Marian Anderson Neda M. Westlake, Otto E. Albrecht, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Piano Music by Black Women Composers Helen Walker-Hill, 1992-02-28 In recent years considerable scholarly attention has been paid to women in music and information on the music of a handful of black women composers such as Florence Price and Mary Lou Williams has been published Determined search however is needed to locate what little data is available on most such composers Proceeding from a desire to use music of black women composers in her piano performance and teaching Helen Walker Hill has dedicated herself to uncovering this material utilizing secondary sources and numerous archives conducting interviews with composers and engaging in voluminous correspondence with individuals and institutions The result is the most comprehensive catalog of music composed by African American women to date The depth of detail required limiting the scope to solo and ensemble piano music However an introductory overview on the contributions of black women in music and biographical sketches on the fifty four composers profiled in the catalog contain broader information Over 300 piano works are listed with detailed descriptive information on close to 200 works the author was able to obtain and study including sources and levels of difficulty Appendixes list available published music ensemble instrumentation music for teaching and music published before 1920 A selected bibliography and a selected discography are also provided This biographical dictionary and descriptive catalog will be most directly useful to performers and teachers but the breadth of information makes it valuable for research in music history African American studies and women s studies Samuel Barber Wayne Wentzel, 2012-12-06 An annotated reference guide to Barber s life works and achievements it will prove valuable for anyone seeking information on him And So I Sing Rosalyn M. Story, 1990-02 Black women bring a host of influences and ideologies with them to opera as well as their spirituality their strengths and passions The exclusion of blacks from opera for so many generations impoverished both the artists and the artistic world from which they were barred Imagine if Leontyne Price had been born 50 years earlier during a time when she would not have been allowed on an American opera stage This book not only supplies portraits of the greatest artists for future generations of students of black art and culture but also rescues from history s shadows the lost legacies of geniuses born too soon Photos Marian Anderson Allan Keiler, 2002 From meetings with Anderson before her death in 1993 as well as interviews reviews and early coverage in the black press and personal diaries and letters Allan Keiler has assembled a magnificent study of Anderson's life now in paperback for the first time Jacket      Directory of Music Research Libraries Rita Benton, 1983      African American Architects Dreck Spurlock Wilson, 2004-03-01 African American architects have been designing and building houses and public buildings since 1865 Although many of these structures survive today the architects themselves are virtually unknown This unique reference work brings their lives and work to light for the first time Written by 100 experts ranging from architectural historians to archivists this book contains 160 biographical A Z entries on African American architects from the era of Emancipation to the end of World War II Articles provide biographical facts about each architect and commentary on his or her work Practical and accessible this reference is complemented by over 200 photographs and includes an appendix containing a list of buildings by geographic location and by architect      Marian Anderson Jane Sutcliffe, 2008-01-01 True or False Marian Anderson once received a standing ovation before she even sang her song True On January 7 1955 Marian Anderson was the first black person to sing with the Metropolitan Opera in New York City The audience applauded for five minutes before she could start singing      The Sound of Freedom Raymond Arsenault, 2010-01-19 Chronicles the landmark 1939 concert offers insight into the period's racial climate describes Eleanor Roosevelt's resignation from the DAR for barring Anderson's performances and pays tribute to the singer's significant contributions      International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11-01 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project      The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians: A to Aristotle Stanley Sadie, 2001      Music in America's Cold War Diplomacy Danielle Fosler-Lussier, 2015-05-01 During the Cold War thousands of musicians from the United States traveled the world under the sponsorship of the U S State Department's Cultural Presentations program Using archival documents and newly collected oral histories this study illuminates the reception of these musical events for the practice of musical diplomacy on the ground sometimes differed substantially from what the department's planners envisioned. Performances of music in many styles—classical, rock, n roll, folk, blues, and jazz—were meant to compete with traveling Soviet and Chinese artists, enhancing the reputation of American culture. These concerts offered large audiences evidence of America's improving race relations, excellent musicianship, and generosity toward other peoples. Most important, these performances also built meaningful connections with people in other lands. Through personal contacts and the media, musical diplomacy created subtle musical, social, and political relationships on a global scale. Although these tours were sometimes conceived as propaganda ventures, their most important function was the building of imagined and real relationships, which constitute the essence of soft power.

Nina Sun Eidsheim traces the ways in which the voice and its qualities are socially produced and how listeners assign a series of racialized and gendered set of assumptions to a singing voice      Marian Anderson Victoria Garrett Jones, 2008 Profiles the singer who, while she performed for presidents and kings, was barred from many public establishments because she was African American      African American Music Mellonee V. Burnim, Portia K. Maultsby, 2014-11-13 American Music: An Introduction Second Edition is a collection of seventeen essays surveying major African American musical genres, both sacred and secular, from slavery to the present. With contributions by leading scholars in the field, the work brings together analyses of African American music based on ethnographic fieldwork, which privileges the voices of the music makers themselves, woven into a richly textured mosaic of history and culture. At the same time, it incorporates musical treatments that bring clarity to the structural, melodic, and rhythmic characteristics that both distinguish and unify African American music. The second edition has been substantially revised and updated and includes new essays on African and African American musical continuities, African-derived instrument construction and performance practice, techno and quartet traditions. Musical transcriptions, photographs, illustrations, and a new audio CD bring the music to life.
