Arcadian Waters and Wanton Seas Arne Neset, 2009 The nineteenth century was the great age of landscape painting in Europe and America In an era of rapid industrialization and transformation of landscape pictures of natural scenes were what people wanted most to display in their homes The most popular and marketable pictures often degenerating into kitsch showed a wilderness with a pond or a lake in which obtrusive signs of industry and civilization had been edited out Inspired by Romantic ideas of the uniqueness of the nation pictorial and literary art was supposed to portray the soul of the nation and the spirit of place a view commonly adopted by cultural and art historians on both sides of the Atlantic Arcadian Waters and Wanton Seas argues that nationalistic or exceptionalist interpretations disregard deep rooted iconological traditions in transatlantic culture Depictions and ideas of nature go back to the classical ideas of Arcadia and Eden in which fountains ponds lakes rivers and finally the sea itself are central elements Following their European colleagues American artists typically portrayed the American Arcadia through the classical conventions Arcadian Waters and Wanton Seas adopts the interdisciplinary and comparative methodological perspectives that characterize American studies The book draws on art history cultural history literature and the study of the production and use of visual images and will serve well as a textbook for courses on American studies or cultural history of the Western world

Vessels of Empire Eleanor Sian Hughes, 2001 RSA Journal Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1996 The Mariner's Mirror Leonard George Carr Laughton, Roger Charles Anderson, William Gordon Perrin, 2000 Charles Brooking 1723-1759 David Joel, 2000 Charles Brooking is at the forefront of English marine painters but since he died aged thirty six in 1759 there was to be no recognition in his short life to justify his remarkable ability He has probably produced the most atmospheric and beautiful marine paintings of all time All his known pictures are illustrated and described in this much needed catalogue raisonn  together with all his known drawings and engravings There is also a chapter on eighteenth century London marine engravers written by James Taylor a curator at the National Maritime Museum The book also describes the Dutch marine painters in the seventeenth century and shows how the English school developed following the Van de Veldes work at Greenwich This is the first book to cover fully eighteenth century British marine painters in general terms and Charles Brooking in particular It is badly needed by scholars collectors sale rooms museums and art galleries 142 colour 193 b w illustrations Ports of the World Cindy McCreery,1999 This book showcases some of the finest examples of The National Maritime Museum s collection of prints of ports from this period Prints are analysed as commercial and art objects rather than as simple historical records of matters maritime The aim is to address a broad audience including general readers of eighteenth and nineteenth century British and colonial history those interested in ports and maritime affairs and those with an interest in prints themselves The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries were a period of enormous political and commercial development across the globe Of particular importance was the revolution in transportation and communication by sea with the concomitant growth in size and importance of the seaport Despite growing awareness that the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries were a formative period in the development of maritime art there has been relatively little exploration of maritime prints This is extraordinary since the period c 1700 1870 was a golden age of print production and saw the development of new forms of engraving such as aquatint and lithography as well as the production of beautiful examples of line engraving and woodcut The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries saw the establishment and expansion of major ports not just in Britain but in continental Europe Africa Asia Australia and in North and South America The National Maritime Museum upon which collection this book is based is at the centre of the preservation and display of Britain s maritime heritage Its print collection reveals the firm link between art and commerce in the development of these ports

The Spooner Collection of British Watercolours at the Courtauld Institute Gallery Michael Broughton,William Clarke,Courtauld Institute of Art,Joanna Selborne,Courtauld Institute Galleries,2005 The Spooner Collection of watercolours is one of the finest of its kind featuring all the leading artists of the period 1750 1850 Notable among them are watercolours of the Lake District by John White Abbott and rural scenes by several artists Gainsborough Turner Cozens Rowlandson Francis Towne Samuel Palmer Architecture dominates the setting in works by Girtin Cotman and Sandby The essays accompanying the catalogue discuss outdoor painting and the role of memory in watercolour painting the connoisseurship and attitudes towards watercolours and give a brief biography of William Wycliffe Spooner himself This complete catalogue of the collection bequeathed by Spooner to the Courtauld Institute is published on the occasion of a touring exhibition of select works from the collection showing at The Worsworth Trust Grasmere The Huntingdon Library California and the Courtauld Institute Gallery London 2005 2006 The Mariner's Mirror Bibliography for ... ,2000 American Marine Painting Frederick R. Brandt,1976 Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),1998 Rule Britannia! James Taylor,Virginia Museum of Fine Arts,2007 The British monarchy s abiding connection to the sea during the age of exploration was a critical factor in the establishment of Britain s first colonies in the New World It is unsurprising then that alongside grand portraiture a strong tradition of maritime painting was established in the royal court during the seventeenth century Rule Britannia explores the rich artistic culture of Elizabethan and Stuart England and the artists who forged their reputations in the alternately violent and decadent circles of some of the last exponents of absolute monarchy. Although trade wars with the Dutch featured large in the period, it was to be Dutch and Flemish artists who dominated the artistic landscape. Lely, van Dyck, Rubens, Willaerts and the van de Veldes found ample opportunity for patronage from both king and courtiers and some of their finest works are featured here. Paintings from the Royal Collection, the National Maritime Museum and other private and museum collections in England, Ireland and the United States bring alive an era of grandeur in which the first tentative steps of imperial expansion occurred.

Anton Melbye und das Seestück im 19. Jahrhundert

Melbye Gesellschaft e.V., 2023-10-04

Zu Lebzeiten für seine emotional aufgeladenen Meereslandschaften mit Schiffen gefeiert und umworben, geriet Anton Melbye nach seinem Tod allmählich in Vergessenheit und wurde erst in den letzten Jahren wiederentdeckt. Insbesondere in seinen ab 1846 entstandenen Bildern des leeren Ozeans entwickelte der dänische Künstler das Seestück zu einem Spiegel der Seele, der Sehnsüchte und Ambitionen seiner Zeit. Erstmals in der Kunstgeschichte ohne Zeichen von Mensch, Schiff oder Küste zielt die bewegte Meeresoberfläche seiner Meeres einsamkeiten in ihrer Gleichförmigkeit, Undurchdringlichkeit und räumlichen Unendlichkeit auf die Verunsicherung der Betrachtenden und wird zur Projektionsfläche existenzieller Reflexion.

Von Regine Gerhardt liegt nun das wissenschaftliche Standardwerk zum Leben und Schaffen dieses einzigartigen Malers vor.

ANTON MELBYE's 1818 Kopenhagen, 1875 Paris, Lebensstationen in Kopenhagen, Hamburg, Paris und Konstantinopel bilden eine Nord-Süd-Achse, anhand derer die europäische Dimension einer erfolgreichen Künstlerkarriere im 19. Jahrhunderts sichtbar wird. Neben seinen in Öl gemalten Seestücken fand er für seine technisch komplexen Kohle- und Kreidezeichnungen Anerkennung und genoss wie auch seine Künstlerbrüder Vilhelm und Fritz Melbye die Wertschätzung privater Kunstsammler.

REGINE GERHARDT 1969-2018 Hamburg studierte Geschichte und Kunstgeschichte in Hamburg und Dublin. Sie wirkte bis zu ihrem Tod als freie Kunsthistorikerin zur bildenden Kunst des 19. Jahrhunderts. Ihre Promotion zu Leben und Werk Anton Melbyes eröffnet mit dieser Veröffentlichung eine spezielle Würdigung.
