E. Allinson, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from Roads From Rome The main purpose of the Roman sketches is to show that the men and women of ancient Rome were like ourselves Born into life as we And not the world are new Our cry for bliss our plea Others have urged it too Our wants have all been felt our errors made before It is only when we perceive in classical antiquity a human nature similar to our own in its mingling of weakness and strength vice and virtue sorrow and joy defeats and victories that we shall find in its noblest literature an intimate rather than a formal inspiration and in its history either comfort or warning About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
