Supporting People with Alcohol and Drug Problems Sarah Galvani, 2012-05-16 Social workers and other social care professionals regularly face the challenges of working with people with alcohol and other drug problems Yet many receive little if any training for working with these issues As substance use and its social impact on communities and families rises up the political agenda this book offers a timely support for social workers and other social care staff working in this area Supporting people with alcohol and drug problems addresses the current gap in social work and social care education It provides a combination of research evidence policy frameworks and practical hints and tips for good social work practice Based around practice examples supplied by social workers from both adults and children s social care it combines knowledge with action It also provides an important introduction to the evidence base on assessment intervention and partnership working with specialist substance use colleagues This book is for all those working in children s and adults social work and social care settings who are working with people who use or have problems with alcohol and other drugs *They F*** You Up* Oliver James,2010-12-20

Do your relationships tend to follow the same destructive pattern Do you feel trapped by your family s expectations of you Does your life seem overwhelmingly governed by jealousy or competitiveness or lack of confidence In this ground breaking book clinical psychologist Oliver James shows that it is the way we were cared for in the first six years of life that has a crucial effect on who we are and how we behave Nurture in effect shapes our very nature James combines the latest scientific research with fascinating interviews to show that understanding your past is the first step to controlling your present Applications of Group Analysis for the Twenty-First Century Jason Maratos,2018-05-15 The Institute of Group Analysis IGA celebrates forty years from its foundation with the publication of these two volumes The first volume aims to publicise the foundations of group analysis with the earliest papers of Foulkes as well as the most influential theoretical contributions by pillars of modern group analysis such as Pines Brown and Hopper The reader will be able to see the development of Group Analysis form an opinion about the trajectory that it follows and judge which way the tradition of openness and creative integration of diverse theoretical contributions will lead in the twenty first century The second volume focuses on the numerous fields of work that use group analytic principles Workers in the field of forensic psychotherapy would now consider a great omission if they did not use some form of group analytic intervention as would professionals dealing with those who manifest personality disorders or different age groups such as adolescents Group analysis has made significant contribution to organisational work to feminism and anti discrimination including anti racism as well as in education Emerging Perspectives on Substance Misuse Willm Mistral,2013-06-27 Copy Web Catalog Emerging

Perspectives on Substance Misuse addresses theoretical practice and policy issues with regard to the problematic use of alcohol and illegal drugs Comprises chapters from some of the most internationally well known academics and practitioners representing a range of different specializations and perspectives in the field Presents a wide range of emerging evidence based perspectives Includes content relevant for researchers practitioners and policy makers who work with individuals or policy related to drug and alcohol misuse Areas covered include gender and substance use working with children and families of substance misusers and the emerging recovery movement Families Affected by Addiction Gallus Bischof,Richard Velleman,Jim Orford,Abhijit Nadkarni,Marcela Tiburcio,2025-05-06 This Open Access book sheds new light on the wide range of Affected Family Members experiences At a conservative estimate there are at least 100 million adults across the globe who are affected by their relatives addiction problems These Affected Family Members AFMs experience multiple stresses coping dilemmas and a lack of information and support and are at heightened risk for ill health The results are very costly both from the personal and from the public services point of view The volume elaborates on the barriers to providing effective help including political neglect under representation in both policy and service delivery models the lack of involvement and encouragement from health and social care professionals the stigmatisation and bias as barriers to care and the range of evidence based interventions It also explores the similarities and differences of all of these areas depending on the type of addiction problem that the family is affected by alcohol illicit drugs gambling etc While covering the more commonly reported work in high income countries the contributions put strong emphasis on the experience of AFMs in low and middle income countries Given its truly global approach the book will be a key resource for practitioners policymakers and researchers alike
