Marginal Notes Challenges To The Mainstream:

The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada s external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline

Profiles in Canadian Literature Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991

Working on Screen Malek Khouri, Darrell Varga, 2006-01-01 Working on Screen thus expands the scholarly debates on the concept of national cinema and builds on the rich formative efforts of Canadian cultural criticism that held dear the need for cultural autonomy

The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 1995 The Post Colonial Studies Reader is the most comprehensive selection of key texts in post colonial theory and criticism yet compiled This collection covers a huge range of topics featuring nearly ninety of the discipline s most widely read works The Reader s 90 extracts are designed to introduce the major issues and debates in the field of post colonial literary studies This field itself however has become so varied that no collection of readings could encompass every voice which is now giving itself the name post colonial The editors in order to avoid a volume which is simply a critical canon have selected works representing arguments with which they do not necessarily agree but rather which above all stimulate discussion thought and further exploration Post colonial theory has occurred in all societies into which the imperial force of Europe has intruded though not always in the official form of theoretical text Like the description of any other field the term has come to mean many things but this volume hinges on one incontestable phenomenon the historical fact of colonialism and the palpable consequences to which this phenomenon gave rise The topic involves talk about experience of various kinds migration slavery suppression resistance representation difference race gender place and reaction to the European influence and about the fundamental experiences of speaking and writing by which all these come into being In compiling this reader the editors have sought to stimulate people to ask How might a genuinely post colonial literary enterprise proceed The fourteen sections include Issues and Debates Universality and Difference Textual Representation and Resistance Postmodernism and Post Colonialism Nationalism Hybridity Ethnicity and Indigeneity Feminism and Post Colonialism Language The Body and Performance History Place Education and Production and Consumption Contributors include many of the leading post colonial theorists and critics such as Franz Fanon Chinua Achebe Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ngugi wa Thiong'o Homi Bhabha Derek Walcott Edward Said and Trinh T Minh-ha in addition to a number of the discourse's newer voices The Post Colonial Studies Reader will prove an authoritative compilation representing an invaluable contribution to the study of post colonial theory and criticism Unhomely States Cynthia Sugars, 2004-02-11 Unhomely States is the first collection of foundational essays of Canadian postcolonial theory The essays span the period from 1965 to the present day and approach broad issues of Canadian culture and society They represent the impassioned conflicts dissonances and intersections among postcolonial theorists in English Canada Theories of Canadian postcolonialism are various and often contending The questions proliferate Is Canada postcolonial Who in Canada is postcolonial Are some Canadians more postcolonial than others Together the essays in this collection demonstrate both the historical development of this vigorous debate and its most prominent current perspectives The anthology comprises work originally written in English selected and arranged in order to demonstrate the dynamic nature of these discussions Included here are essays by many well known writers and theorists such as George Grant Northrop Frye Margaret Atwood Dennis Lee Robert Kroetsch Linda Hutcheon Diana Brydon Thomas King Terry Goldie Arun Mukherjee Smaro Kamboureli Stephen Slemon and Roy Miki The collection covers such topics as anti colonial nationalism settler invader theory First Nations contexts postcolonial pedagogy and critiques of Canadian postcolonialism A general introduction surveying the current field of postcolonial discourse in English Canada is also included New World Myth Marie Vautier, 1998-01-06 There is an emphasis on de constructing de centring de stabilizing and especially de mythologizing in the study that illustrates New World myth narrators questioning the past in the present and carrying out their original investigations of myth place and identity Underlining the fact that political realities are encoded in the language and narrative of the works Vautier argues that the reworkings of literary religious and historical myths and political ideologies in these novels are grounded in their shared situation of being in and of the New World Joe Zuken, Citizen and Socialist Doug Smith, 1990-01-01 Acknowledgements Introduction 1 A Child of the North End 1912 1929 2 A Political Education 1929 1940 3 It Did Happen Here 1933 1940 4 The Defence of Canada 1940 1942 5 The School Board Years 1942 1962 6 The Cold War in Manitoba 1945 1962 7 A Shield for the Poor 1940 1986 8 A Communist at City Hall 1962 1971 9 The Unicity Years 1972 1983 Epilogue People Interviewed Bibliography Index Catalog of the Gerald K. sitcoms to docudramas for over three decades the CBC has presented viewers with every variety of television drama and has become Canada's closest equivalent to a national theatre Turn Up the Contrast is the first book to explore the content of Canadian television drama and is both a critical analysis and a survey history of how Canadians have used the medium to tell themselves their own stories As a part of her research Mary Jane Miller watched thousands of hours of television sampling series and viewing in their entirety shorter programs such as movies and mini series Asking a variety of questions she selected a number of programs for detailed analysis and devotees of The Beachcombers King of Kensington Seeing Things Cariboo Country Wojeck or A Gift to Last will be pleased to find their favourites among those discussed at length A University of British Columbia Press CBC Enterprises Co Publication

F. R. Leavis Steven Cranfield, 2015-11-09 This is a critical introduction to the educational thought of F R Leavis 1895-1978 the greatest English literary critic of the twentieth century providing the first in depth examination of Leavis's ideas in relation to contemporary mass higher education During the course of a long prolific and controversial academic career which saw him take issue with figures such as Wittgenstein T S Eliot and C P Snow Leavis became one of the most articulate advocates for the idea of the university as a centre of consciousness and human responsibility in the face of what he saw as the relentless technological drive of civilisation With the journal Scrutiny which he co-founded as well as his critical writings Leavis became a decisive influence on generations of teachers in Britain and overseas Widely misrepresented as narrowly elitist his ideas about the creative university with their radical student-centred approach to teaching constitute a powerful resource for a higher education system grappling with the contradictory demands of continuity and change Based on original research the study provides an overview of Leavis's life work and heritage and his educational world view and a comprehensive exploration of Leavis's pedagogy from theoretical and practical perspectives It also includes a first hand account by the author of being taught by Leavis in person

Apparently Incongruous Parts Gordon Bowker, 1990 A wide ranging collection of essays and memoirs about Malcolm Lowry 1909-1957 one of the century's great novelists

Marginal Groups and Mainstream American Culture Yolanda Estes, 2000 They are often portrayed as outsiders ethnic minorities the poor the disabled and so many others all living on the margins of mainstream society Countless previous studies have focused on their pain and powerlessness but that has done little more than sustain our preconceptions of marginalized groups Most accounts of marginalization approach the subject from a distance and tend to overemphasize the victimization of outsiders Taking a more intimate approach this book reveals the personal moral and social implications of marginalization by drawing upon the actual experiences of such individuals Multidisciplinary and multicultural Identity on the Margin addresses marginalization at a variety of social levels and within many different social phenomena going beyond familiar cases dealing with race ethnicity and gender to examine such outsiders as renegade children conservative Christians and the physically and mentally disabled And because women are especially subject to the effects of marginalization feminist concerns and the marginalization of sexual practices provide a common denominator for many of the essays From problems posed by complimentary racism to the status of gays in Tony Blair s England from the struggle of Native Americans to preserve their identities to the singular problems of single mothers Identity on the Margin takes in a broad spectrum of cases to provide theoretical analysis and ethical criticism of the mechanisms of identity formation at the edges of society In all of the cases the authors demonstrate the need for theory that initiates social change by considering the ethical implications of marginalization and criticizing its harmful effects Bringing together accounts of marginalization from many different disciplines and perspectives this collection addresses a broad audience in the humanities and social sciences It offers a basis for enhancing our understanding of this process and for working toward meaningful social change

Past the Last Post Ian Adam,Helen Tiffin,1991 This book is an examination of two major literary movements which are often misleadingly conflated The post colonial differs from the post modern in its provenance in former British colonies and dominions in its historical reach extending from the time of Imperial dominance down to the contemporary in its critical commitment to context and in its development of an independent body of theory

Canadian Global Almanac 2002 Susan Girvan,2001-10 Canadiana ,1985 Fairy Tales and International Relations Kathryn Starnes,2016-12-08 This book offers a critical engagement with contemporary IR textbooks via a novel folklorist approach Two parts of the folklorist approach are developed addressing story structures via resemblances to two fairy tales and engaging with the role of authors via framing gestures The book not only looks at how the idea of social science may persist in textbooks as many assumptions about what it means to study IR but also at how these assumptions are written into the defining stories textbooks tell and the possibilities for re negotiating these stories and the boundaries of the discipline This book will specifically engage with how the stories in textbooks constrain how it is possible to define IR through its re production as a social science discipline In the first part story structures are explored via Donkeyskin and Bluebeard stories which the book argues resemble some structures in textbooks that define how it is permissible to tell stories about IR In the second part the role of authors is explored via their framing gestures within a text drawing on a number of fairy tales By approaching the stories in textbooks alongside fairy tales Starnes reflects back onto IR the disciplining practices in the stories textbooks tell by rendering them unfamiliar Aiming to spark a critical conversation about the role of textbooks in defining the boundaries of what counts as IR and by extension the boundaries of the IR canon this book is of great interest to students and scholars of international relations The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye,2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable resource The Writers Directory ,2013 Feminist Challenges or Feminist Rhetorics? Locations, Scholarship, Discourse Kirsti Cole,2014-03-17 The chapters collected in this book generate discussion about the intersections of feminisms and rhetorics as well as the ways in which those intersections are productive This collection focuses on the locations of feminist rhetorics the various discourses that invoke feminism or feminist and the scholarship that provokes challenges and deliberates issues of key concern In focusing on challenge and location this collection acknowledges the academic and socio discursive spaces that feminisms and rhetorics on or about feminisms inhabit Feminism but also women and what it means to be a woman is a signifier under siege in public discourse The chapters included here speak to the challenges and diversities of feminist rhetoric and discourse in public and private life in the academy and in the media The authors represented in this collection present potential consequences for communities in the academy and beyond spanning international geopolitical racial and religious contexts Writers Directory M-Z Miranda Herbert Ferrara,2004-06 This comprehensive resource features up to date bibliographical biographical and contact information for approximately 20 000 living authors worldwide who have at least one English publication Entries typically include name pseudonyms addresses citizenship birth date specialization career information and a bibliography Contact information includes e mail addresses where available
