American Presidents and Jerusalem Ghada Hashem Talhami, 2017-04-26 Any casual observer of the Israeli Palestinian conflict would immediately recognize that the holy city of Jerusalem is the core issue impeding a permanent peace settlement between the two antagonists The religious symbolism of this city and its centrality to major religious faiths has never faded and has become increasingly vital to various strands of twentieth century religious nationalisms The political fate of Jerusalem was inevitably mired in international political struggles of the Cold War particularly after the United States inherited Britain's mantle as the ultimate arbiter of regional conflicts and strategic disputes The asymmetrical balance of military power between Israel and Jordan made superpower intervention both inevitable and unpredictable This study examines the policies of twentieth century US presidents regarding the status of Jerusalem It traces the evolution of the United States embroilment in the politics of Mandatory Palestine successive wars and regimes that vied for control over Jerusalem and tracks the conflicting historical narratives presented by various states in the region It also takes a detailed look at the role of the American Jewish lobby which constantly pressured the United States to overlook Israel's refusal to go back to the lines of June 5 1967 or to stop creating facts on the ground in East Jerusalem The role of the oil lobby in seeking the reversal of Israeli annexationist steps in Jerusalem is also analyzed The failure of several American presidents to broker an Arab Israeli peace agreement is seen here as the result of the latitude enjoyed by presidential advisers in determining the main contours of American foreign policy in this region and guarding access to the chief executive in times of crisis Finally the book is an illustration of the perils of downplaying the human rights abuses of junior client states in order to placate national lobby groups in the United States leading to the entrenchment of the Israeli state not only over Jerusalem but throughout the West Bank

Nonstate Actors in Intrastate Conflicts Dan Miodownik, Oren Barak, 2013-10-09 Intrastate conflicts such as civil wars and ethnic confrontations are the predominant form of organized violence in the world today But internal strife can destabilize entire regions drawing in people living beyond state borders particularly those who share ideology ethnicity or kinship with one of the groups involved These nonstate actors may not be enlisted in formal armies or political parties but they can play a significant role in a conflict For example when foreign volunteers forge alliances with domestic groups they tend to attract other foreign interventions and may incite the state to centralize its power Diasporan populations depending on their connection to their homeland might engage politically through financial support or overt aggression either exacerbating or mitigating the conflict Nonstate Actors in Intrastate Conflicts takes an interdisciplinary approach to understanding the ways external individuals and groups become entangled with volatile states and how they influence the outcome of hostilities within a country's borders Editors Dan Miodownik and Oren Barak bring together top scholars to examine case studies in Afghanistan Lebanon Israel Palestine and

Turkey in order to explore the manifold roles of external nonstate actors By shedding light on these overlooked participants whose causes and consequences can turn the tide of war Nonstate Actors in Intrastate Conflicts provides a critical new perspective on the development and neutralization of civil war and ethnic violence Contributors Oren Barak Chanan Cohen Robert A Fitchette Orit Gazit Gallia Lindenstrauss Nava L wenheim David Malet Dan Miodownik Maayan Mor Avraham Sela Gabriel Gabi Sheffer Omer Yair
