Robert Mapplethorpe The Perfect Moment:

Robert Mapplethorpe Janet Kardon, Robert Mapplethorpe, David Joselit, Kay Larson, 1989 Culture Wars Roger Chapman, 2010 Although openness and inclusion are cornerstones of life in the United States intolerance and reactionary politics are also very real As the nation prepares to elect a new president The Culture Wars addresses the key defining issues of contemporar Robert Mapplethorpe Robert Mapplethorpe, Institute of Contemporary Art (Boston, Mass.), University of Pennsylvania. Institute of Contemporary Art, 1990 Imagery of Lynching Dora Apel, 2004 Outside of the classroom and scholarly publications lynching has long been a taboo subject Nice people it is felt do not talk about it and they certainly do not look at images representing the atrocity In Imagery of Lynching Dora Apel contests this adopted stance of ignorance Through a careful and compelling analysis of over one hundred representations of lynching she shows how the visual documentation of such crimes can be a central vehicle for both constructing and challenging racial hierarchies She examines how lynching was often orchestrated explicitly for the camera and how these images circulated on postcards but also how they eventually were appropriated by antilynching forces and artists from the 1930s to the present She further investigates how photographs were used to construct ideologies of whiteness and blackness the role that gender played in these visual representations and how interracial desire became part of the imagery Offering the fullest and most systematic discussion of the depiction of lynching in diverse visual forms this book addresses questions about race class gender and dissent in the shaping of American society Although we may want to avert our gaze Apel holds it with her sophisticated interpretations of traumatic images and the uses to which they have been put Cincinnati Magazine ,2000-04 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region The Scandal of Pleasure Wendy Steiner, 1995-12-18 In an increasingly hostile political environment her book is a necessary guide to understanding the current crisis in the arts Robert Mapplethorpe Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.), 1989 Cincinnati Magazine ,2001-08 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Persuasion Lillian L. Beeson, 2014 By including works from Aristotle to Kenneth Burke Persuasion Theory and Applications provides a comprehensive introduction to persuasion Author Lillian Beeson offers a balance of classic rhetorical theories and contemporary social science approaches demonstrating how these multiple perspectives apply to various fields including politics religion art entertainment advertising public relations and law The text contains relevant controversial and compelling examples that will engage students in the discussion of how persuasion works and show them how to effectively apply this knowledge to their everyday lives Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Legislating Creativity Dustin Kidd,2014-04-08 How does political policy making shape the creative activities of artists Do the political interests of artists influence actual political practices in any way Legislating Creativity examines the relationship between art and politics through an analysis of controversial art projects tied to the National Endowment for the Arts during the Culture Wars late 1980s 1990s Though there have always been tensions in government funding for the arts these controversies intensified the public debates surrounding art politics and remain as a focal point in conversations that continue today The book focuses on three case studies Mapplethorpe s controversial photography an exhibit on the impact of AIDS entitled Witnesses and the Guerrilla Girls Dustin Kidd has provided a thoroughly enriching look at the intersections of art and politics the ways that political practices transform creative expression and the ways that artistic drives shape political policies

Bloodflowers W. Ian Bourland,2019-01-31 In Bloodflowers W Ian Bourland examines the photography of Rotimi Fani Kayode 1955 1989 whose art is a touchstone for cultural debates surrounding questions of gender and queerness race and diaspora aesthetics and politics and the enduring legacy of slavery and colonialism Born in Nigeria Fani Kayode moved between artistic and cultural worlds in Washington DC New York and London where he produced the bulk of his provocative and often surrealist and homoerotic photographs of black men Bourland situates Fani Kayode s work in a time of global transition and traces how it exemplified and responded to profound social cultural and political change In addition to his formal analyses of Fani Kayode s portraiture Bourland outlines the important influence that surrealism neo Romanticism Yoruban religion the AIDS crisis experimental film loft culture and house and punk music had on Fani Kayode s work In so doing Bourland offers new perspectives on a pivotal artist whose brief career continues to resonate with deep aesthetic and social meaning Searching for the Body Rae Erin Dachille,2022-10-25 In the early fifteenth century two Tibetan monks debated how to transform the body ritually into a celestial palace inhabited by buddhas The discussion between Ngorchén Knga Zangpo and Kh drupj G lek Pelzangpo concerned the mechanics of this tantric ritual practice known as body mandala as well as the most reliable sources to follow in performing it As representatives of the Sakya and emerging Geluk traditions respectively these authors spoke for communities of Buddhist practitioners vying for patronage and prestige in an evolving Tibetan scholastic culture Their debate witnessed clashes between imagination and deception continuity and rupture and tradition and innovation Searching for the Body demonstrates the significance of the body mandala debate for understandings of Tibetan Buddhism as well as conversations on representation and embodiment occurring across the disciplines today Rae Erin Dachille explores how Ngorchon and Kh drup used citational practice as a tool for making meaning arguing that their texts reveal a deep connection between ritual mechanics and interpretive practice She contends that this debate addresses strikingly contemporary issues surrounding interpretation intertextuality creativity essentialism and naturalness Buddhist ideas about the construction of meaning and the body offer new ways of understanding representation which Dachille illuminates in an epilogue that considers Glenn Ligon s engagement with Robert Mapplethorpe s photography By placing Buddhist thought in dialogue with contemporary artistic practice and cultural critique Searching for the Body offers vital new perspectives on the transformative potential of representations in defining and transcending the human

Public Policy and the Aesthetic Interest Ralph Alexander Smith, Ronald Berman, 1992 On Edge C.

Carr, 2012-04-09 Through her engaged and articulate essays in the Village Voice C Carr has emerged as the cultural historian of the New York underground and the foremost critic of performance art On Edge brings together her writings to offer a detailed and insightful history of this vibrant brand of theatre from the late 70s to today It represents both Carr s analysis as a critic and her testament as a witness to performances which by their very nature can never be repeated Carr has organized this collection both chronologically and thematically ranging from the emphasis on bodily manipulation endurance in the 70s to the underground club scene in New York to an insider s analysis of the Tompkins Square Riot as a manifestation of the cultural and social conflicts that underlie much of performance art She examines the transgressive and taboo shattering work of Ethyl Eichelberger Karen Finley and Holly Hughes documents specific performances by Annie Sprinkle and Lydia Lunch and maps the development of such artists as Robbie McCauley Blue Man Group and John Jesurun She also describes the cross over phenomenon of the mid 80s and considers the far right backlash against this mainstreaming as cultural reactionaries sought to curb the influence of these new artists CONTRIBUTORS Linda Montano Chris Burden G G Allin Jean Baudrillard Patty Hearts Dan Quayle Anne Magnouson John Jesurun John Kelly Shu Lea Changvv Diamanda Galas Salley May Rafael Mantanez Ortiz Sherman Fleming Kristine Stiles Laurie Carlos Jessica Hafedorn Robbie McCormick Karen Finley Poopo Shiraishi Donna Henes Holey Hughe Ela Troyano Michael Smith Harry Koipper John Sex Nina Jagen Ethyl Eichelberge Marina Abramovic Ulay Ebook Edition Note All illustrations have been redacted from the ebook edition Takedown Farah Nayeri, 2022-01-25 Farah Nayeri addresses the difficult questions plaguing the art world from the bad habits of Old Masters to the current grappling with identity politics For centuries art censorship has been a top down phenomenon kings popes and one party states decided what was considered obscene blasphemous or politically deviant in art Today censorship can also happen from the bottom up thanks to calls to action from organizers and social media campaigns Artists and artworks are routinely taken to task for their insensitivity In this new world order artists critics philanthropists galleries and museums alike are recalibrating their efforts to increase the visibility of marginalized voices and respond to the people s demands for better ethics in art But what should we the people do with this newfound power With exclusive interviews with Nan Goldin

Sam Durant Faith Ringgold and others Nayeri tackles wide ranging issues including sex religion gender ethics animal rights and race By asking and answering questions such as Who gets to make art and who owns it How do we correct the inequities of the past What does authenticity exploitation and appropriation mean in art Takedown provides the necessary tools to navigate the art world Disco, Punk, New Wave, Heavy Metal, and More Britannica Educational Publishing,2012-12-01 Although rock music continued to dominate the music scene the sounds of the 1970s and 80s differed greatly from the music of the preceding decades reflecting newer social realities The aggressive sounds of punk music began to appeal to youth while disco reached across cultures and brought diverse crowds together in dance clubs New Wave had a playful chill feel while the electronic guitar laden sounds heavy metal were anything but Readers examine the various styles of music that defined the 1970s and 80s profiling the artists who captured the spirit of rapid social and cultural change Legal Convergence in the Enlarged Europe of the New Millennium Paul L.C. Torremans,2021-10-11 Three years ago the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Silesia and the Faculty of Law of the University of Leicester embarked on a joint research and academic co operation programme with the support of the British Council in Warsaw The programme resulted in the organisation of two academic conferences one in Leicester and one in Katowice This book is the tangible result of these conferences The content of the book reflects the wide ranging nature of the collaboration between the two Faculties Environmental law public international law intellectual and cultural property law are the main areas that are covered but certain issues of constitutional law European law social law company law and legal education are also addressed The main strength of this book is found in its breadth of coverage and the detailed examination of key issues such as the rights of minorities the transboundary movement of waste in Europe and the environmental problems which it creates the theft and illegal exportation of cultural property and the convergence of the droit d auteur and copyright traditions Free Speech and Censorship Cari Lee Skogberg Eastman,2022-02-15 This annotated document collection surveys the history and evolution of laws and attitudes regarding free speech and censorship in the United States with a special emphasis on contemporary events and controversies related to the First Amendment The United States collective understanding of First Amendment freedoms was formed by more than 200 years of tensions between the power of word and the power of the government During that time major laws and legal decisions defined the circumstances and degree to which personal expression could be rightfully expressed and rightfully limited This struggle to define the parameters of free speech continues today Vibrant and passionate debates about First Amendment limitations once inspired by the dissemination of birth control information now address such issues as kneeling during the national anthem removing controversial books from public libraries attempts by the Trump administration to discredit the press and disseminating false or hateful information through social media platforms By exploring diverse examples of censorship victories and triumphs of free expression readers will better understand the enormous impact of First Amendment freedoms on American society Social
