Rider Haggard,2015-10-19 I do not suppose that anyone who knows the name of Allan Quatermain would be likely to associate it with flowers and especially with orchids Yet as it happens it was once my lot to take part in an orchid hunt of so remarkable a character that I think its details should not be lost At least I will set them down and if in the after days anyone cares to publish them well he is at liberty to do so It was in the year oh never mind the year it was a long while ago when I was much younger that I went on a hunting expedition to the north of the Limpopo River which borders the Transvaal My companion was a gentleman of the name of Scroope Charles Scroope He had come out to Durban from England in search of sport At least that was one of his reasons The other was a lady whom I will call Miss Margaret Manners though that was not her name It seems that these two were engaged to be married and really attached to each other Unfortunately however they quarrelled violently about another gentlemen with whom Miss Manners danced four consecutive dances including two that were promised to her fianc at a Hunt ball in Essex where they all lived Explanations or rather argument followed Mr Scroope said that he would not tolerate such conduct Miss Manners replied that she would not be dictated to she was her own mistress and meant to remain so Mr Scroope exclaimed that she might so far as he was concerned She answered that she never wished to see his face again He declared with emphasis that she never should and that he was going to Africa to shoot elephants The Congo-Zaire Experience, 1960-98 E.
