Pi Screenplay And The Guerilla Diaries:

The Solaris Effect Steven Dillon, 2010-01-01 What do contemporary American movies and directors have to say about the relationship between nature and art How do science fiction films like Steven Spielberg's A.I. and Darren Aronofsky's represent the apparent oppositions between nature and culture wild and tame Steven Dillon's intriguing new volume surveys American cinema from 1990 to 2002 with substantial descriptions of sixty films emphasizing small budget independent American film Directors studied include Steven Soderbergh Darren Aronofsky Todd Haynes Harmony Korine and Gus Van Sant as well as more canonical figures like Martin Scorsese Robert Altman David Lynch and Steven Spielberg The book takes its title and inspiration from Andrei Tarkovsky's 1972 film Solaris a science fiction ghost story that relentlessly explores the relationship between the powers of nature and art The author argues that American film has the best chance of aesthetic success when it acknowledges that a film is actually a film The best American movies tell an endless ghost story as they perform the agonizing nearness and distance of the cinematic image This groundbreaking commentary examines the rarely seen bridge between select American film directors and their typically more adventurous European counterparts Filmmakers such as Lynch and Soderbergh are cross cut together with Tarkovsky and the great French director Jean Luc Godard in order to test the limits and possibilities of American film Both enthusiastically cinephilic and fiercely critical this book puts a decade of U.S. film in its global place as part of an ongoing conversation on nature and art Pi Darren Aronofsky, 2024-03

The Musicality of Narrative Film D. Kulezic-Wilson, 2015-04-14 The Musicality of Narrative Film is the first book to examine in depth the film music analogy Using comparative analysis Kulezic Wilson explores film's musical potential arguing that film's musicality can be achieved through various cinematic devices with or without music Reel Kabbalah Brian Ogren, 2024 Reel Kabbalah studies representations of esoteric Jewish conceptual traditions known as Kabbalah and Hasidism in five important fictional films from the first decade of the twenty first century The book considers how film both stands in continuity with those traditions and modifies them in the New Age often mystical vein of what is known as neo Kabbalah and neo Hasidism Darren Aronofsky's Films and the Fragility of Hope Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2015-11-19 Darren Aronofsky's Films and the Fragility of Hope offers the first sustained analysis of the current oeuvre of the film director screenwriter and producer Darren Aronofsky Including Pi 1998 Requiem for a Dream 2000 The Fountain 2006 The Wrestler 2008 Black Swan 2010 and Noah 2014 Aronofsky's filmography is discussed with respect to his style and the themes of his films making astute connections with the work of other directors other movies and works of art and connecting his films with other disciplines such as math philosophy psychology and art history Jadranka Skorin Kapov deploys her background in philosophy and math to analyze an American filmmaker with an individual voice working on both independent productions and big budget Hollywood films Aronofsky is revealed to be a philosopher's director considering the themes of life and death addiction and obsession sacrifice and the fragility of hope Skorin Kapov discusses his ability to visually present challenging intersections between art and philosophy Concluding with a transcript of a conversation between the author and Aronofsky himself Darren Aronofsky's Films and the Fragility of Hope is a much needed study on this American auteur The Reel Truth Reed Martin, 2009-04-28 Did you know that most of the biggest indie filmmakers screenwriters and producers working today each made the same avoidable mistakes early on in their careers The Reel Truth details the pitfalls snares and roadblocks that aspiring filmmakers encounter Reed Martin interviewed more than one hundred luminaries from the independent film world to discuss the near misses that almost derailed their first and second films and identify the close shaves that could have cut their careers short Other books may tell you the best way to make your independent film or online short but no other book describes so candidly how to spot and avoid such issues and obstacles as equipment problems shooting day snafus postproduction myths theatrical distribution deal breakers and dozens of other commonly made missteps including the top fifty mistakes every filmmaker makes From personal experience and his years as a freelance reporter covering independent film for USA Today and Filmmaker magazine Martin uncovers the truth about the risks and potential rewards that go with chasing celluloid glory Whether you're writing a screenplay looking for financing about to start shooting or thinking about investing time and money or someone else's money in an independent film The Reel Truth is a must read

Lacan and Contemporary Film Todd McGowan, 2020-09-08 This unique volume collects a series of essays that link new developments in Lacanian psychoanalytic theory and recent trends in contemporary cinema Though Lacanian theory has long had a privileged place in the analysis of film film theory has tended to ignore some of Lacan's most important ideas As a result Lacanian film theory has never properly integrated the disruptive and troubling aspects of the filmic experience that result from the encounter with the Real that this experience makes possible Many contemporary theorists emphasize the importance of the encounter with the Real in Lacan's thought but rarely in discussions of film By bringing the encounter with the Real into the dialogue of film theory the contributors to this volume present a new version of Lacan to the world of film studies These essays bring this rediscovered Lacan to bear on contemporary cinema through analysis of a wide variety of films including Memento Eyes Wide Shut Breaking the Waves and Fight Club The films discussed here demand a turn to Lacanian theory because they emphasize the disruptive role of the Real and of jouissance in the experience of the human subject There is a growing number of films in contemporary cinema that speak to film's power to challenge and disturb the complacency of spectators and the essays in Lacan and Contemporary Film analyze some of these films and bring their power to light Because of its dual focus on developments in Lacanian theory and in contemporary film this collection serves as both an accessible introduction to current Lacanian film theory and an introduction to the study of contemporary cinema Each essay provides an accessible jargon free analysis of one or more important films and at the same time each explains and utilizes key concepts of Lacanian theory The collection stages an encounter between Lacanian theory and contemporary cinema and the result is the enrichment of both Sound Design is the New Score Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2020 The practice of blurring the line between score and sound design has transformed contemporary film soundscape by challenging not only the long established hierarchical relationships between dialogue music and sound effects but also the modes of perception shaped by classical soundtrack practices The methods of this new trend rely on the language of contemporary popular and art music producing soundtracks in which it is difficult to tell the difference between score and ambient sound where pieces of electroacoustic music are merged with diegetic sound sound effects are absorbed into the score or treated as music and diegetic sound is treated as musique concrète In Sound Design is the New Score Kulezic Wilson explores theoretical aesthetic and sensuous dimensions of this new trend providing a multifaceted portrait of a practice which recognizes the interconnectedness of all soundtrack elements and emphasizes their inherent musicality The aesthetic concerns of this practice are illuminated through the concept of the aesthetics of reticence which rejects classical narrative and scoring conventions and uses integrated soundtrack strategies to create the space for mystery in art and for individuality in the cinematic experience The book's emphasis on sensuous and musical aspects of this practice informed by the feminist discourse on the erotics of art challenges popular notions about sensory cinema demonstrating that the sensuousness of film form and its soundscapes is more sophisticated than simply being the result of excessive sensory stimulation facilitated by the use of digital technology or the intensified aesthetics it inspires The discussion is supported by a wide range of case studies from American Independent Asian Australian and European cinemas including films by Shane Carruth Claire Denis Hou Hsiao Hsien Harmony Korine David Michôd Gus Van Sant and Peter Strickland
