Russia Under the New Regime Richard Pipes, 1994 Totalitarianism, Globalization, Colonialism Harry Redner, 2014-05-23 The century that began in 1914 with the outbreak of the First World War was catastrophic Over the course of that one hundred year span civilizations were destroyed in the Old World the New World and the Third World the latter represented by China India and Islam In Europe the main agent of destruction was totalitarianism in America it was globalization ushered in by modernity and in the non Western world it was colonialism followed later by totalitarianism and globalization Harry Redner examines each of these processes providing theoretical and historical accounts of their emergence He considers the effects of Nazism and Bolshevism on the morale and morals of Europe studies the effects on the United States of the nation's emergence as a major world power and describes the impact of modernization on China India and Islam as they underwent Europeanization Sovietization and Americanization Redner confronts us with a paradox in the midst of unprecedented material affluence and organizational efficiency one that uses advanced technologies and cutting edge scientific knowledge we are also sinking into an unprecedented cultural moral intellectual and spiritual decline He locates the origins of this condition in the violently contradictory processes of the twentieth century Redeemer Nation Orrin Schwab,2004 In this book Dr Orrin Schwab develops the concept of the modern technocratic state as part of a global technocratic culture and civilization The author argues that technocratic cultural and institutional forms were and are part of a collective script for Western culture The American script combined the scientific commercial and technological aspects of the Enlightenment with the radical 17th century Protestant belief in America as a new Zion In the twentieth century the synthesis of mission along with global technocratic knowledge and institutions created the Wilsonian liberal technocratic order As the principal agent and protector of the modern capitalist international system America the self defined Redeemer Nation has moved through the controlled anarchy of international relations from one war and crisis to the next confirmed in its self defined role and mission The Tragedy of European Civilization Harry Redner,2017-09-08 The tragedy of European civilization is a protracted historical event spanning the twentieth century and in many ways is ongoing During this time some of the greatest modern thinkers were active producing works that both reflected what was happening in history and contributed towards shaping it This work is a critique of their ideas Harry Redner establishes where and how they went wrong in some cases with apocalyptic consequences for Europe and the world The great intellectuals of the age at once philosophers sociologists political theorists historians and much else besides include Marx Weber Freud Elias Spengler Wittgenstein Heidegger Arendt Nietzsche and Foucault All of them had a historical impact even if only in molding academic disciplines and shaping of public opinion as was the case with the philosophers Wittgenstein and Arendt This book explores the close links between anti Semitism and cultural pessimism and the relation between psychology and sociology Other themes range from the history and theory of the state to the misconception of language and power Suitable for students of sociology philosophy political theory history and cultural studies this brilliant exploration of our civilization and its tragedies will also be of interest to intellectual general readers Communism and the Emergence of Democracy Harald Wydra,2007-02-08 Before democracy becomes an institutionalised form of political authority the rupture with authoritarian forms of power causes deep uncertainty about power and outcomes This book connects the study of democratisation in eastern Europe and Russia to the emergence and crisis of communism Wydra argues that the communist past is not simply a legacy but needs to be seen as a social organism in gestation where critical events produce new expectations memories and symbols that influence meanings of democracy By examining a series of pivotal historical events he shows that democratisation is not just a matter of institutional design but rather a matter of consciousness and leadership under conditions of extreme and traumatic incivility Rather than adopting the opposition between non democratic and democratic Wydra argues that the communist experience must be central to the study of the emergence and nature of democracy in post communist countries Let's Review Regents: Global History and Geography 2020 Mark Willner,George Hero,Mary

Unyielding Resolve Lev E. Dobriansky, 2025-02-01 Dr Lev E Dobriansky provides a unique first person perspective on Russian imperialist behavior in the twentieth century arguing that even in the Soviet era Russian statecraft was heavily shaped by traditional imperialist ideology led by Moscow s self image as the dominant Eurasian imperial power This theory was at the heart of Dobriansky s commitment to warning against global Soviet aggression and liberating peoples under Russian repression culminating in the Captive Nations Resolution PL 86 90 the US law designating Captive Nations Week and the issuance of a presidential proclamation every July This resolution played a major role in shaping US policies toward victims of Russian imperial domination and today continues as an acknowledgment of people and nations living under repressive regimes The collapse of the Soviet Union and subsequent developments including Russia s 2014 and 2022 unprovoked invasions of independent Ukraine have validated the author s view that Russian imperialism was the major determinant of its statecraft The book is the first to document the history of Captive Nations and the passage of PL 86 90 It is a potent first person account detailing the role of nationalism in the strong resistance to Moscow s efforts to maintain
