A QUICK BIRD ON WAIMARINO NEWS
ORATOHA TEACHER LEAVING

Oraotaha School Principal Derek Jones is looking towards greater challenges when he takes up the position of principal at Ohakune School this week.

Mr. Jones was principal of Oraotaha for over four years. In that time the role increased from 14 to 23 pupils and the school progressed from one charge to two teacher roles.

He is looking forward to the new position although admits he and his family will miss the many close friends they have made during their time in the Waimarino.

The family were involved with the Baptist Church and with many community organisations.

An appointment for his position has not yet been made. A substitute teacher for the region will fill the position in the interim.

Teacher Robin Olds will remain teaching at Oraotaha School.

RAIL STAFF TRAINED FOR SKIER RELATIONS

All the staff of the Alpine Lifts have undergone an intensive two week training programme to prepare them for the 1988 season.

The first course for managers and supervisors, covered supervision skills, staff and guest relations, and was conducted by American ski industry consultant Cathy Ransom.

Mr. Ransom travels to New Zealand each autumn to conduct courses for the Central Peak, Remarkables and Whakapapa ski areas. Her high powered American style of teaching has had the desired effect, according to Scott Lee, Marketing Manager for R&L.

"There's a very positive feeling at Whakapapa at present. The entire staff are motivated and committed to providing top quality service to the skier," he said.

The second week of training was for all lift operators and ticketing staff and consisted of a familiarisation with the National Park, emergency procedures and on-mountain job skills training with other ski areas.

NAME RETURNED TO THE OLD COUNTRY

The name "Delgaty" and its association with rock and motion pictures disappeared from the map some 10 years ago.

Delgaty has been known in the rural regions since 1880 servicing several major business firms, including the merger with Waimarino NMA, which was a company name out of the company, Wright Brothers and NMA.

The parent company of Delgaty, based in Great Britain, has taken back the name as a result of a company agreement.

The name "Waimarino" now stands alone, having dropped NMA as a result of the merger with Delgaty and this latest agreement to re-establish the name "Delgaty".

TUROA PLANS '88 SKI SEASON KICK OFF TODAY

Everything looks set for the ski season's start today, with Turua planning to run limited facilities thanks to the recent snow.

For beginners the Alpine Meadow Basin is expected to operate, with the Great Chairlift and Park Lane Chair (the second) for experienced skiers.

Day ski passes will be sold at half day rates while the limited facilities operate.

VOICE OF THE RUAPAHU REGION

Mill to be sold

Kariki pulp mill will be sold as a going concern if current negotiations to sell the mill to an Asian consortium are successful.

General Manager Eric Krongvist said last week the negotiations were well advanced and that the consortium would be buying the mill to produce pulp, but that the mill needed to be more efficient.

He said it was too early to see what sort of investment the new owners would adopt to ensure greater efficiency.

The mill has not been consistently profitable since it was built by Waimarino and Kariki Industries as a joint venture.

Mr. Krongvist said there was presently a world shortage of fibre or pulp, and that the Asian concerns wanted pulp.

The decision to sell the mill by Fletcher

Challenge Ltd comes after a review of a number of options for the future of the mill. Kariki pulp mill is owned by Waimarino Ltd which, in turn, is a subsidiary of Fletcher Challenge. It was a wholly owned subsidiary of Fletcher Industries Limited.

The mill produces

120,000 tonnes of pulp per year for Asian producers of paperboard. The papers and newspapers. A chemical, thermally modified, process is used at Kariki.

Mr. Krongvist said he had confidence in the future of the mill.

Ohakune shop vandal's victim

Ohakune business people Bob and Margaret McGinnis, are sick and tired of being the victims of thieves and vandals.

Their business, Fast Food Trading, has been broken into or vandalised on three or four occasions in the last six months. Three of these incidents occurred over a six week period in December and January.

The latest incident was Monday June 26. The couple arrived at work Monday morning to find two broken windows.

Bob McGinnis was shocked and angry. "My first reaction was 'That's it, I'm done. I'm out of here.'"

Fortunately for their customers they decided against closing the business.

"We have a commitment to our customers and to the people who bring in clothing as well."

When word got around town that they were thinking of closing, a lot of people came in and said as they didn't want to see an "out," said Mr McGinnis.

Replastering the broken windows and installing bars and burglar alarms has been a costly exercise for the couple. So much so that they are now considering whether they have not been able to afford to live in winter stock.

With each broken window, another $1000 goes from their savings account. Even then, they had to sell a diamond ring to get the money to replace it.

FIS week festival planned

Glysis Helton is calling on Waimarino people to take advantage of the planned FIS ski racing festival to promote all the area's activities, not just skiing.

Glysis has been "sponsoring" the festival since the province off the mountain during the international ski racing event.

When the Rotorua region to Glysis last week she was working on plans for an open-end parade for Sunday August 6, with the Ohakune Fire Brigade having expressed interest in the parade.

As well as approaching the Waimarino Business Board, Glysis has made enquiries about the parade for Sunday August 6, with the Ohakune Fire Brigade having expressed interest in the parade.

The parade will follow an official welcome to the Manganui-Matangi, which is a parade for the area and the people involved with the festival. A parade will be held after the event.

"The week is not just for the town and skiing, but for the area and the people who live there."

Mr. Helton has been two other international events, the Whakapapa Ski Festival in Canada and at Aspen in the USA.

She said the American really put on a show at Aspen, with a huge parade and with a typically American fireworks display, costing around $5,000 for 15 minutes.

The Ohakune event wouldn't be the same, says Glysis, because at Aspen they have money and lots of professional expertise to draw on.

An Ohakune festival can be great in its own way, with typical Kiwi hospitality, says Glysis.

Pais Bulletin 1988 Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Pais Bulletin 1988 versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library.

lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Pais Bulletin 1988 books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
