Political Economy Of West African Agriculture:

The Political Economy of West African Agriculture Keith Hart, 1982-05-31 West Africa's agriculture has for 150 years been heavily geared toward export yet the region is one of the world's poorest Keith Hart examines this question focusing particularly on how this situation has affected the indigenous peoples of West Africa Commerce has grown impressively but productivity remains low and capital accumulation is retarded The reasons exist primarily in internal conditions shaping social institutions Before during and since colonialism the particular problems of these preindustrial states have shaped agricultural development more than the pressure supposedly emanating from the world system of international capitalism This book following the classical economists as well as Marx and Lenin argues for the necessity of rapid capitalist penetration into West African agriculture The book is also a readable introduction to the history and ethnography of the region as a whole

Morality and Economic Growth in Rural West Africa Paul Clough, 2014-06-01 The land labor credit and trading institutions of Marmara village in Hausaland northern Nigeria are detailed in this study through fieldwork conducted in two national economic cycles the petroleum boom prosperity in 1977 1979 and the macro economic decline in 1985 1996 and 1998 The book unveils a new paradigm of economic change in the West African savannah demonstrating how rural accumulation in a polygynous society actually limits the extent of inequality while at the same time promoting technical change A uniquely African non capitalist trajectory of accumulation subordinates the acquisition of capital to the expansion of polygynous families clientage networks and circles of trading friends The whole trajectory is driven by an indigenous ethics of personal responsibility This model disputes the validity of both Marxian theories of capitalist transformation in Africa and the New Institutional Economics

Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Wallace C. Olsen, 1991 The first of an eight volume series The Literature of the Agricultural Sciences this book analyzes the trends in the published literature of agricultural economics and rural sociology during the past fifty years It uses citation analysis and other bibliometric techniques to identify the primary journals report series and monographs of current importance to the developed industrial countries as well as those in the Third World

The Culture of Politics in Modern Kenya Angelique Haugerud, 1997-05-13 Once the major success story of a troubled continent by the early 1990s Kenya came to be regarded as its fallen star This book challenges such images of reversal and the analytical polarities which sustain them The analysis ranges from telescopic to microscopic fields and combining many disciplines and perspectives to give a rich and varied picture of the culture of politics in twentieth century Kenya a highly perceptive and interesting analysis deconstruction is not too strong a term of Kenya's politics A well researched documented and enlightening book African Affairs

Agricultural Commercialization And Government Policy In Africa J. Hinderink, J.J. Sterkenburg, 2022-03-26 First published in 1987 The object of this book is to show the nature and the constraints of the commercialization of agriculture in one of the world's major problem areas Sub Saharan Africa Agricultural commercialization started here centuries ago albeit in small pockets It expanded sharply during the colonial period when the sub continent became integrated into the world s economy After independence the nature of this integration did not structurally change and the basic characteristics o agricultural commercialization remained unaltered After an analysis of this process during the colonial period the study focuses on post colonial government policies and on spatial variation in the commercialization of Africa s agriculture Differences in environmental and socio economic conditions production performance and government policy are dealt with on two geographical scales in the fist at the level of macro regions and individual countries and the second by means of case studies at the regional village and project level Thee field work based studies each centre on a specific aspect of commercialization process in a wide variety of countries viz Swaziland Sudan Botswana Ivory Coast Mali and Kenya The final part of the book relates the subject of commercialization and rural development to Africa s present agricultural crisis

Re-Inventing Africa Ifi Amadiume,1997-12 This book reveals how conventional anthropology has consistently imposed European ideas of the natural nuclear family women as passive object and class differences on a continent with a long history of women with power doing things differently Amadiume argues for an end to anthropology and calls instead for a social history of Africa by Africans

Self in the World Keith Hart,2022-03-11 Eminent anthropologist Keith Hart draws on the humanities popular culture and his own experiences to help readers explore their own place in history We each embark on two life journeys one out into the world the other inward to the self With these journeys in mind anthropologist amateur economist and globetrotter Keith Hart reflects on a life of learning sharing and remembering to offer readers the means of connecting life s extremes individual and society local and global personal and impersonal dimensions of existence and explores what it is that makes us fully human This is a work of great originality Keith Hart has had an unorthodox academic career and it has liberated him in many ways from academic pieties His background in African ethnography gives him a fascinating angle on all sorts of things not least the possibility of a more African influenced global future The book is full of surprises and mind shifting observations I actually couldn t put it down Sherry B Ortner UCLA From the introduction People have many sides but I will focus here on two Each of us is a biological organism with a historical personality that together make us a unique individual But we cannot live outside society which shapes us in unfathomable ways Human beings must learn to be self reliant not self interested in small and large ways no one will brush your teeth for you or save you from being run over while crossing the street We each must also learn to belong to others merging personal identity in a plethora of social relations and categories Modern ideology insists that being individual and mutual is problematic The culture of capitalist societies anticipates a conflict between them Yet they are inseparable aspects of human nature

Transforming Agrarian Economies Thomas P. Tomich,Peter Kilby,Bruce F.

Johnston,2018-05-31 The world's 58 poorest countries are diverse in many respects but they share the characteristic of a labor force overwhelmingly dependent on agriculture Challenging the assumption that mass poverty and chronic hunger are insoluble problems this book systematically explores the multiple aspects of economic development in these countries which are home to 60 percent of the world's population The authors offer a broad based development strategy to raise incomes through agricultural productivity growth and expanded rural employment They present rich new information on the rural informal sector and on agriculture industry interactions and they analyze the impact of macroeconomic and social policies on the rural economy Policy instruments aimed at bringing about broad based development are carefully assessed from fiscal policy to development of new seeds and farm implements The book includes detailed case studies of countries that have seized or missed development opportunities Comparison of the successful economic transformations of Japan and the United States shows how key ideas which the authors call strategic notions have enabled policymakers to act with foresight Analyses of strategic choices in China the Soviet Union Taiwan Mexico Kenya and Tanzania also show how development strategies that emerge from the real world political economy reflect a mix of individual interests and strategic notions Politics And Economic Development In Nigeria

Tom Forrest,2019-07-12 This text provides an account of the dynamic interplay between the political and economic forces that have shaped government priorities and strategies in Africa's most populous country The author examines efforts to build a stronger federal centre to develop national policies to counter uneven development and to reduce conflicts that have arisen from ethnic regional class and religious differences A final section analyzes the evolution of economic policy and performance looking specifically at agrarian policy the programme of economic liberalization and the impact of oil revenues Other Geographies Sharad Chari,Susanne Freidberg,Vinay Gidwani,Jesse Ribot,Wendy Wolford,2017-10-02 An international group of distinguished scholars pay homage to and build on the work of one of the most influential thinkers of our time Michael Watts Shows how Michael Watts research writings teaching and mentoring have relentlessly pushed boundaries transforming his chosen field of geography and beyond Spans an array of topics including the political economy and ecology of African societies governmentality and territoriality in various Southern contexts food security cultural materialist expositions of capitalism modernity and development across the postcolonial world Builds on his legacy exploring its theoretical analytical and empirical implications and proposing exciting new possibilities for further exploration in the tracks of Watts The Economics of Tropical Farming Systems

Martin Upton,1996-12-12 Clear student text on theory and practice of economic decision making in tropical agriculture Indigenous Agricultural Revolution Paul Richards,2023-07-26 Originally published in 1985 this book argues forcefully and practically for new relationship between science and the small farmer It advocates scientific research seeking out changes which are already taking place within the smallholder farming sector and building on local initiatives Drawing on his experience of West Africa the author demonstrates that many of the most successful innovations in food crop production during the 20th century have indigenous roots and that there should therefore be less emphasis on teaching farmers how to farm and more emphasis on how to foster and support local adaptation and inventiveness This book will be of interest to students of agriculture environmental studies and rural development as well as those working with relief and development agencies Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History Francesco Boldizzoni, Pat Hudson, 2015-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History documents and interprets the development of economic history as a global discipline from the later nineteenth century to the present day Exploring the normative and relativistic nature of different schools and traditions of thought this handbook not only examines current paradigmatic western approaches but also those conceived in less open societies and in varied economic political and cultural contexts In doing so this book clears the way for greater critical understanding and a more genuinely global approach to economic history This handbook brings together leading international contributors in order to systematically address cultural and intellectual traditions around the globe Many of these are exposed for consideration for the first time in English The chapters explore dominant ideas and historiographical trends and open them up to critical transnational perspectives This volume is essential reading for both academics and students in economic and social history As this field of study is very much a bridge between the social sciences and humanities the issues examined in the book will also have relevance for those seeking to understand the evolution of other academic disciplines under the pressures of varied economic political and cultural circumstances on both national and global scales Global Institutions and Development Morten Boas, Desmond McNeill, 2004-03-01 This unique book explores a very broad range of ideas and institutions and provides thorough and detailed case studies in the context of broader theoretical analysis Key topics such as poverty global governance sustainable development and the environment are closely examined with detailed case studies of the World Bank the WTO the IMF Asian Development Bank UN Development Programme and the OECD's Development Assistance Committee The impact multilateral institutions such as the World Bank and IMF have on development is hotly debated but few doubt their power and influence This book examines the concepts that have powerfully influenced development policy and more broadly looks at the role of ideas in international development institutions and how they have affected current development discourse The authors analyze why some ideas are taken up by these institutions how the ideas travel within the systems and how they are translated into policy modified distorted or resisted Understanding Africa's Rural Households And Farming Systems Joyce Lewinger Moock, 2019-06-26 In this book the difficult problems of agriculture in sub Saharan Africa are examined by the farming systems approach which aims to improve food production under adverse conditions through agronomic and social science research conducted on the farm Particular attention is paid to household decision making processes that affect the way households Africa in Economic Crisis John Ravenhill, 1986-09-19 For the City Yet to Come Abdou Maligalim Simone, 2004-10-07 A study of how colonial and postcolonial legacies manifest in African cities and African urban planning Shea Butter Republic Brenda Chalfin, 2004-06-01 Shea butter (Butyrospermum parkii) has been produced and sold by rural West African women and circulated on the world market as a raw material for more than a century. Shea butter has been used for cooking, making soap and candles, leatherworking, dying, as a medical and beauty aid, and most significantly as a substitute for cocoa butter in chocolate production. Now sold in exclusive shops as a high-priced cosmetic and medicinal product, it caters to the desire of cosmopolitan customers worldwide for luxury and exotic self-indulgence. This ethnographic study traces shea from a pre to post industrial commodity to provide a deeper understanding of emerging trends in tropical commoditization, consumption, global economic restructuring, and rural livelihoods. Also includes seven maps.
