context for the crisis that has fragmented the former USSR this reader presents key essays by notable Western scholars who have shaped the debates within the field of Soviet nationality studies Focusing first on the historical development of the Soviet multiethnic state the discussions then turn to specific problem areas including federalism elites economy language policy and nationalism An introductory essay by the editor discusses how the works in the book contribute to our understanding of the current disintegration and analyzes opposing perspectives in the debates Intended for use as a textbook in undergraduate or graduate courses on Soviet nationality problems or Soviet and post Soviet domestic politics this anthology will be valuable for students and professors alike The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N.

Godehardt, 2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies The Transformation of Security in the Asia/Pacific Region
