Memento Mori Includes Far Cry From Kensington Girls Of Slender Means:

Memento Mori - The Girls of Slender Means - A Far Cry from Kensington Muriel Spark, 1991 A Grain of Faith Allan Hepburn, 2018-11-22 During and after the Second World War there was a concerted thinking about religion in Britain Not only were leading international thinkers of the day theologians Ronald Niebuhr Paul Tillich Jacques Maritain but leading writers contributed to discussions about religion Graham Greene Muriel Spark and Barbara Pym incorporated miracles evil and church going into their novels while Louis MacNeice T S Eliot and C S Lewis gave radio broadcasts about the role of Christianity in contemporary society Certainly the war revived interest in aspects of Christian life Salvation and redemption were on many people's minds The Ministry of Information used images of bombed churches to stoke patriotic fervour and King George VI led a series of Days of National Prayer that coincided with crucial events in the Allied campaign After the war and throughout the 1950s approximately 1.4 million Britons converted to Roman Catholicism as a way of expressing their spiritual ambitions and solidarity with humanity on a world wide scale Religion provided one way for writers to answer the question what is man It also afforded ways to think about social obligation and ethical engagement Moreover the mid century turn to religion offered ways to articulate statehood not from the perspective of nationhood and politics but from the perspective of moral action and social improvement Instead of being a retreat into seclusion and solitude the mid century turn to religion is a call to responsibility British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2018-12-20 Postwar is both a period and a state of mind a sensibility comprised of hope fear and fatigue in which British society and its writers paradoxically yearned both for political transformation and a nostalgic re instatement of past securities From the Labour landslide victory of 1945 to the emergence of the Cold War and the humiliation of Suez in 1956 this was a period of radical political transformation in Britain and beyond but these changes resisted literary assimilation Arguing that writing and history do not map straightforwardly one onto the other and that the postwar cannot easily be fitted into the explanatory paradigms of modernism or postmodernism this book offers a more nuanced recognition of what was written and read in the period From wartime radio writing to 1950s travellers cold war poetry to radical theatre magazine cultures to popular fiction this volume examines important debates that animated postwar Britain Muriel Spark's Postmodernism □□□□, 2012-02

Electric Spark Frances Wilson, 2025-09-23 The award winning biographer Frances Wilson presents an exhilarating new look at Muriel Spark a consummate artist of the twentieth century Is the story fact Is it fiction It is what it is said Muriel Spark Muriel Spark was a puzzle and so too are her books She dealt in word games tricks and ciphers her life was composed of weird accidents strange coincidences and spooky events Evelyn Waugh thought she was a saint Bernard Levin said she was a witch and she described herself as Muriel the Marvel with her X ray eyes By following the clues riddles and instructions Spark planted for posterity in her biographies fiction autobiography and archives Frances Wilson aims to crack her code Electric Spark explores not the celebrated Dame Muriel but the apprentice mage discovering her powers It takes us through her early years when turmoil reigned divorce madness murder espionage poverty skullduggery blackmail love affairs revenge and a major religious conversion If this sounds like a novel by Spark it is because her experiences in the 1940s and 1950s became alchemically distilled the material of her art As good a critic as she is a biographer and as sharp a stylist as she is a reader The Boston Globe in Electric Spark Frances Wilson brings her enormous incandescent powers to bear on one of the most formidable writers of the twentieth century

Character and Satire in Post War Fiction Ian Gregson, 2008-04-01 This monograph analyses the use of caricature as one of the key strategies in narrative fiction since the war Close analysis of some of the best known postwar novelists including Toni Morrison Philip Roth Joyce Carol Oates Angela Carter and Will Self reveals how they use caricature to express postmodern conceptions of the self In the process of moving away from the modernist focus on subjectivity postmodern characterisation has often drawn on a much older satirical tradition which includes Hogarth and Gillray in the visual arts and Dryden Pope Swift and Dickens in literature Its key images depict the human as reduced to the status of an object an animal or a machine or the human body as dismembered to represent the fragmentation of the human spirit Gregson argues that this return to caricature is symptomatic of a satirical attitude to the self which is particularly characteristic of contemporary culture

London Magazine John Lehmann, Alan Ross, 2005 Aiding and Abetting Muriel Spark, 2002-03-12 In Aiding and Abetting the doyenne of literary satire has written a wickedly amusing and subversive novel around the true crime case of one of England's most notorious uppercrust scoundrels and the aiders and abettors who kept him on the loose When Lord Lucan walks into psychiatrist Hildegard Wolf's Paris office there is one problem she already has a patient who says he's Lucan the fugitive murderer who bludgeoned his children's nanny in a botched attempt to kill his wife As Dr Wolf sets about deciding which of her patients if either is the real Lucan she finds herself in a fierce battle of wits and an exciting chase across Europe For someone is deceiving someone and it may be the good doctor who despite her unorthodox therapeutic method she talks mainly about her own life has a sinister past too Exhibiting Muriel Spark's boundless imagination and biting wit Aiding and Abetting is a brisk clever and deliciously entertaining tale by one of Britain's greatest living novelists

The Finishing School Muriel Spark, 2007-12-18 From Muriel Spark the grande dame of literary satire comes this swift deliciously witty tale of writerly ambition that recalls her beloved The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie College Sunrise is a somewhat louche and vaguely disreputable finishing school located for now in Lausanne Switzerland Rowland Mahler and his wife Nina run the school as a way to support themselves while he works somewhat falteringly on his novel Into Rowland's creative writing class comes seventeen year old Chris Wiley a red haired literary prodigy whose historical novel in progress on Mary Queen of Scots has already excited the interest of publishers The inevitable result keen envy and a game of cat and mouse fraught with jealousy and attraction both literary and sexual

Muriel Spark Bryan Cheyette, 2000 Muriel Spark is widely considered to be one of the most gifted and innovative British novelists of her generation Professor Cheyette's study is the first to explore her twenty novels as a whole and includes discussion of her short stories poems and literary criticism
