that lie primarily outside the criminal justice system and yet continue to be treated as policing problems Bringing about changes in public policing requires changes in public policy and these are precisely the types of wicked problems that need innovative policy solutions This book is suitable for a wide range of audiences within and outside Canada including law enforcement and community leaders scholars and policy experts who specialize in policing students of criminal justice organizations and management and citizen consumers of information about policing
