

The Future of Major Parties

Weakened connections to political parties:

- More people are unwilling to label themselves as “Democrats” or “Republicans”
- Split-ticket voting—voting for candidates of different parties for different offices at the same election
- Structural changes have increased conflict and disorganization within parties
- Changes in the technology of campaigning, especially the use of television and the Internet, have made candidates more independent of the party organization
- The growth of single-issue organizations provides candidates with another source of financial support
