Police and Community in Chicago Wesley G. Skogan, 2009-12-01 Highly popular with both the public and political leaders community policing is the most important development in law enforcement in the last twenty five years But does community policing really work Can police departments fundamentally change their organization Can neighborhood problems be solved In the early 1990s Chicago the nation's third largest city instituted the nation's largest community policing initiative Wesley G Skogan here provides the first comprehensive evaluation of that citywide program examining its impact on crime neighborhood residents and the police Based on the results of a thirteen year study including interviews citywide surveys and sophisticated statistical analyses Police and Community in Chicago reveals a city divided among African Americans Whites and Latinos By looking at the varying effects community policing had on each of these groups Skogan provides a valuable analysis of what works and why As the use of community policing increases and issues related to race and immigration become more pressing Police and Community in Chicago will serve the needs of an increasing amount of students scholars and professionals interested in the most effective and harmonious means of keeping communities safe

Research Methods for Criminology and Criminal Justice Mark Dantzker, Ronald Hunter, 2011-04-15 Key Features Military Police, 1989 The Encyclopedia of Police Science Jack R. Greene, 2007 First published in 1996 this work covers all the major sectors of policing in the United States Political events such as the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 have created new policing needs while affecting public opinion about law enforcement This third edition of the Encyclopedia examines the theoretical and practical aspects of law enforcement discussing past and present practices FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, 1996 Globalizing Local Policing David Sausdal, 2023-03-24 The book examines the globalization of local policing through an ethnographic study of the Danish Police Where many studies are looking into how larger inter or transnational policing bodies and policies are changing the world of policing few have gauged how local public police forces are also globalizing This book provides some unique insights into this under researched process Specifically it describes the daily practices and perceptions of two Danish detective task forces tasked with the investigation of organized property crimes committed by foreign nationals In the book readers get to see how the detectives think and work including the many efforts they make in attuning their daily work to a more global reality More so readers get to see how the detectives fail and the many frustrations and concerns that such changes include One the one hand Danish detectives very much understand the need to de localize and develop their work On the other hand they feel that many of these changes are in conflict with what they find to be real and rewarding police work For people interested in contemporary issues of policing the book thus points to a puzzling paradox Globalization might be making for more mobile and even mobilised local forces more technologically driven and collaborating with international partners However these very processes are also making local officers feel more disarmed than ever Ultimately the book describes why that is its consequences as well as how to imagine a form of global policing more in tune with its local actors Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2009-04-14

The organization of the reader s guide especially the groupings of landmark cases race riots and criminology theories is impressive Other related titles lack the breadth detail and accessibility of this work Recommended for all libraries essential for comprehensive social studies collections Library Journal As seen almost daily on local and national news race historically and presently figures prominently in crime and justice reporting within the United States in the areas of hate crimes racial profiling sentencing disparities wrongful convictions felon disenfranchisement political prisoners juveniles and the death penalty and culturally specific delinquency prevention programs The Encyclopedia of Race and Crime covers issues in both historical and contemporary context with information on race and ethnicity and their impact on crime and the administration of justice These two volumes offer a greater appreciation for the similar historical experiences of varied racial and ethnic groups and illustrate how race and ethnicity has mattered and continues to matter in the administration of American criminal justice Key Features Covers a number of broad thematic areas basic concepts and theories of criminal justice the police courts and corrections juvenile justice public policy the media organizations specific groups and populations and specific cases and biographies Addresses such topics as gender hate bias crimes immigrant experiences international and cross cultural issues race and gangs and race and law Presents experiences of all major racial and ethnic groups in the U S including Asians Blacks Latinos Native Americans and Ethnic Whites as well as religious minorities such as Muslims Includes coverage of recent incidents like the alleged rape of a black female North Carolina Central University student by white male members of the Duke University Lacrosse Team the Jena 6 incident the Tulia Texas drug arrests the Rodney King beating the O J Simpson trials in the 1990s and more recent racial profiling incidents Two appendices provide information on locating and interpreting statistical data on race and crime as well as detailed instructions on how to access statistical data on the web for such specific areas as arrests drugs gang membership hate crimes homicide trends juvenile justice prison populations racial profiling the death penalty and victimization Because the topic of race and crime is of wide interest and relevance entries in this Encyclopedia are written in an accessible style to appeal to a broad audience making it a welcome addition to academic and public libraries alike Police Leadership, the Inside Story James Vadackumchery, 1999 Police misconduct United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, 1984 Police Use of Deadly Force United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary.

Subcommittee on Criminal Justice,1989 Policing Pain Kevin Revier,2025-11-11 How the medicalization of addiction during the U S opioid crisis has driven mass incarceration and mass policing in rural and deindustrialized communities The nationwide opioid public health emergency has led many advocates and public officials to call for drug policy reforms that reject traditional law and order approaches In Policing Pain Kevin Revier approaches the opioid epidemic from an abolitionist framework that seeks to treat people who use opioids not as so called criminals but as people in need of health care Based on two years of ethnographic research in Upstate New York a region highly impacted by overdoses job loss and deindustrialization Revier shows that incorporation of treatment within the criminal justice system has ultimately expanded the scope of the drug war turning individuals into treatable carceral subjects who are both medicalized and criminalized He argues that the incorporation of medical rhetoric and treatment within the criminal legal system maintains a carceral approach in rural and low income areas facing high rates of opioid overdose and economic disinvestment further entrenching the carceral state in the lives of people who use drugs Ultimately Policing Pain explores alternative strategies to promote harm reduction from an abolitionist ethic of care that advocates for people who use drugs while seeking to minimize criminal justice involvement in drug related issues Our Police Guardians ,1925 Our police guardians history of the police Department of the city of New York and the policing of same for the past one hundred years also an account of my travels through Europe and America visiting all of the largest cities covering some sixty five thousand miles as a police propagandist With reminiscences of the past forty years thirty two pages of illustrations and ten pages of reproduction of Historical letters and Much Other Interesting Information
