Religion Learning And Science In The Abbasid Period:

Religion, Learning and Science in the 'Abbasid Period M. J. L. Young, J. D. Latham, R. B. Serjeant, 2006-11-02 The five centuries of the Abbasid period eighth to thirteenth centuries AD were the golden age of Arabic literature They saw the appearance not only of poetry and belles lettres which are covered in a previous volume but also of an extensive body of writings concerned with subjects ranging from theology and law to history and the natural sciences This volume of The Cambridge History of Arabic Literature surveys the most important of these writings including the literature of Sunnism and Shi'ism Arabic philosophy Sufism Islamic law grammar lexicography administration historiography mathematics astronomy astrology geography alchemy and medicine It contains separate chapters on six of the greatest scholars of the Middle Ages as well as on the Arabic literature of the Christians and Jews who lived under the rule of the Abbasid caliphate and includes a study of one of the great cultural movements of the period the translations from Greek into Arabic Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muhasibi who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbasids Although al-Muhasibi was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'anic Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al-Muhasibi's teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism

Miriam Frenkel,Yaacov Lev,2009-08-17 This book deals with various manifestations of charity or giving in the contexts of the Christian Jewish and Muslim societies in Late Antiquity and Early Middle Ages Monotheistic charity and giving display many common features These underlying similarities reflect a commonly shared view about God and his relations to mankind and what humans owe to God and expect from him Nevertheless the fact that the emphasis is placed on similarities does not mean that the uniqueness of the concepts of charity and giving in the three monotheistic religions is denied The contributors of the book deal with such heterogeneous topics like the language of social justice in early Christian homilies as well as charity and pious endowments in medieval Syria Egypt and al Andalus during the 11th 15th centuries This wide range of approaches distinguish the book from other works on charity and giving in monotheistic religions A Companion to Muslim

Cultures Aryn Sajoo,2011-11-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Culture shapes every aspect of the relationship between God and the believer in Islam as well as among believers and with those beyond the fold Fasts prayers and pilgrimages are attuned to social rhythms old and new no less than the designs of mosques and public gardens the making of religious music and ways of thinking about technology and wellbeing Ancient deserts and modern urban landscapes may echo with the same call for transcendence but in voices that emerge from very different everyday realities Scripture itself as the Prophet Muhammad knew is ever seen through a cultural lens both language and what it communicates are intimately tied to context And the cosmopolitanism that runs through Muslim history from the outset recalls T S Eliot s remark that culture is that which makes life worth living It frames how the deepest religious values are understood and practiced from modesty in adornment and solidarity with the underprivileged to integrity and accountability in political life Muslims have never been content with a passive separation of faith from their daily lives whether public or private What are the implications of this holistic view in a diverse world of Muslims and non Muslims How do core ethical values interface with the particulars of local cultures in all their complexity especially when it comes to matters like the status of women and the scope of individual religious freedom The answers at a time when secular and Muslim identities appear to be locked in conflict are explored in this Companion by some of today s finest scholars Al-Ghazālī's

Qur'ān Gordon Nickel,2010-12-17 The Muslim accusation of the corruption or deliberate falsification of pre Qur'anic scriptures has been a major component of interfaith polemic for a millenium or more The accusation has frequently sought attestation from a series of tampering verses in the Qur'an Investigation of the interpretation of these verses in the earliest commentaries on the Qur'an however reveals a discrepancy between the confident polemical accusation and the tentative understandings of the first Muslims Of greater interest to early commentators was a story of deception and obstinacy by the People of the Book in response to the truth claims of Islam Focusing on the eighth century commentary of Muqatil ibn Sulayman and the great exegetical compendium of al-Jabarid 923 this book sketches the outlines of the earliest Muslim approach to pre Qur'anic scriptures The resulting discoveries provide a rare opportunity to peek behind the curtain of doctrinaire claim and polemical debate Freethinkers of Medieval Islam Sarah Stroumsa,2021-09-20 This book endeavors to identify and define the phenomenon of freethinking in medieval Islam in particular as exemplified in the figures of the two most notorious intellectual heretics Ibn al-Rawand 9th C and Ab Bakr al-Razi 10th C The development of Islamic freethinking is analyzed on the background of the paramount importance of prophetology in Islam The book examines the image of the freethinkers in Islam and its connection to the legacy of late antiquity and to the traditions about Indian and Sabian religions The last chapters examine repercussions of his phenomenon in various aspects of Muslim Jewish and Christian medieval thought It is argued that despite its rare occurrence freethinking was in fact a pivotal Islamic phenomenon which had a major impact on the development of Islamic thought Astrology in Time and Place Nicholas Campion,Dorian Gieseler

Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth
