Neoliberalism and Conflict In Asia After 9/11 Garry Rodan, Kevin Hewison, 2013-09-13 Key events in Asia's recent history have included the end of the Cold War the Asian Economic Crisis and the war on terror This is a critical assessment of these events and of the interplay of security and economics in shaping political regimes and modifying market systems Based on the notion that market systems are inherently political and conflict ridden this collection clarifies and explains the conflicts shaping the path of neoliberal globalization Collectively it represents a disciplined and systematic address of four overarching questions What are the significant conflicts emanating from neoliberal globalization and what are their implications What are the implications of new security concerns for these conflicts and what are their impacts How are conflicts associated with globalization and security affecting social and economic policy directions Can these directions be reconciled with the reproduction of existing political regimes or do they threaten their basis In addressing these questions the essays depict neoliberal globalization in the new security context as being able to accommodate a range of political regimes This fascinating collection is a must read for those with a professional interest in the region post 9 11 This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal Critical Asian Studies

Handbook of Asian Aging Hyunsook Yoon, Jon Hendricks, 2018-10-26 In western countries the rising tide of population aging took 100 years to alter the face of societies but Asia is experiencing comparable changes in not much more than a quarter of a century Contributors to The Handbook of Aging describe the magnitude of these changes and their effects on the aged and on societies attempting to adapt to the dramatic improvements in life expectancy brought on by rapid economic and social transformations Asia encompasses a vast reach from Pakistan and India to Japan the Philippines and Indonesia and in this book including Australia The Handbook of Aging provides a framework for making sense of the meeting between reverential views of the elderly and contemporary priorities as Asia arrives at the crossroads The need for innovative approaches to social policy and personal practices is nowhere more evident than in Asian countries where modern marketing economies have forced hard political choices The economic tigers of the Asian Pacific region experienced the aging of their populations ahead of other Asian countries but solutions reached during times of financial boom are being re examined as economies come back to earth with soft or hard landings The Handbook of Asian Aging provides an atlas of the far reaching changes that are afoot and that will become even more pronounced in the near future

Transparency and Authoritarian Rule in Southeast Asia Garry Rodan,2004-08-02 In Transparency and Authoritarian Rule in Southeast Asia Rodan rejects the notion that the 1997 98 Asian economic crisis was further evidence that ultimately capitalism can only develop within liberal social and political institutions and that new technology necessarily undermines authoritarian control Instead Rodan argues that in Singapore and Malaysia external pressures for transparency reform were and are in many respects being met without serious compromise to authoritarian rule or the sanctioning of media freedom
