every year In a thoughtful humorous voice born of Appalachian storytelling Childers brings to life in these essays events that affected the entire region large families that squeezed into tiny apartments during the Great Depression a girl who stepped into a rowboat from a second story window during Huntington's 1937 flood brothers who were whisked away to World War II and Vietnam and a young man who returned home from the South Pacific and worked his life away as a railroad engineer Childers uses these family tales to make sense of her personal journey and find the joy and clarity that often emerge after the earth shakes terribly beneath us

Life at the Margins Juliet Merrifield, 1997 Unlike many books about adult literacy which focus on abstract concepts related to test scores this volume develops an understanding of literacy through the engaging life stories of twelve adults from diverse backgrounds living in the United States In the process of coming to know these adults we learn contrary to commonly held assumptions and beliefs about literacy that adults with limited literacy skills work hard and long make limited use of public resources can use technology when shown and have pride and self respect In addition to all of the scientific information and policy implications yielded by this research study this is foremost a compelling story of human struggle and survival Readers will find themselves caring about these adults feeling angry about their underemployment and their pain and excited about their triumphs
