Religion In Essence And Manifestation A Study In Phenomenology Volume Two:

Volume 2 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz Marie-Louise von Franz,2021-11-01 The Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz is a 28 volume Magnum Opus from one of the leading minds in Jungian Psychology Volume 1 released on her 106th birthday is to be followed by 27 more volumes over the next 10 years Volume 2 turns to the Hero's Journey within fairytales The Hero's Journey is about the great adventure that leads to a cherished and difficult to obtain prize In these fairytales the Self is often symbolized as that treasured prize and the hero's travails symbolize the process of individuation In its many manifestations the hero embodies the emerging personality In the conscious world the hero is only one part of the personality the despised part and through his attachment to the Self in the unconscious is a symbol of the whole personality Von Franz's prodigious knowledge of fairytales from around the world demonstrates that the fairytale draws its root moisture from the collective realm This volume continues where Volume 1 left off as von Franz describes the fairytale suspended between the divine and the secular worlds creating a mysterious and pregnant tension that requires extreme power to withstand The resistance of the great mother against the hero and his humble origins as well as the hero freeing the anima figure from the clutches of the unconscious are universal archetypal patterns The spoils retrieved by the hero symbolize new levels of consciousness wrested from the unconscious Phenomenology of Religion Archana

Barua,2009-01-01 Out of the wide variety of themes covered by Husserl's phenomenology and later developed by Heidegger Merleau Ponty and others in different possible directions the present work attempts to indicate the few features of the method that derives from Edmund Husserl's basic themes of the phenomenological movement and its methodology Barua explores the manner in which this method has been applied to the study of art and religion by other phenomenologists and accordingly introduces the problem of this profound bulk namely the phenomenological approach to religion mostly in their terms Volume 3 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz: Archetypal Symbols in Fairytales Marie-Louise von

Franz,2022-02-28 The Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz is a 28 volume Magnum Opus from one of the leading minds in Jungian Psychology Volume 3 turns to the Maiden's Quest within fairytales The maiden heroine navigates a complicated maze of inner and outer relationships as she builds a bridge to the unconscious The heroine contends with the animus in many forms like a devouring and incestuous father demonic groom the beautiful prince an androgenous mother a cold dark tower and through conflict with the evil stepmother Dangers and pitfalls await her as the conscious feminine strives to make connections with the unconscious masculine The maiden is the undeveloped feminine and the promised fruit of her struggle with the animus is the coniunctio Volume 3 is a masterwork of cross cultural scholarship penetrating psychological insight and a strikingly illuminating treatise With her usual perspicacity and thoroughness von Franz gathers countless fairytale motifs revealing a myriad of facets to the maiden's quest Biblical Studies, Theology, Religion and Philosophy N. Amanze,2012-06-28 This book introduces the study of Biblical studies theology religion and philosophy from an African perspective The book comprises twenty six chapters divided into four sections The first section deals with Biblical studies the second with theology the third with religion and the fourth with philosophy The contributions are from 20 eminent scholars from African and Caribbean universities

Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion Jacques Waardenburg, 2017-01-23 Waardenburg's magisterial essay traces the rise and development of the academic study of religion from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century outlining the establishment of the discipline its connections with other fields religion as a subject of research and perspectives on a phenomenological study of religion Furthermore a second part comprises an anthology of texts from 41 scholars whose work was programmatic in the evolution of the academic study of religion Each chapter presents a particular approach theory and method relevant to the study of religion The pieces selected for this volume were taken from the discipline of religious studies as well as from related fields such as anthropology sociology and psychology to name a few

Volume 1 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz Marie-Louise von Franz, 2021-09-20 This newly translated volume of the Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz one of the most renowned authorities on fairytales presents a systematic and wide ranging approach Von Franz amplifies a variety of fairytale motifs to show that the magical realm is alien to the profane and mundane realm of ordinary daily life She was one of Analytical Psychology's most original thinkers and here she presents a lucid concise exploration of the archetypal symbols found in fairytales Fairytales like myths provide a cultural and societal backdrop that helps the human imagination narrate the meaning of life's events The remarkable similarities in fairytale motifs across different lands and cultures inspired many scholars to search for the original homeland of fairytales While peregrinations of fairytale motifs occur the common root of fairytales is more archetypal than geographic A striking feature of fairytales is that a sense of space time and causality is absent This situates them in a magical realm a land of the soul where the most interesting things happen in the center of places like Heaven mountains lakes and wells At the age of eighteen Marie Louise von Franz was invited to meet Carl Gustav Jung at Bollingen Tower She immediately recognized that there exist two levels of reality one outer and the other inner Within months she had enrolled at the University of Zurich and began attending Jung's lectures at the Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule or the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Less than a decade after meeting Jung von Franz had completed her doctorate in classical philology and begun seeing her first analysands She was a prolific writer a dedicated teacher and lecturer and was possessed of a far reaching and often non discriminating Eros that accepted everyone seeking help Alfred Ribi MD in Fountain of the Love of Wisdom Chiron 2006

Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume II Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-19 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us Stereotyping Religion II Brad Stoddard, Craig Martin, 2023-05-18 Building on the success of Stereotyping Religion Critiquing Clichés this follow up volume dismantles a further 10 widespread stereotypes and clichés about religion focusing on clichés that a new generation of students are most familiar with Each chapter includes A description of a particular cliché Discussion of where it appears in popular culture or popular media Discussion of where it appears in scholarly literature A historical contextualization of its use in the past An analysis of the social or rhetorical work the cliché accomplishes in the present Clichés addressed include Religion and science naturally conflict All religions are against LGBTQ rights Eastern religions are more spiritual than Western religions Religion is personal and not subject to government regulation Religious pluralism gives everyone a voice Written in an easy and accessible style Stereotyping Religion II Critiquing Clichés is suitable for all readers looking to clear away unsophisticated assumptions in preparation for more critical studies Religion in Essence and Manifestation Gerardus Van der Leeuw, 2014-07-14 In this book van der Leeuw discusses the horizontal path to God and the vertical paths descending from God and ascending to Him If God Himself appears it is in a totally different manner which results not in intelligible utterance but in proclamation and it is with this that theology has to deal Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Social Scientific Study of Religion Paul S. Chung, 2022-01-01 In this study Paul S Chung charts the history of social scientific study of religion from the axial age to the present day and thereby lays a foundation for a new model of constructive theology in the comparative study of religion culture and society Analysing the thought of Max Weber Alfred Schutz Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault Edmund Husserl Max Horkheimer and others Chung deals effectively with material interests power relations and the history of race gender and sexuality The result is a synthesis that is at once innovative critical and applicable to current methodology in theology and the social sciences A Guide to the Phenomenology of Religion James Cox, 2006-08-15 Provides an introduction and overview to the Phenomenology of Religion through describing analysing and evaluating the ideas of key thinkers in the phenomenology of religion This book also examines the thinking of scholars within the Dutch British and North American schools of religious phenomenology

Naturalism and Protectionism in the Study of Religions Juraj Franek, 2020-02-06 How should we study religion Must we be religious ourselves to truly understand it Do we study religion to advance our knowledge or should the study of religions help to reintroduce the sacred into our increasingly secularized world Juraj Franek argues that the study of religion has long been split into two competing paradigms reductive naturalist and non reductive protectionist While the naturalistic approach seems to run the risk of explaining religious phenomena away the protectionist approach appears to risk falling short of the methodological standards of modern science Franek uses primary source material from Greek and Latin sources to show that both competing paradigms are traceable to Presocratic philosophy and early Christian literature He presents the idea that naturalists are distant heirs not only of the French Enlightenment but also of the Ionian one Likewise he argues that protectionists owe much of their arguments and strategies not only to Luther and the Reformation but to the earliest Christian literature This book analyses the conflict between reductive and non reductive approach in the modern study of religions and positions the Cognitive Science of Religion against a background of previous theories ancient and modern to demonstrate its importance for the revindication of the naturalist paradigm Liturgical Theology in Thomas Aquinas

Franck Quoex, 2023-10-20 In this volume Fr Franck Quo x responds to Joseph Ratzinger s call for a renewed appreciation of liturgical rite A student of Pierre Gy OP he brings to this study of Aquinas s liturgical theology a rare combination of expert knowledge of liturgical sources and history and the best of modern historical critical research guided by sound theological judgment Fr Quo x frames his study with an overview of the problem of rite in modern theological anthropological discourse before turning to Aquinas theory of worship in the treatise on the virtue of religion He then explores Aquinas doctrine on the cultic dimensions of the Eucharist and other sacraments in his sacramental theology more broadly finishing with a close study of the mass commentary of the Tertia Pars Although there has been increasing attention to Thomas s treatment of religion as a virtue none have approached him from an anthropological angle with a focus on the nature of liturgical rite or fully exploited the perspectives of liturgical scholarship to shed light on sacramental theology Quo x s work as the work of a Thomist liturgist and medievalist well versed in medieval liturgical development and in the genre of often allegorical liturgical commentary opens up this crucial but neglected facet of Aquinas theological synthesis Few books have been published on Aquinas s liturgical theology Now that interest in Aquinas s virtue theory and sacramental theology is growing rapidly Quo x s studies are an invitation to further reflection on the topic of Aquinas s liturgical theology with its manifold ramifications for and connections with other theological topics in his Summa including his theological anthropology his soteriology his treatment of the Old and New Laws and his account of the virtue of religion in connection with the other virtues Towards an African-Christian Environmental Ethic Nisbert Taisekwa Taringa, 2014-04-17 This book is a critical comparative study of African Shona and Christian attitudes to nature The purpose of initiating this discussion is to review the existing attitudes to nature in these two religions This has important implications in an attempt to formulate a public environmental ethic in which traditional Shona and Christian adherents participate This is crucial in the light of the ongoing inequity and ecological imbalance in Zimbabwe The Eschatology of the Book of the Jubilees Gene L. Davenport, 1971

Introduction to the Study of Religion Hillary P. Rodrigues, John S. Harding, 2023-11-29 Why do people study religion How have they studied it in the past How do we study religion today Is the academic study of religion the same as religious education These and many other questions are addressed in this engaging introduction to the discipline of religious studies Topics include Definitions of religion Perspectives in the study and teaching of religion How religion began to be studied Traditional perspectives philosophical and theological How people experience religion Perspectives in the study of religious consciousness and perception phenomenological and psychological Studying religion within communities Social and cultural perspectives anthropological sociological political and economic Judging religion Critical perspectives feminist approaches the interaction of popular literature and religion Contextual perspectives historical and comparative Themes theories and current directions This thoroughly updated second edition encourages students to think critically about the theories and methods presented Students will find arguments for the strengths and limitations of these approaches understand connections among religious studies and other intellectual movements and develop their own ideas of how they might want to go about the study of religion Summary boxes discussion questions a glossary a chronology of key figures and texts and other pedagogic aids help students grasp key concepts The Participatory Turn Jorge N. Ferrer, Jacob H. Sherman, 2008-10-23 Can we take seriously religious experience spirituality and mysticism without reducing them to either cultural linguistic by products or simply asserting their validity as a dogmatic fact The contributors to this volume argue that we can and they offer a new way the participatory turn which proposes that individuals and communities have an integral and irreducible role in bringing forth ontologically rich religious worlds They explore the ways this approach weaves together and gives voice to a number of robust trends in contemporary religious scholarship including the renewed study of lived spirituality the postmodern emphasis on embodied and gendered subjectivity the admission of alternate epistemic perspectives the irreducibility of religious pluralism and the pragmatist emphasis on transformation all trends that raise serious challenges to the currently prevalent linguistic paradigm The first part of the book situates the participatory turn in the context of contemporary Religious Studies the second part shows how this approach can be applied to various global traditions ancient and contemporary from Western esotericism to Jewish mysticism Christianity Hinduism Sufism and socially engaged Buddhism Standing on the Premises of God Fritz Detwiler, 1999-12 The Christian Right is arguably the most significant social movement in the United States today In recent years these religious conservatives have loudly protested a public education system they believe no longer represents their interests or values Educators often dismiss critiques based on religious values as irrational or flimsy failing to appreciate the coherence of these criticisms from the Christian Right's own perspective. While the Christian Right has become ever more sophisticated in its lobbying and powerful in its influence, educators and parents find themselves lacking the background knowledge necessary to respond effectively to its efforts. Standing on the Premises of God speaks directly to this dilemma, explaining current incarnations of the Christian Right, its leadership, its intellectual and theological foundations, and its tactics so that those interested in the debates over education will be better prepared to engage them constructively. Taking the novel approach of framing the Christian Right as a revitalization movement, Detwiler shows how it seeks to effect cultural transformation in order to bring public education and our society more generally in line with its worldview. His theoretical model provides insights into why education is so pivotal to the Christian Right and also assesses the religious viability of the Christian Right as a social movement.

To the Things Themselves Arvind Sharma, 2001. Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971, Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories, theoretical issues, and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion. Topics include, among others, category formation, comparison, ethnophilosophy, hermeneutics, methodology, myth, phenomenology, philosophy of science, scientific atheism, structuralism, and theories of religion. From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline.

Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009. Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s. His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels, from primary schools to academic teaching and research. An unending string of publications, many of them accessible to the general public, sustained a reputation that became worldwide. Here, for the first time, a selection of Ninian Smart's wide-ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century. The editor, John Shepherd, was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria. He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster.
