Politics, Personality and Nation Building Lucian W. Pye, 1968 Politics, Personality and Nation Building Lucian Wilmot Pye, 1964 Politics, Personality, and Nation Building Lucian W. Pye, 2003-01 Nation Building in Comparative Contexts Karl Wolfgang Deutsch, William J. Foltz, Originally published New York Atherton 1966 Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries Capitalism and Democracy in the Third World Paul Cammack, 1997-01-01 Analyzes and interprets political development theory from a critical Marxist perspective The central theme is the emergence of a separate doctrine for political development in the wake of disillusionment with the prospects of building a universal theory interpreted by the author as a transitional program for the installation and consolidation of capitalist regimes in the Third World Topics include capitalism and democracy in the post war period the search for a theory of development functionalism political culture and the comparative historical approach Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Power and Policy in Quest of Law Myres S. McDougal, W.M. Reisman, 2024-09-02 Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1973 The Military and Modernization Henry Bienen, 2017-07-05 There is a growing body of work on the military in developing countries Few studies have explored in depth questions concerning the social origins of officers and enlisted men or trace career patterns within the armed forces of the developing world With the exception of Latin America it has been rare for a study to assess the performance of ruling or non ruling militaries for political development and modernization of their societies This oversight is exactly what Henry Bienen addresses in this collection Politics, Personality, and Nation Building James Maude Richards, 1962 Quarterly Review of Military Literature, 1973 Area Handbook for Burma American University (Washington, D.C.). Foreign Area Studies, Thomas Duval Roberts, 1968 State in Society Joel S. Migdal, 2001-08-27 The essays in this book trace the development of Joel Migdal's state in society approach The essays situate the approach within the classic literature in political science sociology and related disciplines but present a new model for understanding state society relations It allies parts of the state and groups in society against other such coalitions determines how societies and states create and maintain distinct ways of structuring day to day life the nature of the rules that govern people's behavior whom they benefit and whom they disadvantage which sorts of elements unite people and which divide them and what shared meaning people hold about their

relations with others and their place in the world

The Idea of Nation and Its Future in India Shibani Kinkar

Chaube, 2016-10-26 This volume is a theoretico empirical study of nations and nationalism on a global scale It enquires if the idea of the nation by its own logic is feasible and whether India fulfils the requirement of nationhood with a reasonable prospect of survival The monograph engages with the theories of nation and nationalism and examines if they are relevant and tenable in contemporary times It looks at the way these ideas have acted out in the Indian nation while attempting to map its future trajectory It also asks how do the two fundamental challenges to the idea of nation ethnicity and class fare in the era of globalisation and further how does India a new state in an ancient society reconceptualise the paradigm of this debate The book will be of great interest to scholars and students of political science political theory history political philosophy and South Asian studies as well as informed general readers

Defining the Nation? Katharina

Nötzold, 2009-09-10 Katharina Nötzold explores whether and how mass media can contribute to nation building after civil war Drawing on the example of Lebanon's audiovisual media organisations which are mostly privately owned by politicians she demonstrates how political elites use television to transmit their visions of post war society Lebanon's nation building process from 1990 to 2005 was characterized by Syrian dominance over political life From an extensive content analysis of Lebanese news and interviews with analysts journalists and managers from all Lebanese TV stations it emerges that political information on television focused more on divisive experiences than cohesive ones This has underpinned continued sectarianism in Lebanon in the media as in society at large and has impeded nationbuilding Malaysia R.S. Milne,K.J. Ratnam,2014-01-14 First Published in 1974 Throughout this title two interweaving and interacting themes are apparent One is the changes resulting from the increasingly important role of politics and politicians in states which until 1963 had been colonies Politics is as it were superimposed on administration The other is the impact of the Federal Government From 1963 onwards Sarawak and Sabah were changing because they were new states A short bibliography includes a section on Malaya Malaysia which is necessary because this book studies a rather unusual form of the problem of political development as Sarawak and Sabah are not independent countries The Role of International Law in Rebuilding Societies After Conflict Brett Bowden,Hilary Charlesworth,Jeremy Matam Farrall,2009-04-16 The genesis of this book was a workshop entitled Empire or Empowerment The Role of International Law in Building Democracy and Justice after Conflict held at the Australian National University in Canberra on 9 10 August 2007 The Structure of Political Geography Julian Minghi,2017-09-04 This volume seeks to provide a sense of purpose and order to the study of political geography The editors devise a conceptual structure for the field bringing political geography into line with trends in contemporary geography as a whole and with other social sciences Not only do the selections contain a wide variety of contributions from other fields but the introductory essays and annotated bibliographies suggest related research The structure of the book enjoys close parallels in other social sciences The organization of the book reflects the editors definitions and structuring of political geography Part I Heritage includes works that have contributed to the theoretical development of the field Part II Structure comprises the concern to which political geographers have devoted most of their past attention Parts III and IV Process and Behavior form the subject where much future theoretical and practical effort is needed Part V Environment provides the context in which spatial structure process and behavior occur The Structure of Political Geography includes selections from sociobiology history international relations political economy political science social psychology and sociology The classics in the field are an essential inclusion since the book would be incomplete without them The selections in the volume originally published in 1971 remain useful and pertinent to political geographers of diverse persuasion and to social scientists interested in geographical approaches The fact that there is a clear focus and conceptual interdependence in political geography is the volume s greatest contribution
