Pool Party:

The Pool Party Gary Soto, 2013-05-29 Rudy Herrera is surprised and excited when he gets an invitation to a pool party. It's from Tiffany Perez, the richest and most popular girl in school. Rudy's grandmother El Shorty thinks he is going off to shoot pool. His sister Estela warns him not to make a fool of himself or worse embarrass her. Rudy's father teaches him how to make small talk and tells him Tiffany will like him because he's a real person, not a phony. All Rudy cares about is what to wear, what kinds of dives to do, and what to bring Tiffany. When the big day arrives, Rudy is in high spirits. Will he make a big splash at the pool party? From Grandfather El Shorty to Little Rudy, the Herreras are a family who not only live and work together but love and enjoy one another. Gary Soto, poet and storyteller, gives young readers a story of simple pleasures simply told and simply wonderful.

Nobody's Perfect Cynthia L. Cameron, Lakisha R. Lockhart-Rusch, Emily A. Peck, 2025-02-25 Adolescents like everyone else make mistakes However religious educators Cynthia L. Cameron Lakisha R. Lockhart Rusch and Emily A. Peck argue that some youths are born with the privilege of making mistakes in ways that others often are not They also argue that many Christian education practices that guide our understandings of mistake making are shaped by gender and gender identity sexual orientation and race in ways that disenfranchise some adolescents In response Cameron Lockhart Rusch and Peck curate a much needed conversation that helps religious educators accompany adolescents and better understand mistakes based on a theological framework that names adolescents as fundamentally good. The result is an edited volume that explores ways educators can walk with adolescents so that youth can learn from their mistakes and grow without misunderstanding all mistakes as sin. Together these essays seed a theology of adolescent goodness that is rooted in a liberative Christian theological anthropology. Drawing on both qualitative and quantitative research, Nobody's Perfect offers nuanced and robust definitions of what a mistake is apart from definitions of sin. The book also explores the challenges of talking about mistake making and sin with adolescents within religious institutional contexts that shape policy, pastoral practice, and ministry orientations. Finally, the book presents youths' own voices about how they understand and process what mistake making looks like in the contexts in which they live and learn. Nobody's Perfect is for Christian educators who serve either in the academy or in congregational settings. The book will serve educators who recognize the various cultural and developmental challenges adolescents face when their church communities. The book also offers tools to help such church leaders attend to religious education spaces with a renewed theology that can root a more liberative experience of religious education. Palm Beach Life, 2008-12.
