Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without Theology between Church, University and Society N.F.M. Schreurs,Brinkman,Vroom,Wethmar,2021-11-22 STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 6 Theology between Church University and Society includes contributions to the international NOSTER conference Theology between Church University and Society held in the Netherlands in June 2000 In the current academic world theologians are often suspected of confessionalism bias and narrow mindedness They in turn try to regain respect by producing specialist historical empirical and analytical studies that are in line with other academic research This retreat into neutrality renders them suspect in the eyes of their religious communities Some churches react by reformulating their appointment policies and become more strict in order to secure the full loyalty of the theological staff of their institutions Therefore many theologians feel a conflict between loyalty to their tradition and loyalty to the academic world Student populations have also changed considerably

during the last few decades Quite a number of students have a lively interest in religion but no religious affiliation at all University teachers have to adapt to these new audiences and faculties need to reorient themselves to reestablish their goals This volume is concerned with these three challenges academic religious and societal In all of the contributions the tension between descriptive research and normative theses or the relation between theology and society at large is discussed Not only are there descriptions of the structures of theological institutions in the Netherlands the USA and South Africa but also of the relations between churches and theological institutions and Vatican policy regarding theological faculties
